FUNERALS

DR. C. F. LESLIE

Funeral services for the late Dr. Charles F. Leslie were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel, by the Rev. Walter H. Sandy of the Central Christian church. Many friends filled the chapel, and beautiful flowers, in tribute to him from his friends, were profusely banked about the casket.

Members of the Masonic lodge attended in a body and conducted services at the grave side. The Masonic quartet, composed of A. Dunbar, Hugh Fisher, Al Bruce and Coons, sang two hymns, and Don Shepard sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were J. H. Chester, F. E. Dore, R. Paulsen, I. W. Hanson, George Rath and J. C. Boyd. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Charles Francis Leslie was born at Houghton, England, February 27, 1854. He received his early education at Parkhouse Academy and Houghton College, England. Here he was confirmed and became a member of Christ Episcopal Church of England. He came to America as a young man, first settling in Ontario, Canada, later coming to the United States, residing at York, Nebraska, where he engaged in building construction. He married Minnie Lau at Lincoln, Nebraska.

Later, he decided to take up the study of veterinary medicine, and went to Toronto, Ontario, Canada, where he graduated from Ontario Veterinary college. The family then moved to Walnut, Nebraska. To them were born a son and two daughters, the son passing away in infancy.

The doctor and family moved to Kallispell in June, 1906, where they have resided ever since. After coming here he was appointed deputy state veterinarian, which position he held until his death. He was always interested in his home city, having served as president of the city council. He was a member of Kallispell Lodge No. 42, A. F. & A. M., and of the Modern Woodmen of America; also the Montana State Veterinary association.

After a prolonged illness he passed away June 28, 1934, at his home. He leaves to mourn his passing, his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Charles E. Treckell of Missoula, Montana, and Miss Marie M. Leslie of Kallispell, Montana, and two grandchildren, Leslie and Marie Elizabeth Treckell.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to those who were so kind and helpful at the time of our bereavement. Especially do we wish to thank Rev. W. H. Sandy for his comforting service, the Masonic lodge, those who sang and rendered piano music, and those who sent the many beautiful flowers.

Signed: Mrs. Charles F. Leslie; Miss Marie M. Leslie; Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Treckell and family.

MRS. OLIVE E. LEWIS

Funeral services for Mrs. Olive E. Lewis were held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Weggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. William F. Koehler of the Methodist church. Beautiful flowers were backed high across the front of the chapel and many friends attended the services. Members of the Eastern Star, the Rainbow Girls and the DeMolay attended in a body.

A mixed quartette composed of Mrs. R. Dutton, Mrs. Gratia Roe, A. Dunstire and W. E. Ruggsegger sang three selected hymns during the services, accompanied at the piano by Thomas Sanford. Those acting as pall bearers were Frank B. Linderman, John Hall, Earl Hallister, O. M. Jenkins, Herbert Hosfield and Charles Short. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery, where the ritualistic service of the Eastern Star was given by the officers of the Columbia Falls lodge, with C. W. Pomeroy acting as patron and Mrs. Pomeroy acting as worthy matron.

Obituary

Mrs. Olive Estelle Lewis was born at Pierson, Iowa, March 31, 1873, and died in Kalispell, Montana, April 17, 1934. She was the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Bellman of the Methodist Episcopal church. She grew to young womanhood in her native state of Iowa and was married to John E. Lewis, August 16, 1892, at Missoula, Montana. They immediately took up residence at Columbia Falls and for the 40 or more intervening years, have resided in this community.

The state of Mrs. Lewis' health has not been robust for several years, but it did not become critical until recently. The end came rather suddenly. She lived a life of devoted and unusually unselfish service. She seemed to find serene satisfaction in providing for the needs of others. Until about three years ago, she was vigorously active in the work of the Order of Eastern Star. She was a past matron of the Estelle-Pomeroy Chapter No. 86 of Columbia Falls. She was likewise a past grand chaplain of the state of Montana.

She is survived by her husband, John E. Lewis, and a sister, Mrs. Mary M. Grier of Los Angeles, California.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our gratitude and appreciation to all who so graciously contributed their services, strength and encouragement to us in our hour of sorrowful loss: to Rev. Wm. F. Koehler for his spiritual message of peace and comfort; to those who beautifully and lovingly sang; for the devoted services of the O. E. S. chapters of Columbia Falls and Kalispell; for the many expressions of love with flowers; and those who served with care. With loving appreciation: John E. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Lewis, Mrs. Mary M. Greer, and Miss Claudia Lewis.

JOHN LUNDGREN

Friday afternoon at 3:30, funeral services for John A. Lundgren were held at the Waggener & Campbell funeral home by Rev. L. N. Field and Rev. H. W. Hanson. Mrs. A. A. Koppang sang three appropriate hymn selections during the service, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were Ole Renemo, Hoken Linrud, John Pearson, Neils Bjornsted, Carl Johnson and Carl Jernberg. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery. Members of the Lady Owls and the Scandinavian Fraternity attended the service in a body.

Obituary
