

DANIEL D. WARD DIES

Daniel D. Ward passed away at his home on the reservation near Camas, December 3. The remains were brought to Kalispell on Friday and the funeral service was held at Waggener and Campbell's chapel Saturday, 1:00 p. m. Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating. Miss Lois Lockhart sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and the minister spoke of God's help and protecting care. The body was laid to rest in the Demersville cemetery.

The deceased was 74 years of age, having been born in Indiana in 1851. He is survived by a son and a daughter living in Missouri; one sister, Mrs. Melvina Lane of Colorado Springs, Colorado; two brothers, Hiram Ward of Kalispell and David Ward of Lineville, Iowa; and other relatives in this city and county. His departure came as a release from suffering, he having been in poor health for about forty years.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ward was laid to rest yesterday afternoon in Conrad cemetery. The pallbearers were Harold Moore, Perry Zoback, J. W. Leverick, Gus Dukleth, Otto Wendt and J. C. Anderson. The funeral was held at Waggener & Campbell's chapel. Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating. The Misses Chester and DuBois sang "Beautiful Isle", "Nearer, Still Nearer" and "Rock of Ages", Mrs. G. M. Fisher at the piano. The chapel was crowded with friends and neighbors of the family and many expressed their sympathy in beautiful floral gifts. The pastor spoke helpfully of the "Going Home" of this aged Christian woman.

Obituary

Mrs. Ward, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Miles, was a native of Amsterdam, New York, having been born there September 26, 1836. When she was still quite young the family moved to Illinois. Her marriage to Nelson Ward took place at Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, September 3, 1858. They were spared to each other for many happy years, Mr.

Ward preceding his wife to the heavenly home about five years ago at Brainerd, Minnesota. Since that time, Mrs. Ward has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Dochow, just east of this city. The deceased is survived by three of her five children, Mrs. J. H. Hull, Creston, Montana; Mrs. J. E. Watkins, Tacoma, and Mrs. Albert Dochow, Kalispell; also by five grandchildren and many friends and other relatives. She was a member of the Christian church at the old home in the east, and a faithful Christian woman.

JOSEPHINE TINKEL WEBSTER

The news of the death of Mrs. R. E. Webster yesterday at Los Angeles came as a sudden and unexpected shock to her friends in Kalispell, not many of whom knew she was ill, and none that her illness was serious.

She came to Kalispell in 1895 from Denver with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Tinkel, and three years later was married to R. E. Webster. This was their home until about two years ago when they removed to Los Angeles, where they have spent the winters for the past twenty years.

As a young woman and through the years of her residence here, Mrs. Webster was a part of all movements that were helping to meet the needs of Kalispell in the earlier and formative days. Of her means and ability she gave, in the library work, as a member of the Music and Century clubs, in the Liberty Loan and Red Cross work, and in social affairs, all the time making lasting friendships. Since going to Los Angeles she has been associated with the Woman's Athletic club and the Vacation Home department of the Ebel club, and there drawing to her those with whom she came in contact.

Though away from Kalispell much of the time in recent years, Mrs. Webster's friends have always thought of her as one of the home people and have looked forward to her return each summer. To her long-time and close associates her passing is the keen sorrow of a dear friend gone. Mr. Webster has the sympathy of his business associates and his many other friends in Kalispell.

Funeral service and burial will be in Los Angeles.

GEORGE WESTOVER DEAD

Leslie L. Foy today received word of the death of his uncle, George Westover, who passed away at the home of his daughter in Oregon, after suffering for four years with cancer, during which time he underwent three operations without securing relief.

Mr. Westover was an old-timer in the Flathead, coming here with his family by wagon train from South Dakota in 1894. He lived here until 10 years ago when he moved to Camas, where he did freighting from Plains for the Camas business houses. Four years ago he moved to Oregon for the sole purpose of improving his health.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ethel Garrison of Scappoose, Oregon; Mrs. Jessie March of Seaside, Oregon, and one son, Walter Westover of Spokane. He also leaves two brothers and a sister, Mrs. Fred Scott of Camas.

Burial will be made in Scappoose, Oregon, and will be in charge of the Modern Woodmen, of which order he was a member.

MRS. EDNA WHITE IS LAID AT REST HERE

Funeral services for Mrs. Edna Alice White were held Friday morning at 10:30, in the Waggener and Campbell chapel, the Rev. Joseph Chester of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating. Interment was made in the Demersvill cemetery.

Mrs. White was born in Buffalo, New York, in 1892, and lived there until her marriage to George White, with whom she later moved to Roy, Washington about a year ago. About the middle of September Mr. and Mrs. White came to Radnor, Montana, where Mrs. White was taken suddenly ill, passing away a few hours after reaching Kalispell, where she was brought for medical treatment. Besides her husband, she leaves her husband and four small children.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WITTLAKE.

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret E. Wittlake were held yesterday at 2:00 p. m. at Waggener & Campbell chapel, Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating. Mesdames Beamian and Roe, and Mr. Blachly, accompanied by Thomas Sanford, sang, "Beautiful Isle" and "Sweet Bye and Bye." These hymns were the special request of the family. Rev. Bates spoke of God's protection and help in such an hour.

The pall bearers were Nelson Branch, James Jerrow, Fauntleroy Linstead, John Guzman, Andrew Burlingham and Gordon Shepherd, interment being made in Woodlawn cemetery, Columbia Falls.

Mrs. Wittlake passed away at Plains, Montana, Dec. 21st at the age of 50 years, ten months and ten days, having been born in Germany February 11, 1875. She came to America at the age of 18 years and was united in marriage to Mr. Wittlake in Oklahoma in 1897. The husband died seventeen years ago.

Deceased leaves eight grandchildren and the following sons and daughter to mourn her loss: Henry, of Perma; Fred, of Culbertson; Mrs. Emma Duncan, of Kila, and Edward of Kila.
