The funeral of the beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Plummer last Wednesday afternoon was attended by a large number of friends and she was laid to rest in the Conrad Memorial cemetery in the family plot. Little Geraldine was such a healthy child that her brief sickness and death was a shock to all. A loving, happy, little spirit, with a smile for all. Her going leaves a void hard to fill. Deep sympathy for the bereaved ones in this time of sorrow is offered by the large circle of neighbors and friends.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL SERVICES

The funeral services of Geraldine Plummer, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Plummer, who passed away at the Plummer home near Creston on Monday of this week, were held at the Presbyterian church on Wednesday at 1:30, Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating. The services were most impressive and the church was filled to overflowing with the sorrowing friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Plummer. Rev. G. M. Fisher gave the prayer and the sermon and scripture readings were given by Dr. Bates. The music was most appropriate and a trio consisting of Miss Walchli, Miss Chester and Mr. Dunstre sang, "My Jesus, as Thou Wilt" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Mrs. G. M. Fisher played the accompaniments for the songs. The bearers were George Buck, Lloyd Buck, Harry Jessup and Morrison Hawser.

The casket and the chancel were filled with beautiful flowers. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. JAMES PRICE

Funeral services for Mrs. James Price were held yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating. A quartet, composed of the Misses Chester and Walchli and Messrs. John and Huck, sang "Nearer, Still Nearer", "That Will be Glory for Me", and "Asleep in Jesus", with Mrs. T. W. Elliot at the piano. The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. F. Bell, J. V. Miller, Sam McLaughlin, J. H. Foy, C. D. O'Neill and T. W. Elliot.

The expressions of sympathy in flowers were many and very beautiful. Words of comfort and help were spoken by the pastor from the Twenty-third Psalm, especially the fourth verse which reads: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me."

Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Bessie Tucker was born at Brighton, Ill., November 16, 1879. During her early life she was a regular attendant of church and Sunday school, and a member of the Presbyterian church.

In 1896 she was united in marriage to James Price. Of this union four sons and four daughters were born.

The family moved to Kallispell in 1910 and have lived at Foys' lake since.

Mrs. Price leaves to mourn her death her husband, eight children, Mrs. A. A. Coverdell, Elizabeth, Bessie, Jack, Ralph and Gurdon Price all of Kallispell; Mrs. Wilbur Allen and James T. Price of Bend, Oregon; two grandchildren, Doris and Donald Allen; also her mother, one sister, and four brothers of Brighton, Illinois.

One of the brothers, Joseph Tucker, from Illinois and the son and daughter from Bend, Oregon, were in Kallispell for the funeral.

Mrs. Price was a devoted wife and mother and a good neighbor. Her life was an example of true Christian unselfishness and service.
