Mr. Alexander was keenly interested in politics and stood fearlessly by his convictions. He passed away at his home Tuesday, April 10, 1934, at the age of 53 years.

He is survived by his wife at home, and seven children: Gloria Bertha Johnson of Maedool, California; Seldon Cameron Alexander, Billings, Montana; Lillian Alexander Melnecke, University of Southern California; Wayne Alexander, San Francisco, California; John Alexander, Gilroy, California; Marie Jane O'Callaghan, Los Angeles, California; and Melinda Alexander of New York City.

Diseases of Various Races

The peoples of northern Europe are relatively immune to goiter and cretinism, both of which are common in the Alpine regions. The population of Iceland for a long time was apparently immune to whooping cough; but this was and remains a frequent affliction in the Scandinavian countries and in northern Europe.—Literary Digest.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all those who were so kind and helpful during our recent sorrow. We especially thank those who sang, the Rev. Harold C. Stark, those who gave flowers and all who loaned cars.

Signed: Mrs. J. C. Alexander, Mrs. O'Callagan, Mrs. Joe Hanson.
