C. F. Reed and Family,

L. S. Hancock and Family,

The Kruse Family.

JAMES N. REYNOLDS

The sad news was received in Bad Rock Wednesday, of the death of James N. Reynolds, an old and respected citizen of the community. Mr. Reynolds left here December 3, expecting to spend the winter with relatives in Kansas. He visited with his daughter, Mrs. Prayther, in Wichita until after Christmas, then went to the home of his brother, William, at Caney, Kansas, where he was taken ill and passed away on January 18.

Frank and Harry Reynolds left Wednesday evening for Kansas to attend the funeral of their father. He will be buried at Niopaze, Kansas, beside his wife, who died December 18, 1907.

James N. Reynolds was born February 1, 1850. He was married October 12, 1875 to Jane Ritchie. Nine children were born to them, three dying in infancy and six surviving, four daughters, Mrs. Rose Prayther, Wichita, Kansas; Mrs. Fanny Haines, Whitefish; Mrs. Alice Hall, Bad Rock; and Mrs. Nellie Phillips, Columbia Falls; two sons, Frank, Bad Rock; and Harry, Essex.

Mr. Reynolds lived in Montana since 1909, making his home with his son, Frank. He has operated a threshing machine for 18 years in this valley and was as active as usual this last summer in spite of advancing years. He has been a member of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges for many years. A host of friends mourn the passing of this good friend and neighbor and extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mrs. MINNIE RIEBE

Funeral services for Mrs. Minnie Riebe were conducted yesterday afternoon at Trinity Lutheran church of which the deceased had been a faithful member. The church was not large enough to hold all the friends who had come to pay their last tribute to her. The many beautiful floral offerings which were banked around the casket bore testimony of the love and esteem in which Mrs. Riebe was held. The pastor of the church, Rev. Albert Jordan, delivered the funeral oration and imparted comfort to the family and relatives in their bereavement. Mrs. Beaman presided at the organ and furnished special music.

The pall bearers were Herman Podratz, Christ Nomensen, Carl Kraft, Alfons Agather, William Lich and Martin Koenig. Interment was made in Pine Grove cemetery under the direction of Waggener and Campbell.

Mrs. Minnie Riebe was born September 28, 1875. Her youth was spent in Wisconsin. About 30 years ago she came to Montana with her parents who had a ranch northwest of Kalispell. On February 28, 1906 she was united in marriage to William Riebe. For a number of years she had been ill, and last fall she and her husband went to Berkeley, California, in the hope that her health would improve. The change of climate seemed to benefit her. However, on Monday, March 5, she suffered a severe attack from which she did not rally. Her death came very suddenly and unexpectedly. Her many friends will greatly miss her and have only fond remembrance of her.

Weberg, J. C. Alexander, and A. R. Zimmerman. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

William Harrison Reiter was born at Niles, Ohio, September 8, 1833, son of Minassa and Eliza (White) Reiter. His mother was of English, and his father was of German ancestry. He spent his boyhood at Niles, and his father's home was only two doors from the home of William McKinley. He and William McKinley were boyhood chums and attended the same school. Mr. Reiter finished his education in the Allegheny college at Meadville, Pennsylvania. In 1862 he accompanied an uncle to the far west and was soon engaged in mining at Florence, Idaho. During his residence in Florence, he was postmaster for six years. He was elected a member of the legislature in the eighth session, and while in the legislature, assisted in creating Idaho county. There he married Miss Julia Aurora Thore Ostlund, and to this union a son was born, who died in early infancy. In 1890 he moved to the Flathead valley and filed on a preemption. He proved up that original land located about one mile east of this city, near the Stillwater river, and built a fine home on it. Mr. Reiter was a veteran Indian fighter, having enlisted in Company H, First California Volunteers and fought in the Plute Indian war as a scout. Later in 1877, he participated in the Nez Perce Indian troubles, was wounded three times acted as orderly for General Howerd, and as a scout performed many dangerous duties. Politically Mr. Reiter was one of the original republicans and cast his first vote in 1865, for the first standard bearer of the republican party, and had never missed an election voting the straight republican ticket. He was a Christian of high standard and favored the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Reiter had a great variety of western experiences both as a business man and a rancher, and always kept in close touch with the world affairs. He owned a good library, and had been a constant reader, a student, and debater, and was always positive in his convictions and fearless in expressing his views. He led a very active life until his recent illness. He passed away March 13, 1928, at the age of 94 years, 6 months, and 9 days. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Julia Reiter; a sister, Mrs. John Scholl of Maquoketa, Iowa; a nephew Mr. Nerle M. Reiter of this city.
