

MRS. MARY E. KARCHER

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary E. Karcher were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. L. M. Darnell of the Baptist church. During the services Mrs. A. Paterson and Miss Caroline Walchli sang two hymn selections, unaccompanied at the piano by Mrs. Dean King. The order of Eastern Star conducted ritualistic services at the chapel and interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery. Those acting as pall bearers were Henry Bierman, W. H. Bailey, E. M. Walter, Charles Duvall, J. E. Rockwood and Forrest Rockwood.

Obituary

Mary E. Waters was born May 12, 1870 at East Troy, Wis. where she received her education and grew to womanhood. She was married to Julius Karcher in 1891 at East Troy and they then came to the Flathead. They lived at Demersville until Kalispell was started and then moved to Kalispell where they were in business until retirement a few years ago. Mrs. Karcher was a worker and organist of the local Baptist church for many years. She became a member of the Order of Eastern Star in 1904 and was Worthy Matron of Adah Chapter in 1914. She was also the author of a very beautiful ceremony used by the Past Matrons' club. She was a member of Chief Ignace Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution and Regent of that order for the term 1936-37. She possessed a keen sense of humor and was kind and considerate of all.

She passed away at her home March 5, 1938 at the age of 67 years. Those surviving are her husband, Julius Karcher, of Kalispell and one daughter, Mrs. R. W. Beeson of Alturas, Calif., and one grandchild, Allen Beeson.

MRS. ALICE KELSEY

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Kelsey were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. H. B. Ricketts. During the service Lyle Carr sang two solo selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Carr. Friends acting as pall bearers were: Ervin C. Leo, George C. Rath, Thomas Edwards, Nels Peterson, J. Karcher and A. M. Moore. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Alice Prugh was born September 29, 1869, at Larwill, Ind. She grew up near Larwill, later attending school at Columbia City, Ind. She then taught school at Larwill until her marriage November 24, 1892, to Lewis W. Kelsey. They moved to Carbin, Ky., and 35 years ago came to Marion, Mont., where they made their home since. Mrs. Kelsey passed away August 29, 1938, in Kalispell at the age of 68 years.

Those surviving are her three daughters: Mrs. C. D. Arveson, of Yakima, Wash., Mrs. Nick Knutson and Mrs. Ernest Hanchett of the Flathead Mines; also one sister and four grandchildren.

NICHOLAS KIEFFER

Funeral services for Nicholas Kieffer were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Charles' church at Whitefish, Rev. Father J. P. O Shea officiating. Friends who served as pall bearers were William Ferguson, William T. Donegan, H. B. Markus, James Morris, Nick Herriges and Anthony F. Christian. Interment was in the Whitefish cemetery, under the direction of the Kallispell Funeral home.

Obituary

Nicholas Kieffer was born in Luxembourg, Germany, November 1, 1881, and little is known of his early life. He was employed with the Great Northern railroad as pipe-fitter in the Whitefish shops the past 17 years. He made his home at Second street in Whitefish and passed away October 5th. He is survived by a brother, Michael Kieffer, who resides in Long Island, New York, and other relatives.

MRS. SARAH F. KING

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah F. King were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel. Mrs. Ruby Rapson read the Christian Science service and Catherine Digginger sang two solo selections, accompanied at the piano by Laura Knott. Beautiful flowers were banked in abundance about the casket and the chapel was filled by the many friends attending the service. Those acting as pall bearers were E. E. McCubrey, E. F. Dickinson, A. W. Simon, Harold C. Stark, F. O. Williams and R. Whitwell. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Sarah Frances Albritton was born October 17, 1867, at Hickory Grove Ky., the daughter of Joseph C. and Elizabeth Albritton. The family moved to Arkansas, where she was married, December 25, 1883, to Andrew Jackson King, with whom she lived until his death in 1929, crossing the plains in a wagon with him and their first born, a daughter Jessie, in 1887, to the Black Hills of South Dakota, where a son was born, and moving on the Flathead in 1889, where the other son was born at Demersville. Since then, the Flathead has been "home," though actually living for scattered periods at other places. Though frail in body, a great religious faith sustained and cheered her during the last half of her life, and particularly during the lonely years since the loss of her husband.

She is survived by two sons, Dean of Kallispell, and Carlisle of Seattle; two sisters, Mrs. Martha Yonney of Bigfork, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes, of Omaha, Nebraska; six grandchildren: Robert, Jack and Susie Frances King and Mrs. Elizabeth Hetzer, all of Kallispell, and Carlisle and Andrew Carlin King of Seattle, and nine nephews and nieces.

MISS ALENE KITILSBY

The body of Miss Alene Kittilsby was sent to Minot, North Dakota by Waggoner & Campbell this afternoon. A sister, Mrs. Sig Ludwig, and her mother, Mrs. Emma Kittilsby, accompanied the body. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Thomas Funeral home in Minot.

Obituary

Mildred Alene Kittilsby was born March 27, 1915, at Sherwood, North Dakota. At the age of 12 years she moved with her parents to Minot, where she lived until coming to Kallispell a little over a year ago. She was graduated from the Minot high school and attended a business college. At the time of her death she was employed as stenographer at the Insurance Service agency in this city.

Interment will be in the family plot in Rosehill cemetery, Minot.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. E. A. Kittilsby, one sister, Mrs. Sig Ludwig of Kallispell and a brother, Lyle Kittilsby, of Minot.