

MRS. MYRTLE ZABEL

Funeral services for Mrs. Myrtle Zabel were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Kalispell Funeral Home chapel, Rev. H. B. Ricketts officiating. During the services Miss Lorean Wilson sang two appropriate hymns. The pall bearers were William Wachsmuth, John Herbert, Albert Root, Elmer Nicholas, and Benjamin Bruyer. Interment was Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Myrtle Zabel was born April 5, 1879 in Hagerstown, Indiana and passed away at her home one mile northwest of Kalispell January 11, aged 58 years. Mrs. Zabel came to Kalispell in 1904 and had since resided here. Surviving are her husband, Henry Zabel; three daughters, Mrs. Nellie Frost of Winchester, Idaho, Miss Pear Zabel of Hagerstown, Indiana and Miss Izabel Zabel of Spokane, Washington; four sons, Albert, Samuel, Willis, and Russell all of Kalispell; three grandchildren; five brothers, W. B., Harry, Charles and John Lewis of Kalispell and George Lewis of Turtle Lake, Wisconsin.

RAYMOND ZELLER

Funeral services for Raymond Zeller were held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the Kalispell Funeral Home chapel, Rev. Father P. X. O'Farrell officiating. During the services the St. Matthew's school choir sang two appropriate hymns. The chapel was completely filled with sympathizing friends from here and Lincoln county and there was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes. The pall bearers were D. S. Cameron, H. A. Kendall, Daniel Reed and Ray Bryan. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Raymond John Zeller was born at Waunakee, Wisconsin, Oct. 20, 1883 and came to Montana with his parents who were pioneer settlers in the Flathead valley. He and Oscar Gray were instantly killed March 23 when his car crashed through a railing of the Kootenai bridge near Libby. Survivors include his widow, Elizabeth; two daughters, Mrs. Marguerite Titchbourne, and Mrs. Ray Peck of Bureka; his mother, Mrs. Amelia Zeller of Kalispell; three sisters, Mrs. Anna Libby of Seattle, Wn., Mrs. Clara Thompson of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Mrs. T. V. Kinke of Fortine; a brother, Roman Zeller of Somers.