

DAANE INFANT LAID TO REST THURSDAY

Little Donald Matthew Daane, month old child of Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Daane of Whitefish, was laid to rest in the Whitefish cemetery following services in the Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. Barnum conducted the services assisted by Rev. F. B. Hillis and Rev. R. Price. The church was filled by the many sympathizing friends, and flowers in abundance were banked about the altar. Jurine Wormager sang a solo and Miss Williamson, Mrs. A. A. Bergan, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Beard, Mrs. S. J. Dorothy and Mrs. L. L. Babcock sang two selections accompanied by Mrs. James Coughren. Four pall bearers, Samuel Frederick, John McKee, Richard Taylor and Keith Brumell carried the small white casket. Interment was made under the direction of Waggoner & Campbell.

Donald was born January 24, in Havre, Montana and passed away there on February 23 at the age of 27 days. The sympathy of the community is extended to Rev. and Mrs. Daane in their sorrow.

Obituary

Susan Mills was born in Devonshire, England, September 15, 1858, and moved to the states in 1864. In 1878 she married Richard Street and to this union nine children were born, Anna, Kate, John, Ephraim, Mannington, George, Richard, Fred and William. Mr. Street died in the year of 1898 and on December 19, 1900 she was married to John Dodge and to this union two girls were born, Ollie and Bessie. Mr. Dodge passed away on May 9, 1919. Mrs. Dodge had since lived with her youngest son, George, at 486 Seventh avenue east north, in Kallispell, where she passed away February 4, 1931, aged 73 years. Mrs. Dodge's death was unexpected, for although she had not been in the best of health her condition was not considered serious until a day prior to her passing. She is survived by seven children: Mrs. H. E. Stoner, Mrs. William Peterman, Mrs. Fred Blair, John, Ephraim, Mannington, and George Street.

OBITUARY

Calix Dugas

(Contributed)

Died at Eureka, Montana, Sunday morning, March 22, 1931. Born at Chatham, Ontario, October 24, 1870. Came to Missoula, Montana, in 1884, and to the Flathead in 1886, where he lived till he moved to Eureka, some 27 years ago.

In 1897 he was married to Mary Cuffe, who survives him. Besides his wife he is survived by a half-sister and half-brother, Mrs. Bessie Tetrault and Gaspard Martin, of Kallispell and Coram, respectively, and a host of nieces and nephews.

Among the old-timers of the Flathead and Tobacco Plains country, Calix had as many friends as any man who ever lived here. Coming to this wild country a mere boy and being of a genial disposition and fond of sports and the outdoor life, all western Montana felt his manly influence.

To his many friends and neighbors in the Eureka country will he be missed.
