
MRS. ANNA M. FINGADO

(Pomona, California Bulletin)

Mrs. Anna M. Fingado, 90 years of age and a widow of a veteran of the civil war, died Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. I. O'Neil of 753 N. Park avenue. She had been ill for three months.

Mrs. Fingado was a native of Czechoslovakia, coming to the United States 54 years ago. She has made her home with Mrs. O'Neil for about four months.

She is survived by two sons, Joseph of Rollins, Montana, and Henry, of Siebert, Colorado, and four daughters, Mrs. Thomas Killian of Hollywood, Mrs. Anna Killian of Porterville, Mrs. C. I. O'Neil of Pomona, and Mrs. J. R. Welch of Dansville, New York.

She also had 36 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren, the youngest, a month old, being born in Shanghai, China.

She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Jas. Papez of Albion, Nebraska, and one brother, Frank Vodicka of Omaha, Neb. She has been a devout Christian all her life.

At her bedside, besides Mr. and Mrs. O'Neil, were her granddaughter, Mrs. James C. Haines and Mr. O'Neil's mother, Mrs. Belle L. Smith.

Funeral services, in charge of Todd & Reeves, will be held at the chapel this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. W. C. Geyer of the First Methodist church, will officiate. Burial will be in Pomona cemetery.

Mrs. Fingado was a resident of the Flathead for a quarter of a century, and will be remembered by many people here.

OBITUARY

GEORGE A GRAHAM

George Andrew Graham, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Graham of Kallspell, who died at the Summit hospital, Oconomowoc, Wis., October, 25, was born at the country home of his parents in Flathead county.

As a boy he attended the Pine Grove school and after completing his grade work entered the Flathead County High school where he graduated in 1921 with high honors. The year following he entered the University of Chicago where he studied as an Arts student for four years. Upon his return in September of this year he registered as a student in the Law School. Many personal letters from his instructors bear testimony to his excellent scholarship and the high esteem with which he was held by all.

The sudden illness with which he was overtaken came as a surprise and shock even to those nearest to him. His illness was of short duration and his death was not anticipated even by his physician.

The deceased was a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha, a social fraternity. In the "Cap and Gown" of 1926, (the annual of the University of Chicago,) the following reference is made to his athletic career as captain of the wrestling team: "In the five dual meets Chicago was winner only once—Captain Graham took care of the 135 pound class with wins in every dual meet."

As a champion in wrestling he was awarded first prize in the 127-pound class in 1923. He secured third place in the 135-pound class in 1924. In the same year he was made a member of the Greek Olympic Athletic Club because of his outstanding service in the field of athletics. In 1925 he won third place in the Western Intercollegiate wrestling and fencing association and in his last year he won third place in the Annual Wrestling meet.

He was also made a life member of The Order of The "C" Men's Club. A club composed of athletes who had rendered outstanding service to the University of Chicago.

A very beautiful and impressive service was held by the Fraternity of which he was a member before the body was brought home. The music of that service was made the more impressive because it was presented by a blind boy who presided at the piano and who was a very intimate friend of the deceased.

The deceased was actively interested in the church of his choice during his student days and had given indications of a desire to study for the ministry.

The last sacred rites of burial were administered by the pastor of the Epworth Episcopal church of this city and interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery on Sunday, October 31.

He leaves to mourn his loss his mother, father and brother William; a sister, Mrs. C. E. Wood, Tacoma, Washington; a step-sister, Mrs. G. W. Hughes, Seattle, Washington and a step-brother, Thomas Manuel, Havre, Montana.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to our many friends for their many acts of kindness messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received during our recent bereavement, upon the death of our beloved son and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Graham
William M. Graham

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel and family

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hughes and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wood and family.

FUNERAL SERVICES YESTERDAY FOR MRS. HOWARD H. HART

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Howard H. Hart at the Waggener and Campbell chapel.

Rev. B. Scott Bates conducted the services using the 23rd Psalm and other passages of the scripture as the basis of his remarks.

Mrs. F. S. Monroe and Miss Wilda O'Neil sang "Nearer my God to Thee," "Savior, Like a Shepherd, Lead Us" and "My Shepherd is the Lord." Miss Myrtle Lake was the accompanist.

James Duffy, C. E. Lancaster, Roy Schaller, Tom Stevens, Ed Veal and Lee Veal were the pall bearers.

Obituary

Margaret E. Dickinson was born at Greenleaf, Wisconsin, June 26, 1879 and was past 47 years of age at the time of her death on December 22.

Her marriage to Howard H. Hart occurred at Amery Wisconsin, September 25, 1900.

They lived in Amery for about 13 years and then moved to Paris, Montana, where they lived for about the same length of time. They had been in Kalispell less than a month when Mrs. Hart died.

Besides her husband she is survived by six brothers: John F. Dickinson of Minneapolis; George, E. Green Bay, Wisconsin; Henry, of Bellingham, Washington; Sylvester, of Monticello, Minnesota; Walter T. of La Junta, California; and James A. of Kalispell.

FUNERAL RITES SUNDAY FOR MRS. HOADLEY

Funeral services for Mrs. Corrilla S. Hoadley were held Sunday at 2 p. m. in the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Schooley of the Free Methodist church, with which she was affiliated, assisting Rev. Joseph Chester. The body was laid at rest in Conrad Memorial cemetery beside that of Mr. Hoadley, who died in January, 1917.

Mrs. Corrilla S. White was born September 24, 1840, at Montpelier, Vermont and was united in marriage to Lester Hoadley, May 14, 1855 at the same place. A week later they started west arriving at Duran, Wisconsin where they spent 10 years.

In 1865, immediately at the close of the Civil War, they moved by ox team to central Minnesota in company with two of Mrs. White's sisters and their families. They arrived at an old Indian trading Post called Liberty Pole which afterwards became the county seat of Long Prairie. Near this place they took a homestead where they lived 37 years. During this time their two surviving children were born.

In 1902 they moved to Orangeville, California, where they lived one year. From there they went to Bellingham, Washington to spend the winter and in the spring of 1904 they arrived in Kalispell and purchased a home in Helena Flats, making their home here for 17 years. Since that Mrs. Hoadley has resided in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Baertsch.

Those left to mourn her loss are a daughter, Mrs. Minnie Baertsch, one son, F. L. Hoadley of Sandpoint, Idaho, 8 grand children and 11 great-grand children, besides a host of friends and neighbors.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SARAH HYDE

The funeral of Mrs. G. W. Hyde was held at the Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. The service was a very impressive one. Masses of beautiful flowers bore silent testimony of the esteem in which she was held in Flathead valley. The quartette sang very beautifully three of her favorite selections "Rock of Ages," "Asleep in Jesus" and "Abide With Me." The words of Rev. Joseph Chester were filled with comfort for the bereaved family and sympathizing friends, who had assembled to pay a last tribute to one whose Christian integrity will ever be remembered by all who knew her. "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" which Rev. Chester sang at the close of the service was a much loved song of the deceased and one which Mr. Chester had sung for her several times at the house during the past two years. The body was tenderly laid to rest in beautiful Conrad Memorial cemetery. H. B. Frazee, C. F. Light-hall, T. H. Bogart, Robert Schorn, E. F. Dickinson and B. A. McAllister were pall bearers.

Sarah E. Trainor was born Dec. 30, 1857 in Baltimore county Maryland. Her education was received in Baltimore's city schools in which system she later taught for fifteen years.

March 28, 1893, she was united in marriage to George W. Hyde of Clinton, Illinois. To this union were born two daughters, Mrs. Nellie B. Motichka of Idaho and Marguerite R. Hyde of Kalispell.

The first ten years of Mrs. Hyde's married life were spent in South Dakota. In 1903, the family came to Flathead valley living twenty years on the ranch two miles north of Kalispell and the past three years in the city.

Early in life Mrs. Hyde united with the Methodist Episcopal church. Before her marriage, she was an active worker in the infant department of the Methodist Sunday school of Baltimore. At that time, she led the singing for several hundred children. Upon two different occasions, she had the privilege of singing for President Grant. During middle and later life sickness impaired the sweet voice of her youth.

In spite of illness and physical suffering, extending over a period of many years, Mrs. Hyde was patient and cheerful. Her thought was ever of those in the home and of others. Strong conscience was her guide. A devoted wife and mother and a sincere and true friend she always was.

June 19, Mrs. Hyde suffered a paralytic stroke. For ten weeks, she lay speechless and almost helpless. However, her mind was clear enough for her to know her family, the family activities, her friends, and all they said to her until she fell into a deep sleep two days before the end came August 28, 1926. During these weeks her beautiful smiles were the words of love and comfort to the sorrow-stricken family and friends. They seemed to say that in spite of all that human hands and skill could do, she would not remain, for her Savior had called her to the Mansion of Rest.

4 Sep 1926 pg 8

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the friends who were so kind to our wife and mother and to us during her illness and for the sympathy shown during our bereavement.

G. W. Hyde

Mrs. Nellie B. Motichka
Marguerite R. Hyde