HOLD FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. LIPPARD

Many friends attended the funeral services for Mary J. Lippard, wife of J. H. Lippard, which were held at the Masonic temple at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. The officers of the Eastern Star lodge and Reverend McNair of the Baptist church officiated.

A quartette composed of the Misses Walchli and Lockhart and Messrs. Bruce and Dunsire sang three beautiful hymns, "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me." "In the Hour of Trial" and "My Jesus, As Thou Wilt," and at the grave where only a prayer was offered, the quartette sang "Nearer My God, to Thee." The pall-bearers were T. H. Bogart, Mr. Sickler, Mr. Karcher, J. H. Chester, J. W. Broadwater and J. J. Caswell.

Mary J. Lippard was a Flathead pioneer. Born at Galena, Illinois, November 25, 1855, she moved with her family to Iowa, and in 1878 on February 21, she was married to John H. Lippard. In 1879 she came up the Missouri river to Fort Benton with her husband, and they settled in the Flathead valley in 1890, making this their permanent home.

Six children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Lippard, five of them now living. Mrs. Lippard is survived by her husband, two sons, Wilton of Tacoma, Washington, Frank of Snoqualmie Falls, Washington; and three daughters, Mrs. Blanch Cheevers of Seattle, Mrs. O. J. Gorton of Columbia Falls and Mrs. R. I. Moore of Kalispell. Her mother, three sisters and four brothers also survive her.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends, and especially the Eastern Star lodge and the quartette, for their many kindnesses at the time of the illness and death of our beloved wife, mother and sister, Mary J. Lippard. We wish also to express our thanks for the beautiful floral offerings.
