Chinese Civilization

When the people in Europe were going about dressed in skins, and using pieces of stone tied to sticks for tools and weapons, the Chinese were a civilized and highly cultured nation with a literature already well defined.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their many deeds of kindness during the illness and death of our dear mother.

Cleve Johnson,

Hanna Johnson,

Effie Johnson,

J. C. Donohew and family.

Mrs. Kate Knerr whose funeral was held in Kalispell, Tuesday, spent the last several years in Whitefish, where she kept house for two sons, Peter Lilly, cashier in the First National bank, and William Lilly, employed by the Great Northern. Three other sons, John of Chicago, Robert and Charles of Butte, two daughters, five grandchildren and one great grandchild and her husband survive her. An interesting fact in the life of Mrs. Knerr is that although she was born in Germany, her five sons served America in the World War, two in the navy and three in the army, and all are said to be members of the American Legion.

FUNERAL OF MRS. KRANTZ

Funeral services for Mrs. Emil Krantz were held yesterday at 2:00 p. m. in the Presbyterian church. Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating. A quartet composed of the Misses Lockhart and Walchli and Messrs. Dunshire and Bruce, accompanied by Miss DuBois, sang, "Sun of My Soul," "Nearer, Still Nearer" and "Asleep in Jesus." The pastor spoke from Christ's words, "I am the resurrection and the life," emphasizing their present help, and the hope of the future which they bring.

The large attendance of neighbors and friends, the many beautiful floral pieces, and the long procession of cars to the cemetery bespoke the high esteem in which the deceased was held and the widely extended sympathy for the husband and little children in their bereavement.

Messrs. Fred Bauer, Wallace Triplett, Henry Boske, Ed. Conrad, Lars Johnson and Axel Danielson were the neighbors who bore the body to its last resting place in Conrad Cemetery.

Mayme Pearson Krantz was born at Kalispell Aug. 1, 1894, thus being in her 32nd year at the time of her death, May 3rd. Having lived all her life in the Flathead Valley, Mrs. Krantz leaves a host of friends and neighbors to mourn her loss, besides her immediate family. Those nearest to her are her husband, Emil Krantz; their three small children, Marie, Merle and Albin, the last named being less than two months old; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Pearson; one sister, Mrs. Edward Felsman; and an uncle.
