

SERVICES HELD FOR OLD TIME RESIDENT

Funeral services for Abraham Pearson were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. L. N. Field of the Kethlehem Lutheran church. Many beautiful flowers were arranged across the front of the chapel and a large gathering of friends assembled for the services.

Mrs. H. Hanson and H. G. Turnbow sang "Saved By Grace" and "Lights of Home" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. M. Carlson.

Those acting as pall bearers were Martin Knutson, Axel Danielson, Ole Haugen, Chris Iverson, John Anderson, and Peter Weberg. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Abraham Pearson was born in Helsingland, Sweden, November 8, 1852. He was married in 1855 to Anna Pearson and in 1889 came to America making his home in Nebraska. He moved to Wyoming in 1891 where he resided for three years before coming to Kallispell. There were four children of whom one is alive, Mrs. Eddie Felsman of Kallispell. He is survived by his widow, living west of the city, Mrs. Felsman and four grandchildren. He had been failing for the past six months and died at his farm home west of the city, August 21, 1931; at the age of 77.

HARRY BYRON PECK LAID TO REST HERE

Many friends from Kallispell and Coram attended funeral services for Harry Byron Peck which were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. F. B. Hillis. A profusion of flowers was banked about the casket and across the chancel. Those acting as pall bearers were Jess Hennings, H. G. Curtis, J. M. Parsons, Eugene McCarthy, John W. Schutte and W. A. Curtis, members of the Owl lodge. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Harry Byron Peck was born February 5, 1875, at Three Lakes, Wisconsin. At the age of 7 years, he was left to make his own living and with his good voice made his way to Washington. He came to the Flathead 30 years ago and August 16, 1915, he was married, since then, residing in Coram. He held the second guide's license issued in Glacier National park and for the last few years had worked with the forestry service. He was a member of the Owl and Yeomen lodges at the time of his death, March 1, 1931, and was 56 years of age. He leaves his wife of Coram, his mother and three sisters living in Wisconsin.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors who kindly assisted us during our recent bereavement. We also wish to thank those who sent flowers, those who sang and those who acted as pall bearers, and Rev. Field for his comforting words.

Signed: Mrs. Abraham Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Felsman and Marie Klantz.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. PITTS

Funeral services for Mrs. Florence Pitts were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Sherman & Son chapel, Rev. H. W. Hanson officiating. Two appropriate hymns were sung by Mrs. H. W. Hanson and Mrs. C. Bollme, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Andrew Nordtome. The pallbearers were Henry Hausen Ole Torrud, Ole Nordch, Charles Donney, Clarence Aldahl and A. T. Wetterhaus. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Mrs. Florence Pitts was born April 18, 1891 in Wauwaka, Wisconsin, and passed away November 11, 1931 at Helena, Montana. Beside her husband she is survived by her mother, Mrs. William Cooper and a son.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to all of those who helped us during our recent bereavement. Especially Rev. Hanson, those who sang and those who furnished cars.

Signed: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cooper and E. O. Pitts.

LOCAL MATRON PASSES AWAY

From Tuesday Whitefish Pilot

Mrs. Anna Porombski, 64, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. F. Rock, Sunday morning following a heart attack. The body lay in state at the Rock residence from nine o'clock Tuesday morning until the services at St. Charles Catholic church at ten o'clock when the Rev. Father O'Shea celebrated requiem high mass.

The floral tributes were silent testimony of the esteem in which this good woman was held. Pall bearers were Andrew Henderson, J. M. Fraser, C. P. Maxwell, Wm. Galbraith, Wm. Potts, and C. L. Torgison. Interment was made in the city cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Mrs. Porombski was born in Kono-kow, Austria-Poland, September 25, 1866 and was 64 years, 5 months and 17 days old at the time of her death. She became the wife of Joseph Gazur in 1894. Mr. Gazur died February 12, 1912. In September of 1914, Mrs. Gazur was married to Paul Porombski.

In 1908 she came to Sheridan, Wyo., from her home in Austria and resided there until 1918 when she came to Whitefish and made her home with her daughter until she passed away. Those who survive her are three sisters, Mrs. Rock of Whitefish, Mrs. Eva Torolka and Miss Anna Gazur of Kallispell, and one son, Phillip Gazur also of Kallispell. Another son, Paul Porombski died at Kallispell March 14. Sincere sympathy is extended to the children left to mourn a good mother.—Whitefish Pilot.

SERVICES IN FALLS FOR JOHN POWELL

John D. Powell was laid to rest in the Fairview cemetery yesterday afternoon following funeral services held in the Methodist church at Columbia Falls, by Rev. H. C. Mecklenburg. Mrs. Ward Skyles, Mrs. Lewis Robinson and Mrs. Winfield Scott sang two beautiful hymns, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. H. C. Mecklenburg. The pallbearers were Frank Brandenburg, John Burns, Frank Sheeron, Jack Walsh, C. J. Kaus, and M. R. Moore. Interment was under the direction of Sherman & Son.

Obituary

John D. Powell was born in Marion county, Iowa, February 16, 1884, where he lived until 1900, when he moved to Columbia Falls, and resided there until his death February 15, 1931. He was married to Rebecca Burch in 1890. He leaves to mourn his loss his widow; four daughters, Mrs. Georgia Lenon, Mrs. Leon Lenon and Mrs. Ruth Graham, of Columbia Falls, and Mrs. Mary Segen of Whitefish; two sons, Charles and Robert Powell of Oakland, California, and 18 grandchildren. He also leaves four brothers, E. B. Powell of Polson, Montana, and S. D. Powell of Orange, California, Clark Powell of Warsaw, Indiana, and W. W. Powell of Ogden, Utah, and one sister Mrs. Joe Harshman, of Pleasantville, Iowa.

PUTMAN SERVICES HELD THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Friends gathered at the Waggener & Campbell chapel Thursday afternoon at 3:30 for the funeral services of Omar A. Putman. Rev. W. Barnum, of the Presbyterian church read the services and Miss Caroline Walchli sang two solos accompanied by Mrs. W. I. White. Those acting as pall bearers were J. B. Stickles, G. N. Hartman, Joe O'Connell, Roy Ellis, George Danford and Carl Slocombe. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Omar Andrew Putman was born at Ottumwa, Iowa, October 3, 1865 and passed away February 9, 1931 at Yakima, Washington where he lived with his son Ross Putman. He previously resided in California for a short time and also in Kallispell. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Mary Neander of Huntington Park, California, two sons, Ross of Yakima and Glen of Kallispell, six sisters and one brother.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to all those who so kindly assisted us in our recent bereavement, and especially Rev. Barnum, Miss Caroline Walchli and the pall bearers.
Signed: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Putman, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Putman and family.