

SERVICES HELD FOR WHITEFISH RESIDENT

Members of the M. W. A. and many friends attended the funeral services held for Sam Aiken at 3 o'clock in the Presbyterian church at Whitefish by Rev. F. C. Fulford, Thursday afternoon. Many flowers were banked about the altar expressing the sympathy of the bereaved friends. Members of the church choir sang two hymns. Following the services, the body was taken to the Waggener & Campbell chapel and was sent to Chester, Montana, early this morning for burial.

Obituary

Sam Aiken was born in Nashville, Tennessee in 1882. He came to Montana in 1900, living at Bynum, Chester, and Browning. He moved to Whitefish in 1922 where he engaged in business and later was employed by the Great Northern. On October 2, 1906, he was married to Miss Lois Murray. Mrs. Aiken passed away nearly 13 years ago. Mr. Aiken is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Andrew Einar of Kalispell and a son, Glenn, 13, of Whitefish. Mrs. Aiken's mother, Mrs. George Murray, who made her home with the family also survives as well as two sisters residing in Michigan.