ASHES OF MRS. LYDIA BOSE SENT TO BUTTE FOR BURIAL

The remains of the late Mrs. Lydia Osterhout Bose were interred May 4, at Butte, in St. Moriah's cemetery.

Mrs. Bose died December 8, 1932, at Berkeley, California, and funeral services were held at that time at Berkeley. The body was cremated and the ashes sent to Butte for burial, with Mrs. Bose's husband, the late Henry Bose, who died in 1930.

A simple but very impressive commitment ceremony was held, which was conducted by the Rev. Thomas A. Ashworth, rector of the St. John's Episcopal church of Butte, which was attended by the family of the late Henry Bose.

Lydia Osterhout Bose was born in 1861 at Tunkhannock, Wyoming county, Pennsylvania. She had made Flathead valley and Kalispell her home for many years prior to going to California and leaves one brother, who resides in New York.

Mrs. Veata Brennan received the above information last week from Mrs. H. J. Rodolf and daughter, Miss Margherita, of Butte, who attended the services for Mrs. Bose.
