

WILLIAM O. NELSON

Funeral services for William O. Nelson were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Walter H. Sandy and Rev. Frank B. Hillis. The chapel was filled by the many friends and there were many beautiful flowers banked about the casket. During the services, Mrs. Marion Ford sang three selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Durt Carr. Friends acting as pallbearers were: Edward Nordtome, D. C. Nixon, Robert King, Richard Greig, Donald Leach and George Glendenning. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

William O. Nelson was born in Girard, Kansas, August 1, 1909. Eighteen months later he moved with his parents to Musselshell county, Montana, on a homestead. In 1921 the family came to the Flathead and he entered Flathead county high school. For nine seasons he served on lookout duty with the forestry service. He was married to Miss Henrietta Gosney October 14, 1934, and they have since made their home in Missoula, where Mr. Nelson operated a service station.

He passed away March 7, 1936, at Missoula, following complications from pneumonia.

He has been a member of the church since early childhood.

He leaves to mourn his departure, his widow, Henrietta, of Missoula; his mother, Mrs. Grace Nelson of Kalispell; two sisters, Mrs. Otto Fehlberg of Coram and Mrs. James Christoff of Belton; one brother, John V. Nelson of Kalispell; three nieces, two nephews and other relatives.

MRS. FRED NOBLE

Funeral services for Mrs. Fred Noble were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Kalispell Funeral Home chapel, Rev. W. H. Sandy officiating. Mrs. H. E. Elsensohn sang two hymns during the services, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. Bell. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Ruth Alberta Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stone, was born October 17, 1905, in Alberta, Canada, and passed away at Shelby, Montana, May 13. She was married to Fred Noble at Oilmont, Montana, December 31, 1934, where they had since made their home. She is survived by her husband, Fred Noble, of Oilmont, and a brother, Fay Stone, of Kalispell, two uncles in Canada and other relatives.

ROBERT NORDTOME

Funeral services for Robert Nordtome were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by the Rev. Hanson of the Scandinavian Methodist church. The chapel was filled to overflowing with the many friends and the casket above was backed with many flowers.

The Odd Fellows quartet, composed of T. S. Perry, M. S. Spink, W. J. Pierce, and Wayne Nelson, sang two songs, accompanied by Mrs. P. Q. Litter. The pallbearers were: E. L. Keiley, W. P. Jaquette, Ed. Constad, L. A. Wendt, T. A. Grovo and F. X. Grosswiler. Burial was made in the family lot in the Spring Creek cemetery, the Odd Fellows lodge conducting the services at the grave.

Obituary

Robert Nordtome was born in Norway, December 9, 1863, and passed away at his home in Kalspell April 12, 1936. He came to this country at the age of 18 years and settled first in Wisconsin, later in Minneapolis, and came to Montana in 1888. He pre-empted a tract of land three miles from where the city of Kalspell now stands and is entitled to the honor due those early pioneers who were instrumental in building this now prosperous community.

Mr. Nordtome was married in Minneapolis to Carrie Sneen and to them were born seven children, Albert, who died in infancy, Andy, Clarence, Edward, Mrs. Schmauch and Mrs. Phillips, all of Kalspell, and Mrs. Feurt of Portland. His wife passed away in 1910. He married again in 1914 and to this union three children were born, Melford, Clifford and Irene.

Mr. Nordtome was the last surviving charter member of the Scandinavian M. E. church and he helped to found and build the church in the early days.

He leaves to mourn his death his widow, six sons, four daughters and ten grandchildren, besides a host of neighbors and friends.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to all those who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. Especially do we thank Rev. H. W. Hanson for his comforting sermon, the I.O.O.F. lodge for their beautiful songs and services, the pallbearers, those who furnished cars and for all the beautiful flowers.

Signed: Mrs. Robt. Nordtome and family; Mr. and Mrs. Andy Nordtome and family; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nordtome and family; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nordtome and family; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Phillips and family; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Schmauch and family and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Feurt.
