MRS. MARY SIEVERS IS LAID AT REST

---

At the Free Methodist church yesterday morning at 10 o'clock funeral services were conducted for Mrs. Mary Sievers, pioneer of Kalispell. Rev. Aiken preached the funeral sermon and a group of four men and three women sang several of the church hymns. An abundance of flowers covered the casket. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggener and Campbell.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES FOR RICHARD G. STRICKLAND

---

Funeral services for R. G. Strickland were held yesterday at the family residence on Woodland avenue. The Christian Science service was chosen, and was conducted by Mrs. A. H. Burns of Somers. Mrs. J. A. Gudgell sang three beautiful solos: "Lead Kindly Light"; "Just Leave It With Him"; and "Abide With Me".

Many beautiful flowers gave token of the sympathy and esteem of friends and neighbors.

The pall-bearers were T. H. MacDonald, E. B. Bratt, Joseph Bjorneby, Sidney Logan, N. A. Herrick and Conrad Myers, interment being made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.
