

JAMES F. BOSTON IS LAID TO REST

Funeral services for James F. Boston were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Sherman & Son chapel, Rev. W. H. Sandy of Central Christian church officiating. During the services Clyde and Durt Carr sang "The Nearer the Sweet-er" and "Sometime," and at the conclusion the latter sang "No Night There." Mrs. Carr was the accompanist. A profusion of beautiful flowers from friends here and in Washington were witnesses of the esteem in which Mr. Boston was held by those who knew him.

The pall bearers were O. F. Vose, J. C. Boyd, Oscar Smith, L. D. Rogulien, Edward Campbell and J. R. Sausser. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Mr. Boston was born near Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, June 15, 1864. He left his native state when but 17 years of age, coming west to Nebraska, which was then a frontier. In 1890 he came to Montana and engaged in freighting from Ravalli to Polson, before there was a railroad in this part of the state. Later he farmed in the valley for four or five years and again engaged in freighting, this time from Kalispell to Fort Steele, over a period of two years.

Like many frontiersmen, as soon as the country began to be settled, Mr. Boston pushed on. His next move was to Franklin county, Washington, where he took up a homestead. That was 27 years ago, and up until recently when he came to visit his sister, Mrs. James K. Lang, here, he had made that place his home. He died at the Lang home February 27.

Mr. Boston was unmarried. Besides his sister, he leaves three brothers, W. E. Boston of Anaconda, J. J. Boston of Kress, Texas, and Gip Boston of Lawrenceburg, Kentucky.

EDGAR CLINARD IS LAID TO REST HERE

Funeral services for Edgar Clinard were held Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. J. W. Selz, assisted by Rev. A. C. Caton, officiating. During the services Clyde Carr sang two hymns which had been favorites with Mr. Clinard, Thomas Sanford accompanying at the piano. There were many beautiful flowers covering and surrounding the casket.

The pall-bearers were J. B. Cochran, A. J. Casey, Paul Casey, T. C. Stevens, Alfred Holden and S. I. Rapson. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggner & Campbell.

Services had also been held in Great Falls before the body was brought here.

Obituary

Mr. Clinard was born May 23, 1898, at Sweet Springs, Missouri, and died at the Deaconess hospital in Great Falls February 12, at the age of 30 years.

He moved with his parents to Carter, Montana, in April, 1911. In 1912, at a camp meeting in Genon, Montana, he was converted and became a member of the Holiness Methodist church.

He was married November 14, 1917, to Kathryn Halley, who survives him. He also leaves his parents; three brothers, Glen, Lawrence and Wayne, and six sisters, Mrs. Ruth Shideler, Mrs. Esther Kersch, Mrs. Opal Schultz, and Jewel, Irene and Ruby Clinard.

SERVICES HERE FOR AGED WHITEFISH MATRON

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen Olive Dowd were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Waggener & Campbell chapel. Rev. W. E. Brann of the Methodist church of Whitefish conducted the service, and Arthur Driscoll sang "Face to Face," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ross Young. Due to impassable roads only a few of Mrs. Dowd's many Whitefish friends were able to attend the funeral but flowers banked across the entire front of the chapel were a silent tribute.

The pall bearers were M. Driscoll, A. J. Driscoll, J. W. Donaldson, J. M. Montgomery, J. B. Cochran and Leonard Riebe. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery beside the grave of Mr. Dowd, who passed away in 1925.

Mrs. Dowd was born December 22, 1842 in Litchfield county-Connecticut. She was married to M. W. Dowd in Wabasha, Minnesota, in 1836. Of their three children only Mrs. J. C. Bailey of Whitefish survives. The family moved to Whitefish in 1909.

Mr. and Mrs. Dowd celebrated their golden wedding anniversary December 24, 1913, and their sixtieth anniversary in 1923.

HOLD SERVICES HERE FOR E. S. FOOT

Funeral services for Eugene S. Foot were held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. A. C. Caton at the Waggener & Campbell chapel, in the presence of many friends. Beautiful flowers were banked across the front of the chapel. The pall-bearers were J. Boysen, F. S. Calbick, Henry Bierman, Charlie Kettlehorn, Raymond Duffy and O. S. Jordet. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Mr. Foot was born February 9, 1857, at Cottage Grove, Wisconsin, and died February 15, 1929, in Kalispell.

As a boy much family responsibility fell upon his shoulders, his father having been killed by the Indians when he was only six years old. At the age of 17 he became a school teacher, continuing in the profession for 32 years. He began as a country teacher, but later was advanced to city teaching and finally became principal of a city school. During this period he lived in Wisconsin and Minnesota. In 1910 he came to Kalispell, and after remaining here two years moved to Elmo to take up farming. His wife died at Elmo in December, just over a month before his own death.

Mr. Foot was a Mason, a member of the Eastern Star order, a Woodman and a Royal Neighbor. He was brought up a Methodist but later in life attended the services of the Unitarian church. He was a man of strong feeling, and was zealous for opportunities for his children, especially in regard to education.

He leaves five children, Guy K. Foot of Kalispell; Paul Foot of Greenville, North Carolina; Harold S. and Waite L. of Elmo; and Charles E. of Great Falls. A brother, C. H. Foot of Kalispell, and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Masters and Mrs. Peter Anderson, both living in Minnesota also survive.

MRS. R. M. GOSHORN IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Mrs. R. M. Goshorn who has been seriously ill for about three months, died at noon today at the home on Fourth avenue east.

Although her death was not wholly unexpected, it nevertheless came as a great shock to her husband and the many friends she had made during a long residence in Kalispell. She had been in her usual health until the middle of the summer, when she submitted to an operation, which disclosed that she was suffering from an incurable malady. Despite this, she was cheerful and optimistic to the end.

With her husband Mrs. Goshorn came to Kalispell from Arizona, 35 years ago, when they purchased The Inter Lake, which was issued as a weekly publication at that time. With him she was actively engaged in newspaper work until 1913 when it was sold to a corporation formed by leaders of the Progressive party. During all that time she took a keen and active interest in her work, and has always been a leading spirit in any movement for civic betterment.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed pending word from relatives at a distance.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR AUGUST GUSTAVSON

Funeral services for August Gustavson were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. H. W. Hanson.

Miss Eva Wentworth and Mrs. J. H. Stevens sang two hymns, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Homer Bowman. The pall-bearers were Albert Erickson, Alfred Bundison, H. E. Boon, Peter Rodvald, Erick Johnson and Carl Bolin. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

August Gustavson was born February 28, 1859, at Klatorp, Sweden, where he grew up and was married to Miss Charlotte Hawkinson. He later came to the United States, moving to South Stillwater, Minnesota, where he lived some time. He lived at Everett, Washington for two years and 25 years ago came to Somers, Montana. He had worked for the lumber company 20 years. Mrs. Gustavson passed away about 7 years ago and for the last two years Mr. Gustavson had lived alone on his ranch in the Swan River country. He is survived by his son-in-law, O. A. Anderson; three granddaughters, Mrs. Albina Boon, Mrs. Pearl Nyberg, and Mrs. Ruby Bradsen and one grandson, Ferrall Anderson.

17 Sep 1929- Gustavson

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the beautiful flowers and for their kindness and help in our recent bereavement, the death of our grandfather. We wish to especially thank Rev. H. W. Hanson for his comforting words and also those who sang.

Signed: O. A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Boon, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Nyberg, Mr and Mrs. Leon E. Braden, and Farrell Anderson.

Twenty-six grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren also survive.

SERVICES IN SOMERS FOR MRS. KVANDE

Funeral services for Mrs. Artina Kvande were held last Thursday afternoon in the Somers Scandinavian Lutheran church, Rev. H. W. Arthur officiating. The service included vocal solos by Mrs. Milton Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Holman, and friends expressed their sympathy and esteem with beautiful floral offerings.

The pall bearers, all friends of Mrs. Kvande, were John Christensen, Lars Christensen, Ed Uppling, Chris Holland, A. Hamner and Peter Runsvold. Interment was made in Bethel cemetery beside Mr. Kvande, who died in 1904, the year after he came to live in Somers.

Obituary

Mrs. Kvande was born in Tromsø, Norway, September 29, 1838. In 1879 she was married to Peter Kvande, and eight children were born to them. They came to Somers in 1904.

Mrs. Kvande was an active member of Somers Lutheran church and a devoted Bible student. She passed away February 3.

Seven of her children survive her: Peter Kvande and Mrs. Carl Anderson of Swan Lake; Mark Kvande of Hood River, Oregon; Mrs. Annie Olson of St. Paul; Mrs. William Raulger of Spokane; Mrs. Ella Porrier, and Mrs. H. A. Hanson of Somers.

CARL MAGNUSSEN DIED TO REST YESTERDAY

Funeral services for Carl Magnussen were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the presence of many friends, at Bethlehem Lutheran church, Rev. J. C. Hjelmervik officiating. Inspiring hymns were sung by a mixed quartet, composed of Mrs. A. A. Koppang, Mrs. H. Hanson, H. B. Henriksen and Peter Weberg, and Mrs. Koppang also rendered a solo. Mrs. H. E. Robbin accompanied at the piano. The sympathy and esteem of friends were expressed in a beautiful floral offering.

The pall bearers were Alfred Holden, A. E. Runsvold, P. B. Runsvold, Oscar Engebretson, R. A. Stenerson and Gordon Steerson. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggener and Campbell.

Carl Magnussen was born January 11, 1877, at Breckenridge, Minnesota, and grew up on a farm near Wahpeton, North Dakota. He was married in Wahpeton September 24, 1911, to Inga Brusletten. They had two children, Lucille and Mildred, both of whom survive.

Mr. Magnussen was in the grain business in eastern Montana until June, 1928, when he moved to Kalispell.

Besides his wife and children he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Julia Scott of Flaxton and Miss Polly Magnussen of Wahpeton, North Dakota.

HOLD SERVICES FOR MRS. FLORENCE OVEREND

Funeral services for Mrs. Florence Overend were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. A. C. Caton of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Gratu Roe and Mrs. A. A. Koppang, sang two hymns, accompanied at the piano by Thomas Sanford. There were many beautiful flowers and a large company of friends came from Belton and Appar to attend the services. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

The pall bearers were Gus Albert, Asa Powell, Sidney Gold, H. E. Vaught, Gene Sullivan and Ora Greenwaldt.

Mrs. Overend was born at Dwight, Illinois in May 1882. She was married to H. M. Overend in Kalispell, January 23, 1922.

While they traveled much because of Mrs. Overend's illness, they looked upon Kalispell as their home and had passed the last few months at their cottage on the shore of Lake McDonald.

Mrs. Overend before her marriage was a nurse and it is believed her illness was contracted from a patient. She was a member of the Eastern Star and White Shrine of Great Falls.

Besides her husband she leaves her mother, Mrs. Trunell of Chicago; a son, Howard, of Detroit; and three sisters, Mrs. Harris of Chicago, Mrs. Haise of Philadelphia and Mrs. Herbert Prior of Hollywood, California.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR PROFESSOR EUGENE A. STEERE, VETERAN EDUCATOR

6 Dec 1929

Eugene A. Steere, well known and beloved citizen of Flathead county was laid to rest Thursday, in the Conrad Memorial cemetery. The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church which was filled with sorrowing friends and many of the students and members of the Flathead County high school were in attendance. Lovely flowers covered the casket and adorned the pulpit.

Dr. H. Scott Bates gave an inspiring and comforting eulogy, his text being chosen from the 119 Psalm. In his theme Dr. Bates dwelt upon "Faithfulness" and the life which was held as an example to others, the life of service, honor, and faithfulness which had been lived by Mr. Steere.

The music was rendered by an organist. He came to Montana as early as 1888 to take the principalship of the Butte high school, and was the second state superintendent of public instruction, serving from 1897 to 1897. While in this office, he revised the entire code of Montana school laws.

Mr. Steere came to Kalispell as city superintendent of schools, but when the county high school was formed shortly afterward he left that post to become its principal. His pupils numbered 70; and he remained to see the enrollment reach 700. He left the high school to serve four years as county superintendent of schools. Thereafter, he abandoned school work for a period of eight lette of high school boys and girls, former pupils of Mr. Steere. They sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

The friends who bore the casket were T. H. Bogart, James Lake, A. T. Aronson, Payne, Templeton, G. C. Wooster and Louis O'Neil. Interment was made under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Eugene A. Steere, beloved professor, passed away in Kalispell December 2, 1929, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dean King. He was taken seriously ill on Friday, November 22, while at his summer home in Dayton, and Mrs. Steere brought him at once to Kalispell. She, with his son and daughter, were with him through his illness.

He was born in New York state on March 25, 1857, received his M. S. degree at the University of Wisconsin, and for 40 years had been a years, but returned to the local high school in 1914 as assistant principal and professor of mathematics, holding this position until his retirement in the spring of 1929, a period of 15 years.

Mr. Steere was a member of the Presbyterian church and all his life he had been a staunch and faithful worker in this church. His religion and his church were always paramount in his life and during all his years in Kalispell he took an active part in church work.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hallie Steere, his son Maynard, of Helena, his daughter, Mrs. Dean King, six grandchildren, and three sisters, Mrs. Althea Stevens and Mrs. Mary Clark, who reside in Sparta, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Carrie Ellis, whose home is in Los Angeles, California.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR RICHARD WALL

Funeral services for Richard H. Wall were held Wednesday afternoon at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. H. C. Mecklenburg of Columbia Falls. Arthur Driscoll sang a solo accompanied at the piano by Maurice Driscoll.

Many friends gathered to pay respect to the life of the departed and many beautiful flowers were banked about the casket. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Richard Harry Wall, son of John and Mary Wall, was born near Phillipsburg, Montana, February 27, 1891. He died in Seattle, November 30, 1929. He is survived by his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen McKeown of Columbia Falls, two brothers, Walter R. Wall of Spokane and Chester E. Wall of Kalispell. Vater Page, Edward Page and John R. Page of Phillipsburg were his uncles.

He was a former resident of Somers and Kalispell and for the past 14 years has resided in Seattle. He served in the World War, having entered September 20, 1917, in Co. C, 361st Infantry, Seattle, Washington.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the friends who so kindly assisted us during our recent bereavement, especially to Reverend Mecklenburg for his comforting words and Mr. Arthur Driscoll for his beautiful song. We thank those who kindly loaned cars and also the old-time friends who acted as pallbearers, and for the many floral offerings.

Signed: Mr. and Mrs. Stephen McKeown, Walter R. Wall, Chester Wall and family.

ference objected, and Mr. Macdonald will have to remain in Kalispell over Sunday.

SEYMOUR S. WOOD IS LAID TO REST

Services in memory of Seymour S. Wood were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. A. C. Caton conducted the service, during which three beautiful hymns were sung by Miss Dorothy Lavin, Mrs. A. C. Caton and Mrs. Greta Roe.

The pall bearers were J. N. Mock, William Moos, Edward Heath, Ward Whitney, William Simpson and Fred Fitzmiller. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Mr. Wood was born at Peoria, Illinois, in 1865, and passed away in Kalispell March 21. He married Miss Mary Wyborny at Missoula in 1915, and moved first to Polson, and a year and a half later to Bigfork, where he had lived for the past 12 years. Besides Mrs. Wood, he leaves two brothers Harry Wood of Sac City, Iowa, and Charles of Compton, California; and a sister, Mrs. Emma Hancock, of Sac City.

Mr. Wood made a wide circle of friends during his residence in this section, and many from Bigfork and Swan lake attended the funeral services.
