MRS. F. E. WALCHLI IS LAID TO REST IN CONRAD CEMETERY

Sunday afternoon in the Waggener and Campbell chapel, last rites were held for Mrs. Fred E. Walchli, following which interment took place in Conrad Memorial cemetery. The Rev. George McVey Fisher officiated at the services and music was furnished by a quartette, composed of Mrs. W. E. Beaman, Mrs. Greta Roc and A. P. Bruce and Andrew Dunsire. Miss Lake accompanied them at the piano.

Many beautiful flowers spoke of sympathy and friendship. Eric Fehlb-berg, James Lake, B. L. Beaman, C. C. Fergusson, R. Ripke and J. H. Bigalk acted as pallbearers.

Obituary

Edna Browning Smithers was born at Alpena, Michigan, December 27, 1889, and passed away in St. Luke's hospital at Boise, Idaho, May 21, 1930, at the age of 40.

In the spring of 1906 she moved with her parents to Kallispell, where she attended Flathead county high school and took a course at the Kallispell Business college. For several years she was bookkeeper for the Eagle Shoe company of Kallispell.

On February 19, 1913, she was married to Fred E. Walchli. One daughter was born to this marriage.

In addition to her husband and her daughter, Caroline, she leaves as her immediate relatives, three sisters and one brother, Mrs. H. E. Rimel of Missoula, Mrs. Elmer Benson of Tacoma, Washington; Mrs. E. M. Lewis of Twin Bridges, Montana, and Carl Smithers of Kallispell.

Since her marriage she and her family resided successively at Thompson Falls, Hardin and Big Fork, and during the past five years at Boise. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, a Past Noble Grand of the Rebekah lodge of Thompson Falls, a Past President of the Rebekah Assembly for this district, and was instrumental in organizing the Big Fork lodge for that Order.

She was a kind and loving wife and mother, and leaves a host of warm friends to mourn her loss.

8 Jul 1930 Wooster

rites are held for G. C. Wooster

The funeral services of the late Gaylord C. Wooster were held in the Sherman and Son Chapel under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge, at 2 o'clock, July 7.

The pall bearers were Dr. J. Arthur Lamb, John Sherman, James Hawkins, T. W. Elliott, J. E. Chester and Daniel Korn, Jr. who were selected from three organizations in this city of which Mr. Wooster was a member.

Arthur Driscoll sang "Perfect Day" accompanied by Mrs. Ross Young at the piano.

Rev. Combs, chaplain of the lodge, read the prayer.

The services at the chapel closed with a reading of what the deceased chose to call "My Daily Prayer." This reading was effectively given by Lowell Parker.

The Eulogy at the burial was given by G. W. Hunt.

Gaylord Clark Wooster was born in Rock county, Wisconsin, 72 years ago, where his early childhood was spent. Later he, with his parents, moved to Brodhead, Wisconsin, where he grew to manhood. He was married to Mary E. Schfelner in 1882 to which union was born a daughter and a son. Most of his life has been lived in the west, 22 years of which have been in the Flathead.

The organizations with which he has been actively affiliated are the Masonic lodge, the Elks lodge and the Rotary club.

Besides his widow he is survived by his daughter, Mrs. E. S. Judd, of St. Paul, Minnesota, a sister, Mrs. Minnie Marshall of Brodhead, Wisconsin, and a granddaughter, Mary W. Wooster of Seattle, Washington, his son having preceded him in death seven years ago.

The beautiful floral offerings were a fitting tribute to the esteem in which he was held in this community.
