

SERGE S. SABIN

Funeral services for Serge S Sabin were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Owen-Elliott Chapel. Rev. C. S. Kleckner of Central Christian church officiated. During the service Don Shepard sang two hymns, accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends serving as casket bearers were John A. Pennoyer, Leiland Rock, Lloyd Buck, and Keith J. Hammell. The remains were taken to Hamler, Ohio, for services and interment.

Obituary

Serge Sheldon Sabin was born in Henry county, Ohio, on May 6, 1903, and passed away in Kalispell August 15, 1941, at the age of 38 years.

On April 20, 1928, Mr. Sabin was united in marriage to Mrs. Emma Moore. He moved with his family to Hamilton, Montana, in September 1928, where he engaged in the restaurant business until December 1929. In June 1930 he was employed by the Associated Seed Growers and in 1937 was transferred to Kalispell as branch manager, which position he held until his death.

Besides his widow he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Nellie Sabin of Hamler, Ohio; five step-daughters, Donnamae, Winifred, Jane and Mrs. William Broad of Kalispell and Mrs. Francis McGrew of Kelso, Washington. Also a brother, Cloyce, and a sister, Mrs. George Brenner of Toledo, Ohio and other relatives and many friends.

FRANK H. SAFFORD

Funeral services for Frank H. Safford were held Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the Waggner & Campbell chapel by Rev. T. B. W. Allen of the Presbyterian church and Allen Hanson of the American Legion. Those acting as pall bearers were Ben H. Schlegel, Rees P. Evans, D. C. Nixon, Dr. Ernest Beaudia, Roy E. Scovil and Walter A. Ryder. A color guard stood by the casket during the service and military honors were concluded with taps at the graveside in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Frank Hugh Stafford was born July 31, 1891, at Berlin, Wisconsin. He moved to Lewistown, Montana, in 1912, and while there enlisted for service in the World war and served overseas in Company H, 307th Infantry.

He was married June 26, 1937, to Ethel M. Hoppe of Lewistown. They came to Kalispell over four years ago and made their home here until his death August 19, 1941, at the age of 50 years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ethel Safford at home; his mother, Mrs. Raymond Safford of Berlin, Wis., and seven brothers and sisters: Bert of Berlin, Wis., Ray of Milwaukee, Wis., Vernie of Omro, Wis., Mrs. Walter Peterson, Berlin, Wis., Mrs. Mrs. Howard Gerlock, Billings, Mont., Mrs. O. H. Hoyer and Florence Safford, both of Berlin, Wis.

EMIL A. SCHILLING

Funeral services for Schilling were held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. Father George B. Gerner of Fort Missoula, Montana. During the service Don Shepard sang two solo selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Members of CCC Camp 15 of Belton filled the chapel for the service and those acting as pall bearers were Charles Labootly, Joe Evanglester, Peter Skinkunas, Harry Fetterhoff, William Bridgen, and John Tollmini. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Emil A. Schilling was born April 15, 1895, in Switzerland. He came to the United States when a young man and became a citizen 21 years ago. He became a cook and worked in some of the prominent cafes in New York City. The past several years he had been mess steward in CCC camps and came to the Flathead in April 1939. He passed away in Camp 15 at Belton, following a week's illness, on February 17, 1941, at the age of 45 years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Marie Schilling of Williamsport, Pa., and other relatives in Switzerland.

CYRUS W. SEIDERS

Funeral services for Cyrus W. Seiders were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. C. S. Kleckner of Central Christian church. During the service Don Shepard sang two solo selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were J. R. Sausser, Thomas J. Halero, Paul Frank, Harry Jessup, John Cotton and Willard R. Lycans. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Cyrus W. Seiders was born May 12, 1853, at Mount Lebanon, Pennsylvania. He grew up there and became a flour miller by trade. He came to Kalispell over 36 years ago and was employed by the Jessup mill and later by other mills in Kalispell. He was married over 40 years ago to Mrs. Louise V. Volk.

Mr. Seiders had been retired for several years and passed away on Sunday, June 8, at his home on Ninth avenue west in Kalispell. He was 88 years of age.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louise Seiders, at home; one stepson, Clayton Volk, and a step-daughter, Mrs. Hulda Worthington, both of Minneapolis. There are also three step-grandchildren.

WALTER M. SEXTON

Funeral services for Walter M. Sexton were held Saturday afternoon at 3:30 at the Waggenet and Campbell chapel by Rev. M. A. Cookson of Christ Episcopal church. During the service Clide Carr sang two hymn selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. M. J. Carlson. The chapel and adjoining rooms were filled by the many sympathizing friends and many beautiful flowers were banked about the casket. Friends acting as pall bearers were Clyde Hume, Gordon Price, Sam James, Lawrence Bergland, Morgan Stotts and Steve Rolland. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Walter Melvin Sexton was born in Kalispell August 19, 1916. He attended the grade and high schools of Kalispell and was known to everyone as "Bud." Bud was a member of the Cub Scouts in his youth and at the age of 12 became a Boy Scout. On reaching the age of 17 he joined Company "F" of the national guard and continued in service for seven years. He held the rank of sergeant.

He was baptized and confirmed in the Episcopal church and on June 1, 1930, was confirmed by Bishop Faber.

He passed away March 5, 1941, at the age of 24 years. Those surviving are his widow, Myrtle Lee Sexton, a four-year-old son, Jerrol Melvin Sexton, and a baby daughter, Judith Lee Sexton; his mother, Mrs. Esther Sexton of Kalispell; three sisters, Mrs. Frances Hashagen of Opportunity, Wash., Mrs. Bernice McPheeters of Kalispell, Mrs. Juanita Stinbrink of Oakland, Calif., and a younger brother Kenneth Wayne Sexton of Camp Murray, Washington.

JOHN SHERMAN

John Sherman was born July 4, 1879 in Washington, D. C. He spent his early youth in Southern California and later attended George Washington University at Washington, D. C., where he was affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. Following completion of his college work he spent several years in the land business in Oklahoma.

He then came to Montana where he engaged in buying and selling villa sites, and in 1910 opened a settlement on the Flathead Indian reservation. He was married October 21, 1911 to Cornelia Frances Wade of Kalispell.

Mr. Sherman incorporated the Flathead Motor Sales company in Kalispell in 1916 and two years later Bert Saling was made a partner. He continued in the automobile business until 1937 when he retired from active business.

Before his retirement three years ago, he was active in civic affairs. He was a charter member of the Kalispell Rotary club and served as its president in 1924 and 1925. He was for many years an active member of the Roads and Highways committee of the Kalispell Chamber of Commerce and was instrumental in locating and developing Western Montana highways. Historic monuments to the memory of many early pioneers have been placed in this vicinity through his efforts. Among these are the Walter Griffin and Perley Bernard memorials at Cascadilla Springs, and the Sidney M. Logan memorial at Thompson Lakes. He was also a member of the Elks' lodge, the Masonic Order and the Episcopal church.

Survivors are his widow; three daughters, Mrs. Robert Biron, Jr., of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Thomas M. Mitchell, Burnet, Texas; Miss Dorothy Gene Sherman of Kalispell; a son, John Sherman of Butte, and two sisters, Mrs. Eugene Van Voorhis and Mrs. W. B. Farnum of Rochester, New York.

PAUL JEROME SHOTWELL

Funeral services for little Paul Jerome Shotwell were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggoner and Campbell chapel by Rev. Father O'Farrell of St. Matthew's church. Friends acting as pall bearers were Angus McDonald, Gideon Oursland, Harold Terry and Henry Bullman. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Paul Jerome Shotwell was born Feb. 10, 1941, at Billings, and came to the Flathead last June to live on the west shore of Flathead Lake south of Somers. He passed away September 23 at his home.

He is survived by his parents and one brother at home and his grandmother, who lives in Seattle.

CAL I. SIBLEY

Private funeral services for Cal I. Sibley were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggoner and Campbell chapel by Rev. L. M. Darnell of the Baptist church. During the service Mrs. J. M. Carlson played several organ selections. Friends acting as pall bearers were R. D. Gaffaney, H. W. Hutchings, Ed Brewster, William Markin, E. M. Swetpian and Paul Darnell.

Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Cal Irvin Sibley was born Sept. 5, 1918, at Spokane, Washington, to Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Sibley. He grew to manhood at Apgar in Glacier National park, and took up his trade as a carpenter.

He was married to Miss Jaunita Claire Feb. 14, 1940. He passed away December 27, 1941, at his home at the age of 23 years.

Mr. Sibley is survived by his wife,

Mrs. Jaunita Claire Sibley of Belton, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Sibley of Belton, and one brother, William, and two sisters, Rose and Bettie, all of Apgar.

KENNETH SIBLERUD

Funeral services for Kenneth Sibley were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Waggoner & Campbell chapel by Rev. L. N. Field of the Bethlehem Lutheran church. During the service Mrs. H. Hanson and L. N. Field sang two appropriate hymn selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. The chapel and adjoining rooms were filled by the many friends and beautiful floral tributes were banked high across the entire front of the chapel. Friends acting as pall bearers were Laurence Richards, Dial McCown, John Miller, Earl Smith, Peter Danielson and Leonard Stebbins. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Kenneth Leander Sibley was born at Wolf Point, Montana, June 24, 1919, to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sibley.

In 1920 the family moved to the Flathead valley. Kenneth grew to manhood here and was confirmed in the Bethlehem Lutheran church in the class of 1934.

He passed away at his home on the farm near Creston January 1, 1941, at the age of 21 years.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Emelia Sibley, two sisters, Mrs. Buennetta McCown of Kalispell, and Mrs. Marvel Nichol of Libby, Mont., and four brothers, Harold, Maynard, Ellsworth and Donald, all living here, and other relatives and friends.

MRS. ADDIE M. SMITH

Funeral services for Mrs. Addie M. Smith were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. Mrs. Emily Treloar of the Methodist church. During the service Clide Carr sang "Beautiful Isle" and "The Old Rugged Cross," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were C. D. Keeling, F. D. Phillips, Tom Kennedy, Carl Boline, Orin Brist and Charles Odenwald. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Addie May Smith was born Nov. 5, 1867, at Logansville, Wisconsin. She came to Montana in 1906 and made her home at Somers. She remained there until 1940 when she moved to Bonner, Montana, to be with her daughter.

She was a member of the Methodist church at Somers and a member of the Royal Neighbors of America.

She passed away September 2, 1941, at the age of 74 years. There are three children surviving, Mrs. Gertrude Peterson of Bonner, Harry Smith of Bonner and Charles Smith of Kalispell; also four grandchildren and five step-grandchildren and one great-grandson. One brother and five sisters also survive.

DOUGLAS SMITH

Funeral services for Douglas Smith were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. T. D. W. Allen of the Presbyterian church. During the service Miss Carolyn Walchli and A. Dunsire sang two hymn selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were Edward Felsman, Sam Davis, Paul Walchli, Norman Harris, W. T. Lavin and Lewis Kinshella. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Douglas Smith, son of Douglas and Margaret Smith, was born in Tilbury, Center, Ontario, Canada August 15, 1857. He spent his childhood in that vicinity and at the age of 21 years moved to Michigan and worked at the blacksmith trade. Later he moved to Bozeman, Montana, where he engaged in grain farming. In 1891 he moved to Phillipsburg, and there on June 5, 1895 he was married to Miss Christian Grant. Mrs. Smith passed away in 1937.

The Smith family came to Kalispell in 1906 and made their home in the Flathead since that time. Mr. Smith passed away October 11, 1941, at the age of 84 years.

Ten children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Smith, eight of whom survive. They are Mrs. Margaret Orr, Ronan, Mont.; Mrs. Chritone Dean, Troy, Mont.; Mrs. Alice McRea of Browning, Mont.; Mrs. Ada Felsman, Mrs. Vivian Kinshella and Mrs. Amber Collier, all of Kalispell; Oliver D. Smith of Los Altos, Calif.; and Robert Smith of Missoula, Mont. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mary McGillvary of Florence, Ont., and Mrs. Katherine Sales of Bozeman, Mont.; and ten grandchildren.

Mr. Smith was a member of the Presbyterian church.

MRS. HATTIE M. SMITH

Funeral services for Hattie M. Smith were held Monday morning at St. Matthew's church with Father F. X. O'Farrell saying the requiem mass. Friends serving as casket bearers were Maurice Driscoll, John Graham, William R. Logan, I. D. Roggenlien, A. J. Braugberzer, and Ernest Beaudin. Committal services were held in the Owen-Elliott cemetery chapel in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Hattie May Collins was born in Sandown, New Hampshire, on May 19, 1872, the eldest of three children of the Rev. William H. H. Collins, a Methodist minister, and Lizzie J. Hartwell.

Her childhood years were spent in Haverhill, Mass., and on February 1, 1892, in Boston, Mass., she was married to D. F. Smith, subsequently first District Judge of Flathead county, who brought her to Columbia Falls.

Upon Mr. Smith's election as judge in 1896 they moved to Kalispell, where they made their home until his death in 1916.

In latter years she had lived in Boston and New Rochelle, N. Y., to be near her sons in school and later in business.

In addition to a brother and sister in Massachusetts she is survived by three sons, Harold F., Charles H., and four grandchildren.

Harold returned to Kalispell from New York City about three years ago and Walter has been here several months. Charles lives in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Smith returned to Kalispell last fall hoping to improve her health, which had been failing for some time.

MRS. MARY P. ST. DENIS

Funeral services for Mary P. St. Denis were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. Father F. X. O'Farrell at the Waggner & Campbell chapel. During the service Mrs. M. A. Tiffany sang two solo selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Frank Moothart. Friends acting as pall bearers were J. K. Laug, J. Caswell, H. Albert, Arthur Lynch, F. B. Marshall and Cecil Sykes. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Mary P. Bisonnett was born at Fairbalt, Minn., February 27, 1856, where she was married at the age of 15 years to Barny LaBatt. Five years later Mr. LaBatt enlisted in the Spanish-American war, leaving her with their five children. After the war they made their home in Minnesota until she was 37 years of age when Mr. LaBatt passed away. She then moved to Bolencau, North Dakota, and 15 years later married Eugene St. Denis. In 1914 they came to Kalispell where they have lived since. Mrs. St. Denis passed away September 29, 1941, in Kalispell at the age of 85 years.

She is survived by her husband at home, a daughter, Mrs. Joe Spence in Minneapolis and four sons, Louie LaBatt of Fairlawn, Sask., Canada, Charles and Archie of Minneapolis and Angelo of Fargo, N. D.

EUGENE ST. DENNIS

Funeral services for Eugene St. Dennis were held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. Father O'Farrell of St. Matthew's church. Friends acting as pall bearers were F. B. Marshall, Cecil Sykes, J. K. Lang, Nerlie Reiter, R. H. Beam and Joe Stevens. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Eugene St. Dennis was born in New York state in 1860. He pioneered into the Flathead 54 years ago with the early days of Demersville. He made his home here until 1907, when he went to Boteneau, North Dakota, where he was married to Mrs. Mary La Batt. They continued to make their home there for seven years and returned to Kalispell in 1914. Mrs. St. Dennis passed away three weeks before Mr. St. Dennis, who died Oct. 20, 1941, at the age of 81 years. There are no known relatives surviving.

JAMES A. STEVENS

Funeral services for James A. Stevens were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. F. B. Hillis. During the service Mrs. Minnie Wonsmos, Mrs. Everett Thompson and Mrs. Otto Fehlberg sang two appropriate hymn selections, accompanied at the organ by Miss Frankie Hillis. Friends acting as pall bearers were Glenn Miller, Lester W. Taylor, Sidney R. Michels, F. A. Putnam and Martin C. Grainger. Interment was made in the Woodlawn cemetery at Columbia Falls.

Obituary

James Avery Stevens was born October 13, 1910, in Missouri. He was married in 1936 to Miss Shirley Ellen Powers and they moved to Coram, Montana, to make their home. He had not been in good health for some time and passed away March 24, 1941, at his home at Coram at the age of 30 years.

Mr. Stevens is survived by his wife and small daughter at home and his father, William M. Stevens, and three brothers living in Missouri.

JOEL F. STOTT

Funeral services for Joel F. Stott were held last Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Owen-Elliot chapel with Rev. C. P. Daane of the Whitefish Presbyterian church officiating. During the services Mrs. Forcun sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. W. J. Phipps. Friends acting as casket bearers were Albert Clerc, John J. Murphy, Wayne Fossum, Bustel Foy, Milton Hollister and Clarence Elletson. Interment was in the Soldiers' Home cemetery.

Obituary

Joel F. Stott was born February 26, 1876 at Mayville, Wis., and passed away Monday, Jan. 20, at the Montana Soldiers' Home at Columbia Falls.

He was a pioneer of Flathead valley, and a member of the early volunteer firemen department of Kalispell. His boyhood days were spent on a farm near Brookings, South Dakota, and in 1895 the family emigrated to the Flathead valley by wagon, the trip requiring 90 days. The first winter was spent in the early day settlement of Demersville, the family later moving to Kalispell.

In 1906 he was united in marriage to Miss May Harsh of Kalispell and to this union were born two daughters. He enlisted in Co. F, Montana National Guards and was with that company in 1916 on the Mexican border, stationed at Douglas Arizona. Returning he took up the painter's trade and worked in Kalispell and Spokane.

Four years ago he was admitted to the Montana Soldiers' Home where he spent most of the winter months, residing with his twin sister, Mrs. Lester Foy in Kalispell, during the summer.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Josie Murray and Mrs. Thelma Bean, and nine grandchildren who reside in Pease River Valley, Alberta, Canada; three sisters, Mrs. Susan Yanke of Kalispell, Mrs. Katherine St. Clair of Spokane, and Mrs. Lester Foy of Kalispell.

GEORGE M. STOW

The body of George M. Stow was sent to Chinook, Montana, by Waggener and Campbell Wednesday evening. Mrs. Stow and other relatives arrived in Kalispell yesterday. Services will take place in Chinook and burial will be there also.

Obituary

George M. Stow was born July 2, 1901, at Stearns, Montana. He grew up in Montana and engaged in farming and trucking. He was married to Miss Dorothy Miller, daughter of Henry Miller, who survives him. He passed away December 16, 1941, near Essex when his trailer upset with a load of lumber crushing him in the cab of the truck.

MRS. MARY E. STOWELL

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary E. Stowell were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. C. S. Kleckner of the Central Christian church. The Pythian Sisters attended in a body and put on the ritual of the Pythian Sisters' lodge. The chapel was filled with friends and there were many flowers banked about the casket. During the services Don Shepard sang two numbers, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. The pall bearers were E. B. Wilson, E. W. Kind, Edward Furlong, Selmer Olson, Arthur Swanberg and Asod Winkler. Burial was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Mary Ellen Stowell was born at Granite, Idaho, Sept. 7, 1903, and died at her home in Kalispell Feb. 10, 1941, following a brief illness.

She received her high school and college education in Cedar Falls, Iowa, where she graduated from the Iowa State Teachers' college. She taught school in Montana for about seven years.

She was married to Ceyton Stowell at Kalispell Sept. 19, 1934, and had made her home here since that time. She was a member of the Pythian Sisters lodge in Kalispell and also of Happy Thought Rebekah lodge in Cedar Falls, Iowa.

Besides her husband, she is survived by her mother and two brothers.

CLARK L. STREETER

Funeral services for Clark Streeter were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by C. H. Brewer of the Masonic lodge and Rev. C. S. Kleckner of Central Christian church. During the service Clyde Carr sang two solo selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were A. E. Boerner, Eby Bowman, Joe Walters, Chris Evensen, H. J. Weir-miller and R. A. Shaw. Members of the Masonic lodge attended the service in a body. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Clark Lincoln Streeter was born January 4, 1867, in Iowa county, Wisconsin. He grew up and received his education there. On June 26, 1886, he was married to Miss Emma Dixon and they continued to make their home there for many years. Mr. Streeter followed his trade as a carpenter.

They moved to Faulkton, South Dakota, in 1903. In 1904 Mr. Streeter became a member of the Masonic lodge and transferred to Choteau, Montana, 14 years later.

The family moved from Faulkton to Choteau in 1913 and in 1924 came to the Flathead to live on the east shore of Flathead lake, south of Bigfork. Mr. Streeter passed away there at his home Thursday, December 4, at the age of 74 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Streeter at home; his four children: Walter N. Streeter of Neihart, Mont.; Bertha Streeter of Bigfork, Willard E. Streeter of Helena, and Mrs. Harriet Roberts of Bigfork, and two brothers, Clinton of Huron, South Dakota, and Charles of Bes-cobel, Wisconsin.

WILLIAM F. STUFFT

Funeral services for William F. Stufft were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel. M. S. Spink and Rev. C. S. Klecker conducted the services for the Oddfellows lodge. Members of the Oddfellows lodge attended in a body and those acting as pall bearers were J. D. Hyde, J. E. Rockwood, Fred Hinman, Frank Harsites, W. E. Willoy and G. E. Thomas. Mrs. Mary Spink sang two solo selections during the chapel service. Interment was in the family lot in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

William Frederick Stufft was born October 16, 1853, in Bedford county, Pennsylvania. He lived there until he was 21 years of age when he moved to Nebraska, where he engaged in farming and homesteaded. He was married in 1897 to Miss Maria Marie Fiekes. They came to the Flathead in 1897 in a covered wagon and made their home just west of Kalispell. Mrs. Stufft passed away in May 1935 and four years ago Mr. Stufft moved to Cut Bank to be with his son. He passed away there Dec. 15, 1941, at the age of 88 years.

Mr. Stufft was a member of the Presbyterian church and also of the I.O.O.F. lodge.

He is survived by his son, D. Frank Stufft of Cut Bank, and two daughters, Mrs. Baldwin of Kalispell and Mrs. Lydia Kent of Whitefish and four grandchildren.

JESSIE H. SWANBERG

Funeral services for Jessie H. Swanberg were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by the Rev. Thomas B. W. Allen of the Presbyterian church. Members of Pythian Sisters lodge attended in a body and conducted ritualistic services. Clide Carr sang two solo selections during the service, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. The chapel was filled by the many friends and beautiful floral tributes were banked high across the entire front of the chapel. Friends acting as pall bearers were Erwin King, Gene Foot, Selmer Olsen, Duncan McCarthy, Belmont Dunham and Si Westfall. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Jessie Helene Sharp was born in Marshall, Michigan, Dec. 17, 1905. In 1910 she came with her parents to Kalispell and here she attended the grade and high schools, graduating from Flathead county high school in 1924. She took a position as stenographer with a local law firm and continued there for 11 years.

She was married to Arthur Swanberg Sept. 5, 1933, and made her home on First avenue east north in Kalispell. She passed away Oct. 4, 1941, at the home of her parents at the age of 35 years.

She was an active member of the Pythian Sisters lodge and of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Swanberg is survived by her husband, Arthur Swanberg at home, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sharp, and other relatives and friends.

M. A. SWENSON

Funeral services for M. A. Swenson were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Owen-Elliott Chapel. Rev. Amon Johnson of the Bethlehem Lutheran church officiated and during the services Don Shepard sang two hymns, accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Six of Mr. Swenson's sons served as casket bearers. Committal services were held in the Owen-Elliott cemetery chapel in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Martin A. Swenson was born in Norway on August 10, 1861. In 1868 he came to the United States with his parents and the family settled in Wisconsin. As a young man Mr. Swenson was united in marriage to Julia Knuteson and to this union 11 children were born. The family moved to Montana in 1913 and Mr. and Mrs. Swenson came to the Flathead about five years ago.

Besides his wife, Julia, Mr. Swenson is survived by ten children; Marvin of Vaughn, Montana; Clifford of Watsonville, Calif.; Mrs. Ben Lundberg of Helena; Harvey of Bigfork; Mrs. J. M. Norberg of Chinook; Raymond of Missoula; Amund and Mrs. Wm. Huggins of Kalispell; and Kaler and Mrs. Art Jones of Turner, Montana. Also surviving are 26 grandchildren.