MONTANA PIONEER

TAKEN BY DEATH

H. A. D'ACHEUL, A PROMINENT EARLY SETTLER, DIES IN PASADENA, CALIF.

H. A. D'Acheul, aged 71 years and one of the early settlers of Butte, died yesterday at Pasadena, Cal., according to word received by Harry Wallace, clerk of the federal court, and nephew of the aged pioneer. The message did not convey any details of his death nor tell of the funeral arrangements, but Mr. Walker believes that the man was ill only a short time. In the pioneer days Mr. D'Acheul was a great booster for Butte and at that time he was familiar figure in the treasure state. He owned considerable property in this city and among other possessions he had the building on Main street, occupied by Leys jewelry store, the D'Acheul block at 26 West Broadway and the D'Acheul building at 104 East Park street. Until a few years ago he made Butte his home but after retiring from active business moved to Pasadena to spend his declining years. He is survived by his wife, two sisters, Mrs. L. A. Walker of Butte, and Mrs. H. M. Parchen of Helena. The many friends of Mr. D'Acheul in Montana will be greatly grieved to hear of his death.

His Career

His Career.

Mr. D'Acheul came to Montana from Missouri in 1868. He located in Helena and was there married in 1873 to Miss Hattie Rumley of Helena. He was employed by the Parchen & Paynter Drug company for a number of years and moved from Helena to Deer Lodge to take the management of a branch house established by this firm at Deer Lodge. From Deer Lodge he came a few years later to Butte and with Mr. Parchen organized a drug company which conducted a healthy business from the start. The firm of Parchen & Paynter was dissolved and Mr. Parchen married a sister of Mr. D'Acheul, which led to the organization of the new firm.

At the time of his retirement from business Mr. D'Acheul was rated as very wealthy and he elected to enjoy the last years of his life on the Pacific coast where the climate was more agreeable to his health.

Mr. D'Acheul was a member of no fraternal organizations but enjoyed the confidence and respect of everyone who knew him. He had neither business nor personal enemies and the news of his death brings only sorrow and regret. No news has been received of the funeral arrangements. —Butte Miner.

DEATH OF EARNEST FORMAN UNTIMELY

Earnest Eugene Forman was born at Bloomington, South Dakota, July 19, 1888, and died at the home of Henry Luke, near Sparks' school house, Flathead county, May 28, 1914, aged 25 years, 10 months, 9 days. He came with his parents to this county 11 years ago. He spent three and a half years upon a homestead on the reservation. During his residence there he married Miss Gladys Williams. To this union there was born one child. He was taken sick last November and in spite of the best medical aid he continued to gradually decline.

While the thought of parting with his dearest friends troubled him, he became reconciled to the call of the Lord, and died in triumph of the Christian faith. He was a young man of noble qualities. During his intense suffering he was mindful of the comforts of others. We cannot express the loneliness his departure has brought, but we are glad that we can feel that he is at rest, waiting for us on the other shore.

He has left behind to mourn his loss a wife and child, father, mother, three sisters, five brothers and many friends, and was quietly buried in the Conrad cemetery, to await the general resurrection of the dead. The funeral services were held by the writer.

D. M. HARVEY.

AT BIGFORK BODY IS FOUND

FOUND SEVERAL MILES BELOW
PLACE WHERE DROWNING OCCURRED.

After being in the Bigfork river for over 13 days, the body of Ester Pederson was found at the mouth of the stream yesterday morning by Philip Gangner, who has been aiding in the search for the body since the drowning occurred, on the afternoon of May 21.

The body of the girl was not mutilated or decomposed in the least, which is remarkable in that it had been carried through a mile and a half of turbulent rapids. It was sighted by Mr. Gangner floating in a bunch of logs in the middle of the river at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. The cold water probably kept the body from decomposing.

The body was brought to Kalispell and placed in the undertaking parlors of Coroner Waggener. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Lutheran church on the west side.

NEAR BROWNING

Word was received in Kalispell yesterday of the drowning of Louis Tift about 40 miles from Browning. The recent rains have been responsible for the water rising in that district and the party underestimated the depth of a coulee which they had to cross. The entire party went under but Tift's companions grasped the rope tied to the horses and were dragged out by the animals. Tift's body was found sitting on the seat of the wagon and it is believed that he may have died from heart trouble or fright instead of drowning. Tift was from Huntington, Oregon; and his body is being held until the arrival of his wife.

Anna Wagner Valequit -2 July 1914

IN MEMORIAM.

Once again our home is darkened,
Death has entered at our door;
Took away our darling mother,
Here we'll meet her never-more.

God released her from all sorrow,
And her heart will ache no more;
And I know that she is anchored
Safely on the other shore.

There, some day, I hope to meet her,
There I'll see her once again;
See her brow bedecked with roses,
Free from sorrow and from pain.

Here on earth her cross was heavy,
And her pleasures they were few;
Now her loving form lies buried
Neath the grass that's wet with dew.

But her soul now dwells in heaven,
She has gone at God's command;
And I know that He is leading
Mother safely by the hand.

There she's waiting for her loved ones

'Till the Savior calls them home,
Safely pillowed on her bosom
From her side no more to roam.

In memory to my mother, Anna
Wagner Valiequet.
Columbia Falls, Mont, July 2.
