

ALFRED JOHNSON
FUNERAL SERVICES

The funeral services for Alfred Johnson, who died in Kalispell March 2, were held Tuesday afternoon with services at Sherman & Son chapel at 2 o'clock.

Elder C. C. Cantwell officiated and chose as his text 1 Cor. 15:24-27. The singing was furnished by the Lady Owls. Mrs. Tiffany and Miss LaRue singing "The song of my Soul," and "Shall we Gather at The River." Miss LaRue sang a solo "There is no Night There." The accompanist was Mrs. Chas. Hooper.

The pall bearers were members of the Owls and were Ole Tovrude, Frank Burbank, Lou Summers, J. P. Bruckhauser, Eugene McCarthy and Richard Riedel. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

The chapel was filled to overflowing with friends and members of the Order of Owls.

Obituary

Alfred Johnson was born on September 22, 1880, in Sweden. He came to America to make his home in 1901. In 1902 he moved to Flathead valley where he met Miss Birdie Snyder to whom he was married in July 1911. He passed away on the evening of March 2, 1927, at the age of 47 years.

He leaves to mourn his loss his widow; one daughter, Mrs. Georgia Layton; one son, Noel, aged 7 year; one grand-daughter, Virginia Layton; two sisters in Sweden and his wife's relatives, all were present at the funeral.

Mr. Johnson was a man who loved his home and his family and his kindly disposition drew to him many friends and associates and he was well liked by who knew him.

FUNERAL OF MRS. EMMA JUDSON HELD YESTERDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma M. Judson were conducted at two o'clock yesterday in the Baptist church, in the presence of a company of friends. Rev. E. Clutterbuck preached the funeral sermon.

Two hymns were sung by the Baptist quartet, composed of Miss Martha Bradley, Miss Velma LaRue, R. L. Snider and S. E. Salter, and Miss Margaret MacDonald sang a solo also. A lovely tribute of flowers surrounded the casket.

Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery, the bearers being John Bowman, S. J. Purnell, B. B. Gilliland, Clifford Walters, Joe Baker and C. E. Trokel.

Emma M. Judson was the daughter of a Baptist minister, and became both the wife and mother of a minister in the same church. Her son, the late Rev. Truman H. Judson, died here in 1924 while pastor of the local Baptist church. Her husband was related to the Rev. Adoniram Judson, first missionary from America to India.

Mrs. Judson was born in Homer, Ohio, December 19, 1840. Her father, Rev. D. B. Mead of New York state, organized churches in Ohio, Michigan and later in Iowa. December 19, 1858 she married Rev. Truman H. Judson, who was a missionary pastor first in the south, and afterwards served as the first in that work in northwestern Iowa, organizing many of the Baptist churches in that state. He was also a pioneer missionary in South Dakota, and was pastor of the Baptist church at Vermillion for two years. He died March 17, 1884 in Hurley, South Dakota.

Of their seven children, only one daughter, Mrs. J. L. Stewart of Lead, South Dakota, survives. Ten grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren, and a brother, William Mead of Iowa also survive.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means of expressing thank to our friends for the many acts of kindness shown us during the recent illness and death of our dear husband and father; for the courtesy shown us by the Order of Owls; for the music and beautiful floral offerings; also the words of comfort spoken by Elder Cantwell.

Mrs. Alfred Johnson and Noel
Mrs. Georgia Layton
And Other Relatives