

MRS. WILLIAM BELLEFLEUR.

Just as the clock was striking 5 last evening, Mrs. William Bellefleur breathed her last. She had been ill seven months and one day, and had a most heartbreaking illness, most of the time being almost totally paralyzed. A few months ago there was a change for the better and her devoted family were beginning to entertain hope of her ultimate recovery. About two weeks ago there was another change and the unfortunate lady was stricken with her last and mortal sickness.

Surviving her is a devoted husband and four children the eldest Mrs. Geo. W. Lang, arriving this morning from Seattle, Henry, Willie and Lizzie, only Mr. Bellefleur and the little girl being present when the mother died, both boys being out in the country, for whom the summons came too late.

The funeral services will take place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Catholic church, from thence the remains will be taken in charge by the Royal Neighbors, a ladies' auxiliary of the M. W. A. of which deceased was an honored member, and who will conduct the services, under their ritual, at the Conrad cemetery, which has been selected as the final resting place of this good woman, devoted wife and mother.

Mrs. Bellefleur was only 39 years of age. She was born in New Brunswick in 1867 and came to Missoula in 1881, where she was married in 1882 to William Bellefleur. In 1883 they came to the Flathead where they have ever since resided and reared a family.

FATAL ACCIDENT

By Which John Herman Loses His Mother at Plains.

Mrs. Mary Herman, mother of Johnny Herman, the reservation stock man, died last week at Plains, as the result of injuries she received the previous week, when she was knocked down and trampled on by some cows

The accident which cost Mrs. Herman her life was of a very peculiar nature. She had just finished milking a cow and was about to let it out of the corral, having opened the gate for that purpose when several cows on the outside attempted to rush in forcing the gate back against the old lady, the force of the impact knocking her down, the cows trampling over her prostrate body. Her scream brought her husband and son George to her assistance and as soon as they could they removed her to the house realizing that she had been very seriously hurt. Upon being lifted Mrs. Herman regained consciousness and George immediately hurried across the river for Dr. Peek. Upon his arrival it was found that her left leg had been broken in three places below the knee and that her head and face had been severely bruised. One of the broken bones had forced its way through the fleshy portion of the leg and the wound bled profusely.

Mrs. Mary Herman was born in County Corlo, Ireland, on September 12, 1844. She came over to this country with her mother while still a baby settling on a farm near Rock Island, in Illinois, her father having died in the old country. In company with her brother Mike Burns she crossed the plains coming to Montana in the fall of '63. On May 26, 1865, at Virginia City, Montana, she was married to Jacob Herman. They came to Thompson Falls in the spring of 1884 and have resided here continuously since that time. Eight children, five of whom survive their mother, were born to them, two sons and one daughter having died. Beside the husband, one daughter, Mrs. Annie Whalen of White Pine, and four sons, John of Dayton, Mont., Michael of Alberta, Canada, Chris and George of Thompson, are left to mourn her loss.
