

FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD FOR MRS. LILLIAN SANDERS

Funeral services for Mrs. Lillian Rogers Sanders were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in the Sherman & Son chapel, the Rev. Father Francis O'Farrell officiating. The St. Matthew's school girls' choir sang two hymns during the services. The pallbearers were: William Koenig, Elmer Koenig, Ole Wollen, Sanford Quick, John Shea and James Parson. Interment was in Central Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Lillian Josephine Rogers was born October 14, 1892, in Helena, Montana, and came with her parents to the Flathead in 1903. When about 12 years of age, she went to Butte, where she made her home with her uncle, Patrick O'Shea, attending the Butte grade schools and graduating from Butte high school. She returned home during the summer months and vacations, and in her brief visits here she made many friends. Upon completing school, Miss Rogers worked for a time in the offices of Drs. Smith and Potter and later at the Murray hospital in Butte. In September, 1925, she married Roy H. Sanders of Butte, the ceremony taking place in Kallispell. Mrs. Sanders became ill last January and was taken to a specialist in Portland on June 16. She passed away at the St. Vincent's hospital there June 21, at the age of 41 years.

Besides her husband she is survived by three children, Robert, William and Lillian Marie; her father, Fred W. Rogers, of Kallispell; two sisters, Miss Ruth Rogers, of Helena, and Miss Hazel Rogers, of Kallispell; two brothers, Fred H. Rogers and Ed Rogers, of Kallispell; her uncle, Patrick O'Shea, of Butte, and other relatives.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to those who were so kind and helpful at the time of our bereavement. Especially do we wish to thank Father O'Farrell for his comforting service, the Elks' lodge, those who sang, and for the many beautiful flowers received.

Signed: Roy H. Sanders, F. W. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Rogers, Ruth, Hazel and Ed Rogers, Patrick O'Shea.

25 Jul 1934 pg 2- Satterlee

STEPHEN SATTERLEE

The last rites for Stephen A. Satterlee were conducted by Waggener & Campbell at the Bethel cemetery, the Rev. W. F. Koehler reading the service. A quartet composed of A. H. Burns, Mrs. Ben McKinley, and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McDonald rendered music, and T. H. McDonald, who knew Mr. Satterlee years ago, delivered a short eulogy. Pall bearers were R. H. Schroeder, William Harris, Eli Melton, Peter Myer, Frank Marco and Captain A. P. Anderson, who knew Mr. Satterlee at his former home in Michigan.

Obituary

Stephen A. Satterlee was born August 30, 1848, and died July 24, 1934. His early manhood was spent in Holland, Michigan, where he was a well-wright, licensed steam engineer and pilot, and for some time was also a lighthouse keeper.

Mr. Satterlee came to Flathead lake many years ago, and had resided at his place two miles south of Somers. Mr. Satterlee had a machine shop at his place, and also engaged in raising and selling strawberries.

For some months he had been nearly bedfast, suffering from a leg infection. He had left money in the bank to defray his funeral expenses and had deeded his lake property to Flathead county, in return for an old age pension which he had received for some years.

WILLIAM SCHOCK

Funeral services for William L. Schock were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by the officers of Lake Lodge No. 50, I. O. O. F. During the services, Mrs. A. B. Yull and Miss Caroline Walchli sang two hymns, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Etta Ritter. The pallbearers were E. V. Gardner, T. S. Perry, Ed Thomas, Tom Stevens, Ernest Nelson and Fred Sempf. Interment was made in the Demersville cemetery.

Obituary

William L. Schock was born Sept. 13, 1880, at Chesaning, Michigan, and passed away in Kalispell, March 23, 1934, having reached the age of 53 years. Mr. Schock had made his home in the West for about 20 years, making Kalispell his headquarters most of that time. He was a member of the Odd Fellow lodge. He is survived by relatives in Michigan and they were unable to be here for the funeral.

F. F. SCHOLP

Funeral services for Fred Frank Scholp were held Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Masonic Temple in Whitefish by Rev. C. P. Baane of the Presbyterian church. There were many beautiful flowers lanked about the casket and a large number of friends attended the services. The Masonic lodge conducted the services of the order at the grave side. Those acting as pallbearers were S. Swanson, William Schultz, Lloyd Stanton, E. P. Dalton, William Vaugun and E. Josephson. Interment was made in the Whitefish cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Obituary

Fred Frank Scholp was born July 2, 1890, in Kansas, where he received his education and grew to manhood. In 1913, at the age of 23 years, he came to Whitefish and entered the employment of the Great Northern Railway and remained in that service until his death. In 1920 he was united in marriage to Mrs. Coed Williams at Spokane, Washington. He passed away Feb. 14, 1934, at his home in Whitefish at the age of 43 years. He is survived by his widow and son, Fred, Jr., at home; two step-sons, Clifton and Wesley Williams of Whitefish; his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Scholp of Kansas; two sisters, also in Kansas, and two brothers, one in Chicago and one in New York City.

MISS OPAL SEE

Funeral services for Miss Opal See were held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. A. E. Roberk. During the services Mrs. Roberk and Mrs. Richardson sang a duet and Mrs. Roberk sang a solo. Those acting as pall bearers were Tony Follette, Paul Kofford, Howard Wheeler, Bernard Wheaton, Gordon Houtickson and Harry Holland. Interment was made in Demersville cemetery.

Obituary

Opal Pearl See was born December 6, 1914, at Springview, Nebraska. Her father, Clyde See, a world war veteran, passed away at Colon, Panama. Miss See and her mother came to Kalispell in 1929, and Miss See attended school here in Kalispell. She passed away July 10, 1934, at the age of 19 years. She leaves her mother, Mrs. Allen Ross of Kalispell, one brother, also of Kalispell and her grandparents of Ainsworth, Nebraska, a half-sister and half-brother of Kalispell and other relatives.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all those who were so kind in helping us at the time of our bereavement, and we also wish to thank those who sent the beautiful flowers, those who rendered music and who loaned cars.

Signed: Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ross,
Mr. and Mrs. James See.

OBITUARY

Joseph Seth passed away in Kalispell on May 21, 1934 at the age of 70 years. He was born November 16, 1864 in Scioto County, Ohio, and in March 1879, moved to Minnesota where he lived in McLeod county for 34 years. He came to Kalispell in 1915.

Mr. Seth is survived by his three children, Winifred L. Seth and Mrs. James Berry of Kalispell, and Eldred E. Seth of Spokane; a sister, Mrs. John Fry of Spokane, and brother, Francis Seth of Aitkin, Minnesota, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

ERWIN SIGMUND

Funeral services for Erwin E. Sigmund were held Thursday morning at 10:30 at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. W. F. Koelder of the Methodist church. The body was laid to rest in Demersville cemetery and those acting as pall bearers were E. F. Dickinson, W. B. Jordan, John Nelson, Charles Foster, Julius Bergren, and J. O'Ganner.

Obituary

Erwin E. Sigmund was born about 70 years ago in Wisconsin and had been a familiar figure about Kalispell for a good many years. He was a carpenter and mechanic of ability and worked mostly at mill work. He was a single man and made his home on Sixth avenue west north where he passed away Tuesday morning after a lingering illness. So far as is known here, he leaves no relatives.

24 Jan 1934 pg 6- Sletten

MARY GLADYS SLETTEN

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Gladys Sletten were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Brethern church in Whitefish by the pastor, Rev. Swallow. The church was filled with the many friends and many stood through the services. Six young men acted as pallbearers and interment was made in the Whitefish cemetery under direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Obituary

Mary Gladys McDowell was born November 13, 1909, at Dexter, Mo. where she lived, with the exception of three years in Arkansas, until 1923, when the family moved to Whitefish. On May 16, 1927 she was married to Ole Sletten, whom she leaves to mourn, with two small children, the younger being nine days old. She is also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. McDowell, four brothers, Felix, Raymond, Roy and Leonard, and one sister, Pansy, all of Whitefish.

31 Jan 1934 pg 2- Smallen

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for their kindness and sympathy, especially the Rainbow Girls, those who sent flowers, those who gave cars and music and anyone who in any way helped us in our recent bereavement.

Signed Mrs. Edith Smallen,
R. W. Smallen, Marie Van Leon.

23 Jan 1934 pg 4- Smallen

JOY VAN LOON SMALLEN

Funeral services for Joy Van Loon Smallen were held yesterday at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Harold Stark and Rev. William Koehler. During the services Dan Shepard sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. M. Carlson, and Clara Griffin and Delta V. Carr sang a duet, accompanied by Miss Ann Pederson. Girls of the Order of Rainbow attended in a body and conducted the beautiful ritual services of their order at the graveside in Conrad Memorial cemetery. Those acting as pall bearers were: Arvade Bucholz, Harold C. Anderson, Paul Buck, James Hoppe, Elmer Norden and Jack Cabelk.

Obituary

Joy Van Loon Smallen, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. R. W. Smallen, was born in Kalspell, January 12, 1918. She attended the city schools and at the time of her death was a student in Flathead county high school. Although her health had not been the best for some time she bravely kept up her work in school until about a month ago when she was taken seriously ill. She passed away Saturday morning at the age of 16 years.

During her brief life Joy had won many friends, being especially a favorite in musical circles because of her unusual talent. She will be greatly missed.

She leaves to mourn her departure her parents and Marie and Lenore Van Loon of Kalspell, besides a host of friends.

FUNERALS

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Josephine Smith were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church in Whitefish by Rev. Omar Idso. There were many beautiful flowers banked about the casket and the church was filled to capacity by the many friends.

During the services a mixed quartette composed of Mrs. G. M. Moore, Miss Norma Iseninger, L. Larsen and Glen Whitney sang three hymn selections accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bert Koons. Those acting as pallbearers were Newton Jones, V. B. Karst, Frank Pickett, James Wilson, Mack Johnson, and Edward Hopkins. Interment was made in the Whitefish cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Obituary

Mary Josephine Smith, daughter of Simon and Mary Donegan, was born in Bray, County of Dublin, Ireland, February 8, 1883. She died March 8, 1934 at the age of 51 years. At the age of eight years she came with her family to America, located in Chicago, where her girlhood days were spent. She later spent some years with her brother in Nebraska and then moved to Montana, coming to Whitefish in 1918. It was here that she met and married Mr. Larry Smith of Whitefish and she had since made her home until the time of her death.

She leaves to mourn her departure her husband, Larry Smith of Whitefish, two brothers, S. P. Donegan of Springfield, Missouri, and W. P. Donegan of Whitefish and one step-son, Autley Smith of Whitefish.

MRS. RUSSELL SMITH

Funeral services for Mrs. Russell Smith were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in the Sherman & Son chapel, with the Rev. Father O'Farrell officiating. Mrs. Larry Barrows sang, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ross Young. The pallbearers were: Henry, Earl, and Arthur Weaver, Fred Dahlke, and Howard and Boyd Blackmer. Interment was in Fairview cemetery.

Obituary

Mary Louise Smith was born June 28, 1914 in Stanton, Wisconsin, and passed away in this city April 20, at the age of 19 years. Mrs. Smith was a resident of Cotam, Montana.

Besides her husband, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hilligs, of Collins, Montana; two sisters, Katie and Anna Hilligs; a brother, Jack Hilligs, of Collins.

FUNERALS

GEORGE S. STANFORD

Attended by many of his old friends and pioneers of the Flathead, funeral services for George S. Stanford were held Thursday at 3 o'clock in the Wagner & Campbell chapel. The Rev. Charles A. Wilson officiated. Two vocal solos were given by Clyde Carr, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Burt Carr. Pallbearers included G. H. Adams, Charles Higgins, G. Henderson, Frank Marco, Eli Melton, and G. Ourland. Burial took place in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

George S. Stanford, who was a gunsmith by profession, was born in 1858 in Halifax, Canada, and was the son of James Stanford and Catherine E. Stanford of England. He came to America from Australia in 1883 and to the Flathead in 1891 and had resided since 1896 at his lakeside ranch on Conrad Point on the west shore of Flathead lake.

MRS. H. L. STEVENSON

Funeral services for Mrs. H. L. Stevenson were held Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Sherman & Son chapel, Rev. W. H. Sandy officiating. Mrs. M. A. Tiffany sang two hymns, accompanied at the piano by Miss Roberta Fenner. The pallbearers were Arthur Peters, Bert Brinkerhoff, Kenneth Winebrenner, Charles Perotte, Clarence Ray and Elmer Howell. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Augusta Kuchenbuch Stevenson was born in Marshall, Washington, October 27, 1888 and died at her home near Columbia Falls, May 28, 1934, aged 45 years. She is survived by her husband, Harold L. Stevenson; two daughters, Mrs. Leonard Beck, and Alice Stevenson; four sons, Lester, Harold, Cecil and Charles; four sisters and four brothers; and her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Kuchenbuch.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR JOHN STEWART IN CAPITAL CITY.

Helena, Feb. 14.—Funeral services were held yesterday at a mortuary chapel for John L. Stewart, 44, World war veteran who died at the Fort Harrison hospital February 10 after a long illness. The Rev. H. H. Daniels, dean of St. Peter's pro-cathedral officiated and burial was in Forestvale beside the grave of Mr. Stewart's father. Delegations from the pioneers' organization attended the services.

Mr. Stewart was born in Helena, a son of the late John Stewart, pioneer mining man, who died some years ago. He attended the local schools and afterward became a civil engineer, practicing his profession until the start of the World war, when he enlisted as a member of Company K, 76th Infantry. During his service he contracted an ailment which resulted in his death. He had been a patient at the Veterans' hospital for six years.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. John Stewart; a brother Henry E. Stewart and two sisters, Mrs. A. J. Horsky and Mrs. George Stadler, all of Helena.

CHESTER B. STRINGFELLOW

Funeral services for Chester B. Stringfellow of Columbia Falls were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Thorman of the Methodist church. The Misses Idanée Nelson and Ruby Greene sang three hymn selections during the services, accompanied at the piano by Marie Saurey.

Those acting as pall-bearers were Thomas Jordan, Fay Loveall, Dwight Grig, John Greve, James Fleming and Charles Greve. Interment was postponed until Wednesday, due to the late arrival of a sister from Chicago, Ill. Committal services were held Wednesday at the graveside in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Chester Barbour Stringfellow was born April 27, 1903, at Havre, Montana, and came to Columbia Falls at the age of 15 with his parents, where he completed his schooling. On May 31, 1928 he was united in marriage to Miss Janette Travis of Kalispell, and they have since made their home at Columbia Falls. He passed away January 31, 1934 after a brief illness. He was a member of the Columbia Falls volunteer fire department.

Those left to mourn are his wife, Janette, and two children, Billy, age 5, and Joen, age 2; his mother, Mrs. C. B. Maple, all of Columbia Falls, and three brothers, Henry of Havre, Lewis of Warm Springs, Mont., Marshall of Columbia Falls; two sisters, Mrs. Nellie Mill of Glasgow, Mont.; and Mrs. Essie Bowman of Chicago.

FUNERALS

MRS. NANCY J. STUART

Funeral services for Mrs. Nancy J. Stuart were held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. William F. Koehler officiating. During the services Burt Carr sang two solos accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Carr. The pall bearers were Jack Chester, Robert Pauline, Bert Bonduant, A. W. Hellensteiner, Herbert Kendall and E. B. Foot. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery, under the direction of Sherman & Son.

Obituary

Nancy Jane Witt was born at Isabella, Penn, July 9, 1850 and passed away June 5, 1934 at her home at Fairview. She was united in marriage to Joseph T. Stuart, April 1, 1869. To this union six children were born, Mrs. Mary Sullivan of Innisfail, Alberta, Canada, Mrs. Harriet R. Small, deceased, Mrs. Anna L. Skyles, deceased, W. J. Stuart of Fairview, Montana, Mrs. M. L. Patison of Pasadena, California and Wendell Stuart of Rochester, Minn. Mrs. Stuart with her husband and family came by covered wagon to Butte, Montana in 1883 and after a residence of two years, here came to the Flathead valley. They took up a homestead which has since been the family home. Mrs. Stuart was a faithful wife and a devoted mother, an active member of the Methodist church and the W. R. C. until the time of her illness. Those left to mourn her death besides two sons and two daughters are ten grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to those who assisted us in the illness and death of our loved mother and grandmother. Especially do we thank Mr. and Mrs. Burt Carr for the music, Rev. Koehler for his comforting words, all those who sent flowers and who offered the services of their cars.

Signed: The Stuart and Small families.