Obituary

Henry W. Phillips was born April 7, 1861, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. At the age of 23 he moved to Iowa where he engaged in farming activities for a number of years. On December 2, 1886, he was married to Anna K. Mundt, and to this union were born two sons, Frank H. and Elmer G.

Brighter opportunities beckoned to him in Nebraska and in the year of 1891 he moved his family to the land of rolling prairies where they lived until 1916. The lure of Montana's mountains and fertile valleys brought him to Kalispell in September of that year where the family established their residence. Soon thereafter he engaged in farming east of Kalispell and later on the west shore of Flathead lake, where he resided until two years ago, when at the death of his wife, Anna K. Phillips, he moved to the Yaak river district with his son, Elmer.

He passed away October 3, 1941, of heart failure at his Yaak home, and is survived by his two sons, Frank H., of Washougal, Washington, and Elmer G., of Helena, Montana. Also five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
