Soon after her arrival here she transferred her membership from the Rockwell City Baptist church to the First Baptist church of Kalispell. She had always been particularly active in the work of the Ladies' Aid society, and much of the success of the aid was due to her efforts. At the time of her death she was a member of the building committee which had charge of the remodeling of the church, which work has but recently been completed.

Mrs. Purnell was active in the work of several fraternal organizations. She was a member of the Rebekah lodge, Lady Militants, and the Past Noble Grands' circle, I. O. O. She was a charter member of Opedyke Corps, and its first president, serving as such for six years.
