Obituary

Charles H. Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barker, was born March 4, 1866, at Montgomery City, Missouri, and spent the early years of his life in that city. He died in Kalispell, on February 18, 1940, at the age of 73 years.

When nine years of age he started to learn his trade as a printer, which occupation he had followed throughout his life.

He was married January 4, 1886, at Kokoa, Missouri, to Miss Anna Lee Ellis, and they made their first home at Memphis, Missouri.

In 1907 they moved to Kalispell where Mr. Barker accepted a position as printer with the Kalispell Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker have made their home in Kalispell continuously since that time. Mr. Barker had been employed on various newspapers in the city, working for the Daily Inter Lake for several years before he retired from active work about two years ago.

Mr. Barker had been in his usual good health and his death Sunday morning, was very unexpected.

He was a devoted husband and father, an energetic and loyal worker, a cheerful companion—and was a friend to all with whom he was associated.

He leaves to mourn his death his widow, Mrs. Anna L. Barker, and four sons: John L. of Seattle, Washington; William D., of Kalispell; Edmund D., of Seattle, Washington; and Forrest E., of Colfax, Washington. A fifth son, Charles Bryan, died in Glacier Park in September, 1922. There are also two sisters and two brothers.
