

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR C. A. JEFFRIES

Funeral services for Charles A. Jeffries were held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. A. C. Caton of the Methodist church. Friends filled the chapel and adjoining rooms to capacity and there was an abundance of beautiful flowers banked across the front of the chapel. During the services two appropriate song selections were given by Mrs. R. Dutton, Mrs. Greta Roe, W. F. Rugsesser, and Guy Chrisinger, accompanied at the piano by Thomas Sanford. The members of the Odd Fellow lodge attended in a body and conducted brief services at the grave side in Conrad Memorial cemetery where interment was made.

Obituary

Charles Augustus Jeffries was born near Cincinnati, Ohio, May 28, 1855 and passed away in Kalispell March 27, 1932.

When Mr. Jeffries was about 10 years old he moved with his family to the state of Iowa, where he grew to manhood. It was there that he was united in marriage with Julia L. Jordan, November 1, 1883.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters Mrs. Carrie A. Smiley of Los Angeles, California, and Mrs. Jennie L. Walter of Kalispell, Montana, and one son, Arthur J. Jeffries of Kalispell; two sisters, Mrs. L. E. Burge of Oklahoma and Mrs. Mary Grant of Long Beach, California. He also leaves eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Mr. Jeffries and family moved to Kalispell in 1902, residing here until the time of his death.

For about 30 years he has been a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and for 21 years he has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Kalispell.

MRS. MARKUS JOHNSON

Funeral services for Mrs. Markus Johnson were held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by the Rev. L. M. Field. The chapel was filled with the many sorrowing friends and many beautiful flowers were banked around the casket.

Miss Agnes Field and Mrs. L. M. Field sang two duets, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. M. Carlson.

Pall bearers were George Bjornoby, I. S. Iverson, Oscar Engebretson, J. M. Carlson, George Moen and E. G. Bjorneby.

Burial was made in the Conrad cemetery.

Obituary

Inger Lykken was born November 20, 1850 in Norway, and passed away in Kalispell November 21, 1932, at the age of 82 years.

As a young girl, she came to this country with her parents, settling in Minnesota, and a few years later was married to Markus Johnson of Minneapolis, and they moved to Grafton North Dakota, as pioneer settlers.

Mr. Johnson passed away in 1914, and with her daughter, Hannah, Mrs. Johnson came to Kalispell, where she has since resided.

She has been an ardent member and an ardent worker of the Lutheran church for many years. She was a true Christian and a loving mother.

Surviving are Mrs. O. A. Moen, Mrs. H. E. Hegraanes, Miss Hannah Johnson and Mrs. G. H. Homme, all of Kalispell; John and Otto Johnson of Grafton, North Dakota; Clarence of Devon, Montana, and Mrs. James W. Porter of Lineville, Iowa, and five brothers.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all of those who were so kind and sympathetic during our recent bereavement; especially Rev. Caton for his comforting words, the pall bearers, those who sang and those who furnished cars.

Signed: Mrs. C. A. Jeffries, Mrs. Carrie Smiley and family, Mrs. Jennie Walter and family and A. J. Jeffries.

SERVICES HELD FOR JOSEPH H. JONES

Funeral services for Joseph H. Jones were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Presbyterian church in Whitefish by Rev. C. P. Daane. Two song selections and a solo were given by choir members. The church was filled by the many friends. Following the services at the church interment was made in the Whitefish cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Obituary

Joseph H. Jones was born May 4, 1848 in Ramsey, Wales. In his younger years he was a machinist in mining work but retired from that work about 35 years ago. For about 18 years he had made his home in Whitefish where he had shown a constant interest in church affairs. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and had served many years as one of its officers. His death terminates a marriage bond of 57 years, his wife, Mary E. Jones, surviving him. He also leaves four sons, Newton and Leonard of Whitefish, Dave and William of Long Beach, California, and three daughters, Mrs. James E. Caughren of Whitefish, Mrs. James Wilson of Florence, Colorado, and Mrs. Ora V. Yocum of Long Beach, California.

MOSES JONES

Funeral services for Moses Jones were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Waggener & Campbell chapel, with Rev. Harold Stark officiating. A quartet, composed of Mrs. Chester King, Mrs. J. Johnson, Mrs. C. D. O'Neil and Mrs. F. S. Monroe, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. T. W. Elliot, sang two songs. Pall bearers were Ed Margardt, Herman Kienas, G. H. Bauska, W. H. Bauska, George Miller and L. Altenburg. Burial was made in the Demersville cemetery.

Obituary

Moses Jones was born at Wales, England, October 29, 1859. He came to the United States in 1887, settling in Ohio, and later moved to Great Falls, Montana. He took up a homestead at Depuy, and five years ago came to the Flathead. In 1902 he was married to Beatrice Sallis, and to this union seven boys and two girls were born. He leaves his widow, Beatrice Jones, five sons and two daughters, and a brother in Los Angeles.
