Those acting as pallbearers were C. D. O'Neill, T. W. Elliott, J. H. Chester, Ray Bryan, E. M. Ruck, and T. S. Bogart. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Ella May Gillett was born in Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., Nov. 17, 1872. Her childhood and early womanhood was spent in Wisconsin. On Sept. 18, 1891, she was united in marriage to Charles H. Jungberg at West Superior, Wisconsin. To this union were born three children, Mary Pauline, Lindsey Guy, and Una Floretta. A son died in infancy. In 1899 Charles Jungberg came to the Flathead valley with the John O'Brien Lumber Co., and the family home thereafter, save for four years in Helena, was maintained in Kalispell.

Following a long illness Mrs. Jungberg passed away on the afternoon of January 25, at the home of her daughter, at Olney. Surviving her are two daughters, four grandchildren, and one sister, Carrie White, of Canton, Wisconsin.

Always keenly interested in all those about her, Mrs. Jungberg was known as a helpful neighbor, a loyal friend, and a devoted mother. Her cheerfulness, patience, fortitude in the long months of her suffering were an inspiration to those who came in contact with her. Mrs. Jungberg was an active member of the Presbyterian church in Kalispell and to the very day she was finally confined to her bed, she gave unstintingly of her means, time and energy to the service of her church.
