DEATH OF MAY BELL HILER

"As for man, his days are as grass, as a flower of the field, so he flourishes."

In these words the Psalmist voiced his lament at the brevity of life.

And surely our hearts echo these sentiments since it has pleased God to call home in the spring time of life, one who through the lovable-ness of her character, had endeared herself to the hearts of all who knew her.

In the death of May Bell Hiler this community has lost one of its purest young girls. In the home, in the school, in the church or in any relation of life, needless to say her influence was for the best.

But he who sees the end of man's ways from the beginning and whose thoughts are not our thoughts, has seen otherwise and called her to higher service.

Before His infinite wisdom, we bow and comfort our hearts with the assurance that "Blessed are they that die in the Lord."

Words cannot express our thanks to the neighbors and friends for the interest and help they were to us in the illness and death of our loved one.

Mrs. J. O. Shideler
