

PARKER FUNERAL SERVICES HELD HERE YESTERDAY

Funeral services for Henry S. Parker were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Presbyterian church by Rev. George M. Fisher, assisted by Rev. B. Scott Bates and burial took place in Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggener and Campbell. The local I. O. O. F. conducted services at the grave and pallbearers were: Frank Modisett, Mike Glockle, N. J. Pierce, L. M. Penrod, Dean Hyde, S. J. Purnell.

Obituary

Henry S. Parker was born in Clinton county, Ohio, June 19, 1846. He was married in Central Square, N. Y., October 21, 1890 to Sarah F. Claxton. They made their home in Peterson Iowa where Mr. Parker was cashier of the Peterson bank. To them, in Peterson, were born five children, Neil C. Henry S. Jr., Vera J. Frances V., and Ida L. all of whom are living except Frances.

Besides his wife and four children he is survived by a brother in Fort Dodge, Iowa and a sister in Jacksonville, Texas.

After retiring from business in 1902 he moved with his family to Spencer, Iowa, and then came west and bought the farm seven miles south of Creston, but he and the family did not move here to live until 1910. After an illness of about three months, he departed this life Saturday noon, January 22, 1927, at his ranch home.

Mr. Parker was a Civil War veteran and member of the Odd Fellows lodge of Spencer. He was an active worker in the Congregational church while in Peterson and was also a member of that church in Spencer.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their helpfulness and sympathy in our recent bereavement.

SAMUEL J. PERRY

Funeral services for Samuel J. Perry were held at the Methodist church Monday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. Joseph Chester officiating. The local I. O. O. F. lodge accompanied the funeral procession, marching in a body from Waggener & Campbell's chapel to the church.

The chancel was banked with lovely flowers and the church was filled with friends of the deceased. The music was given by Mrs. W. E. Beaman, Mrs. J. Roe, Mr. Blackley and Rev. Chester, with Thomas Sanford accompanying.

The story of the Good Samaritan was the theme for the funeral address and Mr. Chester spoke highly of the quiet and unassuming character of the departed. The services at the Conrad Memorial cemetery were conducted by the I. O. O. F. lodge, Fred Sempf, noble grand acting as chaplain. Rev. B. Scott Bates concluded the impressive ceremonies.

The pall bearers were Frank Modesitt, Nels Peterson, James Lake, J. E. Rockwood, Mike Clockley and S. J. Purnell.

S. J. Perry was born in Cornwall, England, January 8, 1868. He came to the United States in 1887 and settled at Butte, Montana. On June 12, 1890 he was married to Miss Anie Truscott and three children were born to this union.

Seventeen years ago the family moved to Kalispell to make their home, where the deceased was employed by the Kalispell Mercantile company until the time of his death.

He leaves to mourn his loss his widow, a son Earle B. Perry of Seattle, Washington; another son, Thomas S. Perry and a daughter, Pearl Perry of this city, two brothers, W. H. Perry of Butte and Joseph Perry of Hale, England, together with four grandchildren.
