

FUNERALS

MRS. NELLIE KAO

Funeral services for Mrs. Nellie Kao were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Central Christian church by Rev. Walter H. Sandy. Mrs. M. A. Tiffany and C. C. Shoemaker sang three hymn selections during the services, accompanied at the piano by Miss Roberta Fenner. There were many beautiful flowers banked high about the casket and pulpit and sorrowing friends filled the church to capacity.

Friends acting as pallbearers were George Hoylman, Victor Hoylman, O. C. Mahugh, Luther Logan, John Zadra and L. M. Penrod. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Obituary

Nellie Kao was born in Leek, England, on December 26, 1897, and passed away on October 18, 1934, at the age of 36 years, nine months and 22 days.

At the age of nine years she came to America with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Steeple, and resided in Idaho for two years, at which place she was baptized into the Church of the Brethren. The family then settled on a homestead near Froid, Montana. Here she was always active in church work in the Grandview Church of the Brethren, being superintendent and teacher in the Sunday school a number of years. In 1916 she was united in marriage to Guy Kao of Froid, and to this marriage were born two children.

In 1921 she came with her husband to the Flathead valley, where they have since made their home.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband; four children, Betty, age 9, Freda, age 8, Ruth, age 2 years, and an infant boy; also her mother, Mrs. Sarah Steeple; two sisters, Mrs. L. C. Moothart of Cheney, Washington, and Mrs. Max de Yong of Froid, Montana.

CARD OF THANKS

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends who helped in any way during the loss of our dear one. The sympathy and kindness has helped much to ease our sorrow.

Signed: Guy Kao and children; Mrs. Sarah Steeple, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Moothart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Max de Yong and family.

MRS. PAULINE KNUTSON

Funeral services for Mrs. Pauline Knutson were held this morning at 10 o'clock in St. Matthew's church, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Francis O'Farrell. The responses of the Mass were sung by the St. Matthew's choir. Hosts of friends from Flathead and Lake counties attended and there were many beautiful floral tributes. Those who acted as pallbearers were Harold Beavers, Leon Thompson, L. G. Herman, Harold Wyand, Joe Stevens, and Virgil Jackson. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery, under the direction of Sherman & Son.

Obituary

Pauline Anna Rau Knutson was born at Wheaton, Illinois, July 13, 1906, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rau, pioneers of Lost Prairie, near Marion. Pauline received her primary education at the Pleasant Valley school and graduated from the Flathead County High school, class of June, 1924, at Kalispell. She taught three consecutive years in Flathead county at Bowman, Doyle and Sullivan schools and two years at Catalina, Montana, where she made many warm friends. Here she met John Knutson, whom she married June 6, 1928. Mr. Knutson was engaged in ranching at Conrad for a time and moved to their present home, near Polson, three years ago, where he continued farming. Pauline was of a sweet, friendly nature with a ready smile and a contagious laughter that brought her a host of friends. Her last Christmas was spent at the Rau ranch, situated in the picturesque Lost Prairie valley amid the settings of her childhood and was the time of the last complete family reunion. She died January 22, 1934, at Polson and is survived by her husband, John Knutson; three children, James Pete, aged three; Mary Dorothy, aged two years, and William Charles, eight months; her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rau; a brother, Walter Rau, of Marion; a number of other relatives and a host of loving friends.
