FUNERAL OF JOHN KEEGAN

Funeral services for John J. Keegan, who passed away Dec. 9, in Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane, were held at 10 o'clock this morning at St. Matthew's church. High mass was delivered by Father O'Farrell. Many beautiful flowers displayed the sympathy of the friends who attended the funeral.

The following friends of the deceased acted as pall bearers: Eric Nathe, Charles O'Boyd, Thomas Clark, J. P. Byrne.

Mr. Keegan was laid at rest near his father in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery by Sherman & Son.

OBITUARY

Mrs. John Kelso, mother of Mrs. Bessie Henley and sister of Mrs. C. M. Bienz of this city, passed away in Aberdeen, Idaho, June 18. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, June 21, in the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mrs. Kelso was born in Lexington, Richland County, Ohio, on November 19, 1861, and at the time of her death she was 63 years and seven months of age. She was the mother of seven children, six of whom are still living.

Mrs. Bienz attended the funeral at Aberdeen. Mrs. Kelso had visited here and had many friends in the city.

Mrs. Henley, formerly of this city, had been with her mother for some time prior to her death.

CREAT THRONG ATTENDS
FUNERAL OF GEO. KIRK

A great concourse of neighbors and friends gathered Tuesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church to pay respect to the memory of George Kirk, Jr. Every available space in the church was filled and fully as many more could not get in. Nearly 100 cars were in the procession to Conrad cemetery, where the body was laid to rest. This large attendance at the funeral and the many beautiful floral pieces gave testimony to the universal respect in which the deceased was held. Young and old loved him and he was a special favorite with the children. He was unselfish and kind, always ready to help others whenever possible. He will be greatly missed.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Garret Van Rinsum, Walter Manning, Ralph Rousselle, Ralph Tibbets, Alex. Mitton and Bert Schlegel.

The pastor spoke to the bereaved family and friends from the text, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength." Isaiah 40:31. He urged them in this hour of their complete prostration with grief to rest themselves in the Lord that they might have strength given them to bear the sorrow and to resume the duties of life again. The quartet, composed of the Misses Walchli and Lockhart and Messrs. Dunsire and John, sang "The Lord My Shepherd Is," "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," accompanied by Miss Marian Lake.
