FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. FRED LANIGAN

Funeral services for Mrs. Fred Lanigan were held this morning at 10 o'clock in St. Matthew's church, Rev. Father Francis O'Farrell officiating. The responses of the Mass were sung by St. Matthew's choir and Arthur Driscoll sang a beautiful solo. Many friends were in attendance and a profusion of beautiful floral tributes were banked about the bier and altar. The pallbearers were M. Driscoll, J. M. Montgomery, Teddy Van, James White, Eugene McCabe, and Gregory Duffy. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Louise Martha Lanigan was born in Fulda, Minnesota, December 25, 1882, and passed away February 12, 1932, at her home, 635 Third avenue west, following a brief illness. Mrs. Lanigan was a resident of Columbia Falls until about two years ago when she moved to Kalispell with her family. Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Katherine and Mary and by a sister at Seattle, who was here for the funeral.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all of those who were so kind and sympathetic during our recent bereavement, especially Father O'Farrell for his comforting words and those who sent the beautiful flowers. Signed: Fred J. Lanigan and daughters and Mrs. R. M. Hastings.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD YESTERDAY
FOR MRS. LARUE

Funeral services for Mrs. Rosa LaRue were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. G. W. Shepard of the Baptist church. The chapel was filled by the many friends and an abundance of beautiful flowers formed a semicircular bank across the front of the chapel. During the services, Mrs. George Flint sang a solo and Mrs. Flint and Mrs. Grata Roe sang a duet. Thomas Sanford accompanied at the piano. Those acting as pall bearers were E. F. Dickerson, G. C. Jensen, G. W. Sharf, Wallace Bull, Bennie Wohlwend and Oscar Proud. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Rosanna B. Stout was born at Lambertville, New Jersey September 27, 1843 and passed away in Kalispell at the age of 89 years.

Her family moved from New Jersey to Illinois where she was a child and she was married December 16, 1863 to George W. LaRue at Fulton, Illinois. Her husband died about 25 years ago and she came west to make her home with her daughter and son in Kalispell about 12 years ago. She was the mother of three children, Jacob N. LaRue, who passed away in Kalispell, June 29, 1923 at the age of 51 years, Mrs. F. H. Tupper and George P. LaRue both of Kalispell. Mrs. LaRue was the last of five children, one brother being killed in the Civil war and one died later as the result of the war service. She was raised in a Christian home and united at an early age with the United Brethren church. Everyone coming in contact with Mrs. LaRue admired her sterling christian character and were glad to be called her friend. Besides her two children she leaves six grandchildren and eight great grandchildren, one grandson, Glen LaRue being a Baptist Missionary in China.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindness during the illness and death of our mother and grandmother, also for those who furnished cars, flowers, to Mrs. George Flint and Mrs. Grata Roe for the music, and Rev. G. W. Shepard.

Signed: Mr and Mrs. G. P. LaRue, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Tupper, Mrs. H. K. LaRue and family, Mrs. Bernice Sparling and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Adams and family, Rev. Glenn LaRue and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sward.

FUNERALS

MRS. J. J. LEBERT

Funeral services for Mrs. J. J. Lebert were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Sherman & Son chapel, by S. L. Ranson, reader of the Christian Science church. A profusion of beautiful flowers were banked about the casket and were a silent tribute of the esteem and sympathy of the many friends. Mrs. Gindgel sang two beautiful solos, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ross Young. The pallbearers were George Paul, Kenneth Paul, Billy Spink, C. W. Brooks, Wilke Collins, and Clegg Collins. The ladies of the Rebekah lodge attended the services in a body and held their ritualistic services at the Conrad Memorial cemetery, where interment was made.

Obituary

Alexander, Oliver Vose, John Morton and F. L. Hyde. Burial was in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Obituary

James Albert Locke was born in Eugene, Oregon on June 17, 1866 and passed away at his home in Kalispell, Montana, January 5, 1932.

On February 24, 1886 he was married to Anna B. Smith in Bellevue Idaho, and to them four children were born, Daniel Mulford, deceased Estella L. Brennan of Plains, Montana, Hazel L. Boyd of Jacksonville Florida, and James E. Locke of Kalispell. With his family he moved to Kalispell in October 1903 where he has since resided.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Locke, three children, two sisters, four grand-children, other relatives and a host of friends.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to those who so kindly assisted us during the illness and loss of our beloved husband and father.

Signed: Mrs. James A. Locke and family.

MRS. CHRISTIAN LUND

Funeral services for Mrs. Christian Lund were held Monday at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel, with Rev. L. N. Field officiating. Many beautiful flowers banked the front of the chapel, which was filled with her many friends. Rev. and Mrs. Field sang two duets, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Pallbearers were George Bjornshy, E. G. Bjornshy, P. P. Weberg, P. H. Gilbert, George Moe and Hector Robbin. Interment was made in Conrad cemetery.

Obituary

Clara Mallrud, one of seven children, was born in Norway, May 25, 1851, and at the age of 19 she came to the United States, settling in Chicago, where she worked for a number of years while learning the English language, and during her stay there, sent for her two younger sisters.

When the tide of immigration led farther west she moved to the infant town of Fargo, North Dakota, where in partnership with a friend, she set up in the dressmaking business. Meanwhile she sent for her parents and a brother and his family.

On December 26, 1882, she was married to Christian J. Lund, who was at that time clerking in a store in Fargo, and they established their home in Kindred, North Dakota, where they spent 30 years working together and watching a prairie wilderness develop into a thriving, wholesome community.

In 1912, lured by the mountain scenery of the Flathead, they came to Kalispell, where they have since made their home.

Mrs. Lund passed away at her home November 25, 1932.

She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Lillian Peterson and Mrs. J. P. Bruckhauser; two sons, Irvin Lund of Kalispell and Conrad Lund of Oakland, California, and six grandchildren, Linda Jane Betty Lou and Corinne Bruckhauser and Charles, Lillian, Paul, Helen, Phillip and Frances Peterson.

EMIL L. LUNDEMOC

Funeral services for Emil I. Lundemoe were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Waggener & Campbell chapel, with Rev. Field officiating. The music consisted of a solo by Alger Blachley and a duet by Mr. Blachley and Mrs. Ruthen Dutton, accompanied at the piano by Tom Sanford. Pallbearers were S. B. Jackson, Ed. J. Deist, Ernest Jensen, J. H. Weisz, A. M. Evjen and O. S. McGlothlin. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Emil L. Lundemoe was born March 26, 1838 at Menomonie, Wisconsin, where he resided until five years of age, when he moved with his family to Wrenshall, Minnesota. In 1910 the family moved to Big Sandy, Montana, where they homesteaded and in 1920, they came to Kalispell, where he has since made his home. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. C. W. Larson, a nephew, Oliver Engbretson, and a step-father, A. Rogstad, all of Kalispell.

CARD OF THANKS

To the many friends who, during a long sickness, death and burial of our beloved wife and mother, have so freely given us their sympathy and help, we wish to extend our sincere thanks.

Signed: C. J. Lund, Irvin Lund, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Lund, Mrs. Lillian Peterson and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bruckhauser and family.
