Surviving are her husband, Robert MacMillan, of Creston, a brother, Hans V. Udseth of Minneapolis, Minnesota and a sister, Mrs. B. H. Lean of El Centro, California and other relatives.

CARD OF THANKS

May these few words, in some small way convey to the many good friends our sincere appreciation and gratitude for the many acts of kindness bestowed upon our beloved wife and sister through health, illness and the final parting.

The kindly demonstrations of human sympathy and esteem, the floral offerings, and the final tribute are the torch that illuminates our darkened path, and a great help in soothing the pain and distress in parting with our loved one.

We must especially express our gratitude to Mr. and Mrs. McCabe, Miss Jordan and Miss Fielding for their tender and loving care during the final illness and passing.

Bert MacMillan, Creston; O. T. Udseth and family, Minneapolis; H. M. Udseth and family, Minneapolis; Anna Lien and family, El Centro, Cal.

Obituary

Margaret Susanna Hopkins was born March 27, 1849, in Marshall county, Iowa, where she resided for several years. On November 14, 1890, she was joined in marriage to John H. McAfee. Eight years later, in the spring of 1898, they moved to the Flathead valley, where they have lived almost continuously since.

As a citizen of the community, she was always interested and active as a pioneer and builder for the growth of the valley.

As a member of the Presbyterian church in Kallispell, Mrs. McAfee proved her serious concern with spiritual things and added strength and ability to the work of the church.

In recent years the family has lived in Kallispell, due in part to Mrs. McAfee's protracted illness. She passed away January 5, 1936.

Mrs. McAfee is survived by her sisters, Miss A. E. Hopkins of Kallispell and Mrs. Jennie Hazoiburst of Bonner; her husband, John H. McAfee; a daughter, Mrs. Blanche Hagie, of Fort Benton, Montana; a grandson, Daryl Hagie of Fort Benton; a niece, Mrs. Margaret Lennon, of Kallispell, and other nieces and nephews.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to all those who assisted us in the loss of our beloved wife and mother. We wish especially to thank Rev. Harold Stark for his kind and comforting words and those who sent the beautiful floral offerings, those who furnished music and cars and those who assisted us in any way.

Signed: J. H. McAfee, Mrs. Blanche Hagie.

employ of the Great Northern railway and later the Somers Lumber company, until illness overtook him about six years ago and he retired to his home in School Addition, where he passed away on February 25, 1936.

Mr. Milne's genial disposition won for him a large circle of friends. He was a kind father, a loving husband and a good neighbor, and will be greatly missed in his community.

Besides his widow and son, Allan, and one granddaughter, who reside at Somers, he leaves three brothers and four sisters in Scotland, and one sister at Chester, Montana, to mourn his death.
