Obituary

Mrs. Lillian Anderson-Hanson was born in a Methodist parsonage, December 10, 1909, at Waupaca, Wisconsin, and grew to womanhood in Chicago, where she received her education. In 1927 at Chicago she was married to Rev. Hilmer W. Hanson. To this union one child, Lois Lorraine was born. Shortly after their marriage Rev. Hanson received an appointment to a church in Spokane, where they resided for a year before coming to Kalispell to serve the congregation of the local Scandinavian Methodist Episcopal church.

About 18 months ago Mrs. Hanson's health failed and since that time she had been bed-fast. Death came suddenly last Friday at Galen, Montana, where she had been receiving treatment in the sanitarium since last December. Beside the immediate family she is survived by three brothers, Royle and Arlo of Minneapolis, and Elmer of Grand Rapids, Michigan; and two sisters, Clara of Sarasota, Florida, and Dagne of Chicago. Rose, an older sister, passed away five years ago.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all those who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement. We especially want to thank the Rev. W. F. Koehler for his words of comfort, and the Rev. G. W. Shepard; those who sang so beautifully, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Boline, Miss Sadie Albertson and the Rev. Jones of Somers, and Mrs. A. Aylesworth, who accompanied. We also wish to thank the pall-bearers.

Signed: H. W. Hanson and daughter, Lois.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD AT HELENA FOR VETERAN PROSPECTOR

(Special to Inter Lake)

Helena, March 15.—Funeral services were held at a mortuary chapel for George Howard, 90, who died on March 11 after a short illness. The Rev. Arthur A. Moore, pastor of St. James African M. E. church officiated and burial was in Forestvale. The attendance was large and included many friends of the veteran prospector of both the white and negro races. Mr. Howard had been a familiar figure in Helena for more than 50 years. He was born in a southern state, a slave to a wealthy master, to whom he was body-servant, and with whom he toured the European nations as well as other foreign countries. Freed by the Civil war, the young negro made his way westward, and reached Montana by the steamer, Missouri River Red Cloud, leaving the boat at Fort Benton.

About 1889 he settled in Helena, where he lived in a small home near the scene of early day placer mining. He became well known to Helena residents as a cook for fishing and hunting parties, a gardener and houseman and a general handy man. He also worked continually at gold washing, with cradle or pan, and eked out a comfortable livelihood for years. He was an unusually fine physical specimen of his race, standing well over six feet in height and possessed of great bodily strength. His manner was kind and dignified and his disposition cheerful. Until his last illness he walked erect and continued his work, despite his advancing years. A sister, living in Omaha, and a nephew residing in Butte came to Helena for the funeral.
