

8 May 1925

26 Oct 1925

FUNERAL SERVICES YESTERDAY FOR WILLIAM E. DAGGETT

Funeral services for William E. Daggett were held at the Sherman & Son chapel yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The crowds attending overflowed into the street as Mr. Daggett had lived for 41 years in the Flathead and had a multitude of friends here.

The service was in charge of Rev. G. M. Fisher, pioneer Presbyterian minister. A quartet composed of Messrs. Dunsire and John, Mrs. James Broderick and Miss Lois Lockhart, sang a number of hymns, accompanied by Mrs. Fisher. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Bose, Andrew Swaney, Frank Kerns, David Gregg, Richard Gregg and John Fox.

William E. Daggett was born in Maine and had lived here since Demersville days. He first was in the mercantile business with Steve Lehoucau at Ashley, and they brought in the first Galloway cattle to the valley. Mr. Daggett afterwards left the mercantile business and followed the calling of a butcher for a number of years, later entering the employ of Henry Bierman at the Kalispell Meat market, where he remained until recently when failing health forced him to retire.

He is survived by two sisters, one in the east, and Mrs. Alberta Conklin of Seattle, who came to Kalispell for the funeral.

He was 65 years of age.

NORTHWESTERN PIONEER DEAD

(Special to Inter Lake)

Helena, Oct. 26.—James S. Dawson, a brother of Thomas Dawson of Glacier Park, and the eldest of the three sons of Major Andrew Dawson, one of the early day fur traders of the northwest, died October 17 at Sanish, N. D., according to a letter from his son, Harold Dawson, received by David Hilger, secretary of the Montana Historical Society.

James Dawson was born at Fort Clark, a fur post on the Missouri river, near where is now located Mandan, N. D. He was the son of Dawson and the Indian daughter of Pierre Garreau, and with his brother, Thomas, was educated in Scotland.

Besides his brother, Thomas Dawson, of Glacier Park, he is survived by his brother, Andrew, now living at Winnipeg, and a sister residing at Armstrong, S. D. He left three sons, all residing at Sanish, where he was buried October 20.

23 May 1925

The funeral of Judge Moses M. Dowd, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Bailey, was held at the Methodist Episcopal church Thursday afternoon, Rev. Reuben Dutton officiating. The pall bearers were J. A. Monk, C. A. Matthews, Tom Stacey McLean, C. H. Jennings, and Dr. Tillett. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery at Kalispell. Special music for the services was given by Mrs. J. M. Moffat, Mrs. G. M. Moss, L. E. Whitmore and L. C. Larsen. Moses M. Dowd was born at New Haven, Conn., in 1840, removing to Wisconsin and from there to Whitefish, where he has resided for the past 16 years. He took an active interest in civic affairs so long as his health permitted serving as police magistrate and justice of the peace up to two years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Dowd celebrated their golden wedding anniversary December 14, 1913, the first celebration of the kind ever held in the city of Whitefish. Their 60th anniversary was celebrated in 1922, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Bailey kept open house for them and they received the congratulations of the entire community. Mr. Dowd is survived by his aged wife, one daughter, Mrs. Bailey, and one grand daughter, Mrs. Frank Miller of Melville, N. Dak.

10 Jan 1925

JOSEPH DUSCHER

(Contributed)

Funeral services for Joseph Duscher were held at the Waggener and Campbell chapel 2:30 p. m. Friday, Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating. He spoke from the text, "Christ is All in All." The Misses Walchli and Lockhart sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Saved by Grace," accompanied by Miss Du Bois at the piano. Interment was made in the Conrad cemetery.

Mr. Duscher was past 70 years of age, having been born in Germany in 1854. He had lived in this country 34 years, fifteen of the 34 years being spent in Montana. Mr. and Mrs. Duscher came to the Flathead three or four years ago and lived near Jessup's mill at Creston.

Mrs. Duscher's maiden name was Katherine Lore. She, together with a daughter and two sons, survives him. The son, Otto, has been living at home with his parents and will care for his mother. The other son, living at Helena, and the daughter, living in Minnesota, were unable to come for the funeral.

The sympathy of neighbors and friends goes out to the family and especially to the widow, who understands very little English and for that reason could get only a part of the funeral service and a part of the words spoken to her personally by the friends.