They came to the Flathead in 1900 and farmed northwest of Kalispell, retiring in 1916. Mrs. Sweeney passed away in 1932. Mr. Sweeney is survived by two children, Mrs. Nora Luke and Roy Sweeney, both of Kalispell, and 13 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Mr. Sweeney had been a member of the Christian church since he was a young man.

CARD OF THANKS

To all those who so kindly assisted us during the illness and at the time of the death of our father, Thomas M. Sweeney, we give our sincere thanks. Especially do we thank Rev. Sandy for his comforting words, those who sang and those who sent flowers.

Signed: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luke, W. E. Luke.

JESSE W. SWEET

Funeral services for Jesse W. Sweet were held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Masonic Temple in Whitefish by Rev. C. P. Daane of the Presbyterian church. During the services solos were rendered by Glenn Whiteley and Mrs. F. C. Bangeman. Mrs. Ted Hiatt accompanied at the piano.

The temple was filled by the many friends and beautiful flowers were banked in abundance about the casket. Masonic services were conducted at the grave. Friends acting as pallbearers were John F. Maas, C. W. McGahen, William Scholtz, Emil Josephson, Lee Stout, Joe Hamel, Jim Shoaf and Charles A. Bennett. Interment was made in the Whitefish cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Obituary

Jesse Woodruff Sweet was born at Hamilton, Indiana, May 9, 1874. He came to the state of Montana in October of 1909, when he entered the employ of the Great Northern railroad, serving for 29 years. He began railroading at Bloomington, Ill., and was promoted to an engineer in September of 1903.

He was married to Kathryn H. Cavanaugh in Peoria, Ill., Feb. 14, 1903. To this union was born a daughter, Flavia, now Mrs. J. Skyles, of Los Angeles. There are two nieces and a nephew, and a granddaughter, Jacqueline, who survive him.

Mr. Sweet was a member of the Masonic Order of Whitefish, a member of the Order of Railway Engineers, and the Great Northern Veterans' association. In 1934 he was taken into the Blackfeet tribe and was given the name of Ninna-kau or Bear Chief.

Mrs. W. D. SWETLAND

Funeral services for Mrs. Adilda Swetland were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Charles G. Cole of Missoula, assisted by Rev. H. B. Ricketts of the Methodist church of Kalispell. During the chapel service Mrs. C. G. Cole sang two solo selections accompanied at the piano by Thomas Sanford. Many friends attended the service and beautiful flowers were banked in abundance about the casket.

Friends acting as pallbearers were Lowell Parker, E. F. Dickinson, J. H. Chester, T. S. Sanford, T. W. Lavin and Gerald Schnell. Following the chapel service, the family accompanied the body to Oberlin, Ohio, where interment will be made.

Obituary

Adilda H. Robinson was born in Mauston, Wisconsin, Sept. 4, 1876. She attended school there and after graduation taught school a few years. She was married to William D. Swetland and they came to Kalispell in 1904. Mrs. Swetland had made her home here since, with the exception of the past few years spent in the east on account of her failing health. She returned here only recently, feeling much improved, but acute appendicitis developed and her vitality was not equal to it. She passed away in Kalispell, June 29, 1938, at the age of 61.

She is survived by her husband, W. D. Swetland; two daughters, Misses Marnette and Madeline, and a son, William. There is also a sister living in Wisconsin.
