

MRS. SALES FUNERAL TO BE HELD FRIDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Eleanor Sales, whose death occurred yesterday at the home of her son, Gordon Sales of Thompson River, will be held at the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon at 2:30.

"Grandma" Sales, as she was familiarly known to all her friends, came into the Thompson river country on horseback with her husband nearly 40 years ago when he settled on the Sales ranch, now owned by her son, Gordon Sales. This was in the days before there were wagon roads in the country, and they made their way overland up the Thompson river from Plains. She has always been remarkably active, possessed a keen mind, and retained all her faculties to the last, although she was 92 years of age at the time of her death. She was a friend of all she came in contact with, and her death will be regretted by many in this section. She is survived by her sons, Gordon, Albert and Henry Sales of Thompson River, four daughters, Mrs. B. E. Sickler of this city, Mrs. Mary Hellinger of Bozeman, Mrs. B. C. Fairchild of Idaho City, Idaho, and Mrs. Alice Chandiliss of San Francisco, and a brother, William Shanks of Columbus, Montana.

FRIENDS PAY TRIBUTE TO MRS. ELEANOR SALES

Funeral services for Mrs. Eleanor Sales were held Friday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. The auditorium was filled with the many friends who gathered to pay a last tribute, and the flowers were especially beautiful, extending across the entire front of the church.

Rev. George M. Fisher, assisted by Rev. B. Scott Bates, brought comforting messages to the family and friends, both paying high tribute to Mrs. Sales, a pioneer of the Flathead who lived a long and active life. Hymns were sung by Misses Emma Chester and Caroline Watchli, and Messrs. W. F. Reuggesser and Andrew Dunsire, Mrs. Fisher accompanying.

The pall bearers were Lew Switzer, F. G. Doll, A. B. Cutler, John Preer, Neis Ford and J. P. Bruckhauser. Interment was made in the family lot in Conrad Memorial cemetery, under the direction of Waggener and Campbell.

Obituary

Eleanor Shanks was born March 15, 1835, at Port Almo, Ontario, Canada, where in 1854, she was married to Zachariah Sales. Later the young people moved to Iowa, and on April 2, 1865 they started the westward trip across the plains that brought them to Montana. They settled first in Bozeman, August 21, 1865, shortly afterwards moving to the west Gallatin Valley, where the town of Salesville was named for Mr. Sales.

In the fall of 1884, Mr. and Mrs. Sales located in Thompson Falls, and five years afterward they moved to the Thompson River country where Mr. Sales died in August, 1897. Mrs. Sales lived to be 92 years of age, passing away October 11.

She was the mother of nine children of whom three sons and four daughters survive. They are Henry, Gordon, and Albert, all of Thompson River; Mrs. Mary E. Hellinger of Bozeman; Mrs. B. E. Sickler of Kalispell; Mrs. Florence Fairchild of Idaho City, Idaho; and Mrs. Alice Chambers of San Francisco. She is also survived by a brother, William Shanks of Columbus, Montana, nine grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

SERVICES HELD FOR CHARLES SEEK, FLATHEAD PIONEER

The funeral of Charles Seek, 84-year-old pioneer of Flathead valley, was held yesterday afternoon at Fairview chapel. The church was full of neighbors and friends and the floral tributes were especially beautiful.

A trio of neighbors sang three comforting hymns, and Rev. N. Scott Bates spoke on "Neighborliness," using the parable of "The Good Samaritan" as the basis of his remarks.

Old-time neighbors bore the casket to the family lot in the cemetery beside the chapel. They were Milton Small, Nathan Scott, George Stowell, John Zadra, William Moring and Pete Conway.

Mr. Seek was born at Lesla, Michigan, January 20, 1843, being well along in his 85th year at the time of his death September 24. He came to Montana 41 years ago and had spent most of the time since then in this valley. He was in Washington state a year or two.

Since his wife's death a few years ago, Mr. Seek had lived in Kalispell.

He leaves a daughter, Mrs. A. C. Wagner of Creston, and two sons, James of Lake Blaine and Frank of Belton. There are also six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

HOLD FUNERAL RITES FOR GEORGE F. SEEK

Funeral services for George F. Seek were held at Fairview chapel Wednesday afternoon, Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Ischlang, "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me," "Face to Face" and "Sometime We'll Understand," with Mrs. Blackmer at the organ. The chapel was filled with neighbors and friends who brought beautiful floral gifts in token of their esteem for the departed and their sympathy for the bereaved family and relatives.

William Moring, Arthur Small, William Stewart, Roy Wites, Herbert Jessup, and L. P. Blackmer bore the body to the family lot in the cemetery beside the chapel.

Mr. Seek was born in Minnesota December 8, 1871. He came to Montana when 14 years of age and had lived here ever since, nearly 42 years. Recently his residence had been near Belton.

On January 3, 1899, he was united in marriage to Grace Hewitt. His widow survives him, together with a son, Ralph, of Great Falls, a sister, Mrs. A. C. Warner, and a brother, James Seek.

Mr. Seek died as the result of injuries sustained when struck by a run-away empty car, and his death came as a great shock to the entire community.

SERVICES FOR MRS. REBECCA SHAW HELD AT FAIRVIEW

Funeral services for Mrs. Rebecca Shaw were held Saturday at 2 p. m., in Fairview chapel; Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating. Miss Emma Chester and Miss Caroline Walchli sang "Asleep in Jesus," "There's a Land that is Fairer than Day" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Bates accompanying. These hymns were among those best loved by Mrs. Shaw, and Rev. Bates based his remarks at the funeral upon a favorite scripture passage, the 23rd psalm.

Interment was made in the family lot at Fairview cemetery under the direction of Waggner and Campbell.

The pall-bearers were M. T. Small, John Zadra, William Moring, Reubin Johnston, James K. Lang and Joseph Nunn.

Mrs. Rebecca Grace Naylor was born October 1, 1844 in Eugene, Indiana and came to Montana with her family in June, 1879, traveling up the Missouri river to Fort Benton in the steamer "Josephine." After living for a time in the vicinity of Fort Benton in the Judith river country, she removed to the Flathead, in June 1884, residing here until 1896. She moved to Priest River, Idaho later, making that her home until four years ago when she took up her residence in Spokane, where she passed away July 11 at the Deaconess hospital.

Mrs. Shaw was an ardent Bible student and Christian worker, and as an early pioneer she did much to promote the religious life of this community. She was one of those who helped the Rev. Mr. Eastland to plan the Fairview chapel and raise the necessary funds.

Mrs. Shaw is survived by her husband, James W. Shaw of Spokane; one daughter, Mrs. Harry E. Wright of Missoula who was with her at the time she passed away and who attended the funeral services here; four grand children and two great-grandchildren.

SAMUEL DICKEY SHAW FUNERAL YESTERDAY

Funeral services for Samuel Dickey Shaw were held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Methodist Episcopal church by Rev. Edward C. Bartlett. A mixed quartet, composed of Mrs. W. E. Beaman, Mr. Greta Roe, A. G. Blachley, and W. E. Wells, sang two comforting hymns. The church was well filled with friends and many beautiful flowers were banked about the casket.

Those acting as pall bearers were Nels Ford, J. Blöse, Dean Hyde, Allen Calbick, T. E. Jones, and J. C. Warrington.

Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggner & Campbell.

Samuel Dickey Shaw was born near Halifax, Nova Scotia, November 8, 1842, moving to Minnesota in 1869 and to Montana in 1907. He settled in Smith valley, where he lived until a little over two years ago, when he came to Kalispell.

Mr. Shaw was married to Miss Marietta Parker at Parker's Lake, Minnesota in 1879. Five daughters and a son were born to them, all but one daughter surviving.

Mr. Shaw leaves his widow; his son, A. J. Shaw, of Kalispell; his daughters, Mrs. C. E. Berry and Mrs. E. S. Rankin of Kalispell, Mrs. Noah Ramey of Forest Grove, Oregon, and Mrs. Iva Attwater of Oakland, California; and a sister, Mrs. Jane Taylor of Vancouver, B. C. Nine grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Shaw was a member of the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE FOR THE FUNERAL OF E. A. SHEW YESTERDAY

The Masonic temple was taxed to capacity when throngs gathered yesterday afternoon at two o'clock for the funeral of E. A. Shew. The Masonic lodge conducted the services, with Rev. C. A. Clifford, head of the Glacier Park district of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiating, as chaplain.

An unusually lovely tribute of flowers, including both hot house blooms and rich peonies from the gardens of friends, was banked across the front of the temple. Burt Carr, Don Shepard, Clarence Sargent, and Harold Brewer sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Abide With Me," accompanied by Mrs. Carr.

The bearers and the Knights Templar, the latter in uniform, marched to the top of Conrad hill, and at the grave in Conrad Memorial cemetery the Masonic order took charge, conducting its impressive burial service which Rev. Clifford closed with a brief prayer.

The bearers were C. B. March, John Sherman, T. C. Hand, Theo. Torbenson, W. B. MacDonald, and L. F. Doss of Great Falls.

Egbert A. Shew was born in Waukon, Iowa, June 28, 1876, a son of Jacob and Emma Welliver Shew. At the age of 19 he accepted a position with the Brainerd Lumber company at Brainerd, Minnesota, and had since been associated with the lumber industry.

After five years at Brainerd, Mr. Shew entered the employ of the Crookston Lumber company and lived at Bemidji, Minnesota, for three years. He then served a similar period as superintendent of the same company's mill at Crookston. At Frazee, Minnesota, he was superintendent for the same company during a period of 13 years.

Mr. Shew then moved to Enderby, B. C., to become industrial inspector for the Bank of Montreal in the province of British Columbia, and it was from that place he finally came to Kallispell, five years ago, as general manager for the State Lumber company.

At Brainerd on March 21, 1905.

Mr. Shew married Miss Della E. Paine, and to them were born two daughters, one of whom is still a student in the city schools, while the other has been attending Stout Institute, in Wisconsin.

Mr. Shew was an active member of a number of organizations. At Frazee, Minnesota, he became a member of the Blue lodge, A. F. & A. M., No. 241, and Detroit chapter No. 62 of the Royal Arch Masons. He was a member of Zurah temple of the Shrine at Minneapolis. At Brainerd he joined the Elks lodge No. 615, and had recently demitted to the Kallispell lodge No. 725.

Among the immediate relatives who remain to mourn his loss are his widow, Mrs. Della E. Shew; two daughters, Edith and Bessie; and his mother, Mrs. Emma Jebe, of Frazee, Minnesota.

Besides these are a host of friends, who realize that in the death of Mr. Shew a home has lost a good and devoted husband and the community one of its most substantial and respected citizens.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR PETER J. SMITH

Funeral services for Peter J. Smith were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Bethlehem Lutheran church, Rev. J. C. Hjelmervik officiating. Burial was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

The pall bearers were old friends of the deceased, namely J. C. Anderson, Fred Alton, J. H. Hull of Creston, James Boysen, James Jorgenson and George Stowell.

Peter J. Smith was born in Denmark, August 2, 1860. He came to Chicago in 1880 and there was united in marriage to Bertha Marie Jacobson, September 15, 1883. To them three children were born, only one, Mrs. Arthur Iliff, surviving him.

Mr. Smith with his family, came to Flathead valley in 1900 and made his home near Creston, engaging in farming. In 1917 the family took up a homestead in the upper Swan valley, Missoula county, where they remained. Mr. Smith came to KallsPELL a month ago for medical treatment, staying at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Iliff, until his death.

Besides the widow and daughter, he is survived by four grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Marn Holm of Spokane and Mrs. P. Jensen; and three brothers, J. C. Smith of South Haven, Michigan, James Smith of Chicago and Chris Smith of Spokane.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of thanking our friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father and also for the beautiful flowers, and music and Rev. Hjelmervik for his comforting sermon.

Mrs. P. J. Smith,
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Iliff
and Children.

MRS. ELLA STOUT DIES AT S. M. LOGAN HOME

Mrs. Ella Toole Stout passed away at 6:30 last evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sidney M. Logan, with whom she had lived the past two years. The funeral will probably be held Monday afternoon, though no definite arrangements have been made.

Mrs. Stout was born in Savannah, Missouri, January 21, 1847, a daughter of Judge Edwin Toole and Lucinda Porter Toole, the latter a daughter of Colonel Porter, who distinguished himself in Washington's army. Her parents moved from Kentucky to Missouri some years before the Civil war and Mrs. Stout's entire life was lived on the frontier.

With her brother, R. P. Stout, her daughter, Cleora, now Mrs. Logan of this city, and her son, X. K. Stout, she moved to Helena in 1880, and had lived there since that time until two years ago when she came to Kalispell.

Mrs. Stout is survived by her two children; a sister, Mrs. Jennie Atchison; and a brother, former Governor Joseph K. Toole, both of Helena; and a large family of grandchildren and great grandchildren, all of whom live in Kalispell and Spokane, with the exception of one grandson, who is at present making his home in New York.

Mrs. Stout was during her whole life a Bible student and of a deeply religious and generous nature. She was an accomplished musician and the author of a number of interesting magazine articles.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES FOR MRS. ELLA STOUT HELD AT LOGAN HOME

Mrs. Ella Stout, aged mother of Mrs. S. M. Logan, was laid to rest this morning in Courad Memorial cemetery. Rev. Father Francis O'Farrell of St. Mathew's church read the requiem mass at the church at 7 o'clock and at 10 o'clock he conducted the services at the Logan home, where the body was lying in state.

Before the fireplace in the drawing-room reposed the casket, completely banked with the most exquisite blossoms of the season. Masses of white and delicately tinted peonies, garlands of roses and other flowers formed a beautiful bower in the midst of which lay the peaceful form of Mrs. Stout. Candles gleamed at the head of the casket and the light cast a halo about her head. As the clock on the mantle chimed the hour of ten in the hushed and silent room. Mrs. A. J. Gudgel sang "In the Time of Roses," a lovely sacred song by Reichart. Father O'Farrell then read from scriptures the favorite text of the deceased. Mrs. Gudgel next sang "The Rosary" with words which the singer wrote and fitted to the score written by Nevin.

The short address and eulogy which was given by Father O'Farrell was inspirational, and in his well-chosen words he emphasized the happiness and help derived from faith and hope. He told of the pioneer days of Mrs. Stout at Helena when she came to that city from her southern home; her wide acquaintance with the illustrious persons of the west, and her fine friendship for the late Bishop John Patrick Carroll who received her into the Catholic church several years ago.

The requiem prayers of the services were read in Latin and were most impressive. The service was concluded with Mrs. Gudgel singing "No Night There." Mrs. O. W. Hunt accompanied Mrs. Gudgel.

A number of friends carried out the masses of floral pieces which were taken to the cemetery and placed upon the mound before the arrival of the funeral cortege. The bearers were E. M. Child, T. C. Hand, Frank Doll, W. F. Brennen, W. B. MacDonald and Charles Baldwin. The funeral was under the direction of Waggener and Campbell.

MRS. ELLEN SULLIVAN, PIONEER, PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Ellen B. Sullivan passed away Saturday afternoon at her home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Larson, at Rexford, aged 70 years. The body was brought to Kallispell Sunday morning for services and interment.

Mrs. Sullivan with her husband John C. Sullivan, were among the early pioneers to settle in the Flathead valley. Their ranch was located at Fairview. Mrs. Sullivan leased the ranch after her husband's death and went to Rexford to make her home with her daughter.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning in the St. Matthew's church. High mass will be sung, Rev. Father Francis O'Farrell officiating. Interment will be in Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Sherman and Son.

Mrs. Sullivan is survived by her three daughters, Mrs. Alex Donaldson of Eureka; Mrs. Fred Larson and Mrs. Fred Marx of Rexford.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for their kindness and sympathy shown us in our late bereavement in the loss of our dearly beloved mother, Mrs. Ellen Sullivan. Also for the many beautiful floral offerings.

Mrs. Alex Donaldson
Mrs. F. H. Marks
Mrs. F. A. Larson
