

MRS. ARVILLA CALKINS

Funeral services for Mrs. Arvilla Calkins were held Friday afternoon at 3:30 at the Waggoner & Campbell chapel by Elder M. D. Lewis and Elder Collins of the Adventist church. During the service three hymns were sung by Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hoyt. Following the chapel service interment was in the Woodlawn cemetery at Columbia Falls.

Obituary

Arvilla Hunt-Calkins was born September 20, 1864, in New York state. She moved to Michigan as a small child with her parents and grew up near Battle Creek. She came to the Flathead in 1922 and had lived at Coram, Bigfork and Kalspell. About six months ago she went to Woodworth, Montana to be with her son and she passed away at Missoula, December 7, 1942. She was 78 years of age.

Mrs. Calkins was a member of the Adventist church for many years.

She is survived by her three children, Mrs. Gladys Brown of Grand Rapids, Mich., Mrs. Mary Pomfret of Pontiac, Michigan, and Paul Griffith of Woodworth, Mont., and three grand children, also two brothers and three sisters.

MRS. SARAH CALKINS

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Calkins were held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the graveside in Woodlawn cemetery in Columbia Falls. Rev. F. B. Hillis conducted the service. Interment was made under the direction of the Waggoner & Campbell funeral home.

OBITUARY

Sarah Campbell was born 33 years ago at Huntington, Indiana. She spent most of her life in the east and came to Coram four years ago. Here she was married to Fred S. Calkins of Coram. She passed away at her home August 4, 1942.

Besides her husband she is survived by several grown children in the east by a former marriage.

CARLSON-LAMBERT

An impressive double funeral service for L. G. Carlson and Anton L. Lambert was held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Waggoner and Campbell chapel by Elder Sidney B. Wingsy of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Beautiful floral tributes were banked high behind the two caskets. Friends filled the chapel and adjoining rooms nearly to capacity. During the service James Bradley and Curtis Dunham sang one number and with Mrs. M. Low and Mrs. Vivian Bradley, sang two quartet numbers. Mrs. J. M. Carlson accompanied at the organ.

Friends acting as pall-bearers for the Carlson casket were William Gafno, Ernest Sharpe, John E. Stollfuss, David W. Benson, Charles and William Martin, and those for the Lambert casket were Donald Dyne, Van Surby, Harry Perry, Douglas Birk, Philip Mueller and Floyd Henriksen. The caskets were placed side by side in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary—L. G. Carlson

L. G. (Mike) Carlson was born January 31, 1925, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson at Butte, Montana, and passed away at McGregor Lake July 8, 1942, at the age of 17 years. At the age of eight months he came to Kalispell with his parents and later moved with them to the ranch three miles west of Marion. He was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and had attended the McGregor and Kalispell schools.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson, of Marion, two brothers, Carl and Kenneth of Marion, six sisters, Mrs. John Conr of Kila, Mrs. Al Haage of Jacobson, Minn., Mrs. Wayne Clark, Mrs. Vernon Brown, Anna May, and Alleen, all of Marion, besides nephews, nieces and many friends.

MRS. CAROLINE A. CAVERLY

Funeral services for Mrs. Caroline A. Caverly were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Owen-Elliott chapel with Rev. Amon Johnson of the Bethlehem Lutheran church officiating. During the service Mrs. Velma Lenoir sang two beautiful solos accompanied by Burnett Elliot. Friends acting as casket bearers were George Willis, Henry McLouth, Charles S. DeVoe, John R. Johnson, Pete Torbergson and August Patterson. Committal services were held in the Owen-Elliott Cemetery chapel in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Caroline Amelia Anderson was born August 12, 1865, near Oslo Norway. At 18 years of age she moved with her brothers and sisters to Fairfield, North Dakota.

As a young woman she married Mr. Sather and to them two children were born, Sadie and Sam. Several years following Mr. Sather's death she was married to Luther Caverly. To this union four children were born, Louis H., Mabel, Frank R., and James E. The youngest son, James, passed away in February 1923, and Mr. Caverly passed away in June, 1941.

Of the surviving children, her three sons are residents of Somers and her daughters are Mrs. Sadie St. John of Molland, Michigan, and Mrs. Mabel Fraser of Whitefish. She also leaves 18 grandchildren and many friends to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Caverly passed away in Somers February 8 at the age of 76. She had been a resident of Somers since 1901.

Joseph Cheatham, Former U. S. Naval Officer, Dies Here

Joseph Johnston Cheatham, of Washington, D. C., rear admiral of the U. S. Navy retired, after 43 years of service, died at a local hospital in Kalispell at midnight last night. He had been living at his summer home on Lake McDonald, Glacier National park, for the past five weeks. At one time he was paymaster general of the U. S. Navy. He was 70 years of age.

The body will be shipped to Washington, D. C., by the Waggener and Campbell funeral home, and funeral services are indefinite, but the body will be interred in the Arlington National cemetery at Washington.

The surviving relatives are his wife, Irene, who was with him at the time of his death; two daughters, Mrs. F. J. McKenna, wife of the commander of the U. S. Air Forces in Alaska, and Mrs. W. M. Anderson of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; four grandchildren; one brother, Major General B. F. Cheatham, retired, residing at Stratford, Va., and one sister, Mrs. Telfair Hodgson, of Swann, Tennessee.

CHRISTOPHER R. CHURCH

Funeral services for Christopher R. Church were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. T. B. W. Allen of the Presbyterian church. During the services Bill Carr sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall-bearers were Calvin Loudon, William Hodgson, M. Damon, Ian Hancock, Howard Thompson, and Roy Ellis. Interment was in the Demersville cemetery.

Obituary

Christopher R. Church was born March 5, 1857, at Canton, Maine. He came to the Flathead in 1884 and farmed here in the valley until his retirement. He passed away October 5, 1942, at the age of 85 years. He leaves no relatives.

MRS. MARY M. CLAGUE

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary M. Clague were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Owen-Elliott chapel. Rev. C. S. Kleckner of the Christian church officiated. During the services two solos were sung by Burnett Elliott accompanied by Miss Louise Hunger. Friends serving as casket bearers were Andrew Hunsahl, P. C. Glouvening, John Evans, Charles Kelly, Forrest Rockwood, and Tom Perry.]

Committal services were held in the Owen-Elliott cemetery chapel in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Mary Margaret Wilson was born on November 23, 1876, in Deer Lodge, Montana. Following her graduation from college, Miss Wilson taught music in Deer Lodge. In 1900, she was united in marriage to John F. Clague and in 1910 the young couple came to Kalispell where Mr. Clague had formed a partnership with W. M. Beauchamp. Mrs. Clague had been a resident of Kalispell until approximately a year ago at which time she moved to Butte to live with her son Wayne. Mrs. Clague passed away in Butte on July 30, 1942, following a long illness. Besides her son, Wayne of Butte, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. O'Traylor-Mercer of Honolulu; a son, Donald, of Honolulu; a brother, Frank Wilson, of Butte, and two grandchildren.

MRS. MARY CLARK

Requiem high mass for Mary Clark was celebrated Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Matthew's church, with the Rev. Father Foley as celebrant. G. M. Duffy, T. H. Hoover, M. J. Tucker, Leon Phillips, H. Beckers and Eugene McCabe acted as pall-bearers. Interment followed in the C. E. Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of the Waggener and Campbell funeral home.

Obituary

Mary McGaffery was born in Inashillen, County Fermanna, Ireland, May 8, 1876. She came to the United States at the age of 16 years. On February 22, 1903, she was married to Jack Clark of Bigfork, Montana, and had resided in that vicinity ever since, except for four years when they lived in New York State.

Two children were born of this union—Mrs. John Sullivan, and Leo Clark, both of Bigfork.

She passed away Saturday, Sept. 17, 1942, at the Kalispell General hospital, after an extended illness.

CLARENCE L. CLEVELAND

Funeral services for Clarence L. Cleveland were held Saturday afternoon at 3:30 at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Bert Powell of the Methodist church. During the services G. A. Blachley sang two solo selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. The front of the chapel was banked high with beautiful floral tributes and the chapel and adjoining rooms were filled by many friends. Members of the American Legion attended in a body and posted a color guard during the services. Friends acting as pall bearers were Herb Poston, Reuben Iverson, Ed Felsman, Louis Koenig, Henry Auclair and Robert Zachary. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery where the firing of the military salute and the sounding of taps marked the Legion's final tribute.

Obituary

Clarence L. Cleveland was born January 2, 1897, at Sauk Center, Minn. He attended school there and came to the Flathead in 1913. He enlisted from here for service in the World war, serving from September 6, 1918, until September 28, 1919. He was with the expeditionary forces in France. He returned to Kalispell after the war and engaged in mill work. At the time of his death he, with his partner, was operating a tie mill west of Somers. He met death accidentally at the mill March 18, 1942, at the age of 45 years.

He is survived by his widow, Ennis Wilda Cleveland, at home in Kalispell, and three children, Joyce, Helen and Clyde. Also there are two sisters living in Calgary, Canada and two half-sisters and his step-mother living in Minneapolis, Minn.

ALETHIA A. CLOTHIER

Funeral services for Alethia A. Clothier were held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Elder R. E. Finney of the Adventist church. During the service Mrs. Annie McKinley sang two hymn selections accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Fred Cross. Friends acting as pall bearers were L. R. Norwell, Dr. F. X. Adelbert, Frank Marcoe, Frank Moore, G. N. Hartman and Homer Mechem. Interment was in the Bethel cemetery.

Obituary

Alethia Angeline Garret was born February 25, 1864, in Schuyler county, Ill. She grew to womanhood in Illinois and was married at Augusta, March 16, 1881 to William A. Clothier, where they lived for three years. They moved by covered wagon to Missouri and on to Kansas and Nebraska. After two years in Nebraska they moved to Wyoming and in 1895 arrived in the Flathead. They homesteaded on the west shore of Flathead lake south of Somers on the place known as Walnut Grove. With the exception of a short time they continued to make their home there since. Mr. Clothier passed away May 20, 1941.

Mrs. Clothier passed away at Lakeside March 13, 1942, at the age of 78 years.

She is survived by her five children: Asa B. Clothier of Somers, Mrs. Neil Melton of Canas, Glenn Clothier of Kalispell, Archie Clothier and Harold Clothier of Swan Lake. There are also 14 grandchildren and two great grandchildren surviving.

Information has been received that Wm. R. Coacher, a former resident of Kalispell, passed away at Santa Barbara, Calif., Nov. 15.

Mr. Coacher was born in Iowa June 10, 1867, and at the age of 15 the family moved to Yankton, S. D., where Mr. Coacher grew to young manhood. On Nov. 8, 1892 he was united in marriage to Katie M. Stephens, a daughter of one of Yankton's pioneer families. He was in business in Yankton until 1908 when he and his family moved to Aberdeen, where he was president of the Aberdeen Transfer Co. for a number of years, after which he was appointed chief of police serving during the early part of the first World war. Afterward he was superintendent of highways of Brown county for 12 years. He then moved to Montana where he was associated with the Pickus Construction company, first at Great Falls and then at Kalispell until 1938. His sight then became so impaired that he was forced to retire from active service. He and his family went to San Francisco where he had an unsuccessful operation on his eyes, after which the family went to Santa Barbara, where they have since made their home. His health had been good until the last month, when he failed rapidly, and passed away in his sleep Nov. 15.

He is survived by his wife, Katie M. and daughter Mrs. Sylvia F. Marvin of San Diego, a son, Robt. E. Coacher of Anchorage, Alaska, and two brothers, J. A. Coacher of Yankton, and A. B. Coacher of Charles City, Iowa.

Mr. Coacher was a member of the First M. E. Church of Aberdeen, S. D., the Masonic bodies of Yankton, and the Shrine at Aberdeen.

Masonic services were held Nov. 18 in Santa Barbara.

JAMES T. COOK

Funeral services for James T. Cook were held Saturday afternoon at the Owen-Elliot chapel with Rev. R. C. Treloar of the Bigfork Methodist church officiating. During the services two selections were sung by Burnett Elliot with Mrs. Richard Vick accompanying. Friends serving as casket-bearers were George A. Wells, Ralph Ripke, Charles Morton, Charles Collins, Jack Clark and Earl Buck. Committal services were held in the Owen-Elliot cemetery chapel in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

James Thomas Cook was born on January 22, 1878, in the State of Missouri. At an early age he came to the Flathead to make his home and has remained here until three years ago when he moved to Burkland, Montana. Mr. Cook is survived by a sister, Mrs. Herb Beckers of Bigfork and one brother, John Cook, of Kalispell.

ORREN R. COVERDELL

Funeral services for Orren R. Coverdell were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Owen-Elliot chapel, S. I. Rapson, former first reader in the Christian Science church officiating. During the services Mrs. J. A. Gudgel sang two appropriate solos, accompanied by Mrs. Ross Young. Friends serving as casket bearers were K. B. Johnson, Jens Jensen, Roy Ripke, Willis Jelleff, and Herman Mize. Committal services were held in the Owen-Elliot cemetery chapel in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Orren Riley Coverdell was born in Terre Haute, Indiana, on September 25, 1841, and passed away in Kalispell on May 20, 1942, at the age of 100 years. While still very young he moved with his parents, first to Warren county, Iowa, and then to Worth county, Missouri, where he grew to manhood. He was united in marriage to Alice Wooten of Allendale, Missouri, and to this union were born five sons and one daughter. In 1901 Mr. and Mrs. Coverdell with their family moved to the Flathead where Mrs. Coverdell passed away in 1919 and one son, William, in 1930. Surviving are four sons: Lorren C. of Eugene, Ore.; Irvin S. of Toledo, Wash.; Leo O. of Bigfork, Mont.; Ottman R. of Polson, Mont., and his daughter, Mrs. Maude Johnson of Polson, Mont. There are also 25 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren.

Mr. Coverdell was a devoted member of the Christian Science church.

FRANK O. CRAIG

Funeral services for Frank O. Craig of Bigfork, were held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. Mrs. R. C. Trufear of the Methodist church. During the service Don Shepard sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were Nels K. Peterson, A. B. Horstman, Frank Reavley, Fred May, J. H. Horn and E. M. Wright. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Frank Oliver Craig was born August 30, 1871 at Iowa City, Iowa, and passed away September 26, 1942 at his home in Bigfork, Mont., at the age of 71 years. Mr. Craig was married to Miss Olive Allen nearly 45 years ago and they came to Bigfork from Great Falls, Montana about three years ago.

Mr. Craig became a member of the Christian church early in life and was a member of the Christian Endeavor society.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Olive Craig at home, one daughter, Mrs. Lavera Berg of Bigfork, two sons, Ralph E. and Clifford of Great Falls, one sister, Mrs. Maude Stone of Des Moines, Iowa, nine grandchildren and other relatives.

MRS. ROSE CROSLLEY

Funeral services for Rose S. Crosley were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. A. Jordan of Trinity Lutheran church. During the services Mrs. Werner Franz sang two solo selections accompanied at the piano by Mr. Jordan. Friends acting as pall-bearers were E. P. Dickinson, Neal Clapper, Ray McNeil, Alfred Holden, Leo W. Lindwehr and J. E. Sundahl. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Rose Sauerbier was born March 5, 1886 in Sanilac county, Michigan. In 1900 she came to the Flathead with her parents. She was married in 1917 in Chinook, Montana, to Alton Crossley. She made her home continuously in the Flathead for the past 42 years with the exception of a few months. Mrs. Crossley passed away September 9, 1942, at the age of 56 years.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Sauerbier of Kalispell, and five brothers and sisters, Sam and Jack of Kalispell, Mrs. Sara Grant of Minneapolis, Mrs. Anna Beaver of Kalispell and Mrs. Edith Gedy of Seattle, Washington.

PHEBE CROSSLEY

Funeral services for Phebe Crossley were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by the Rev. Frank Hillis with interment in the Conrad Memorial cemetery. During the services Don Shepard sang two solos and was accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Carlson at the organ. Friends acting as bearers were Earl Fuller, Arthur Papendick, Francis Ripke, H. E. Hegranes, N. E. Johnson and James Bain.

Obituary

Phebe E. Lyman Crossley was born March 21, 1862, in Warsaw, New York. She spent the early years of her childhood there, moving to Iowa where she lived until 1905, when she came to Montana. In 1908 she was married to Clyde J. Crossley, who preceded her in death six years ago. Mrs. Crossley died following an accident May 13, 1942, at the age of 80 years. She was the last member of her family and leaves to mourn her passing many distant relatives and friends.

CHARLES E. CULBERT

Funeral services for Charles E. Culbert were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. T. B. W. Allen of the Presbyterian church. During the services Mrs. J. M. Carlson played appropriate organ music. Friends acting as pall bearers were A. S. Saunders, Walter F. Vogt, Frank Roavley, A. L. Berg, Fred May and P. Lawson. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Charles Edward Culbert was born April 28, 1879, at Dubuque, Iowa, and at the age of five years moved with his parents to Kansas. In 1909 he was married to Miss Katherine Hayes and to them five children were born.

In the year 1913 Mr. Culbert moved west to make his home at Chinook, Montana, and in 1932, he came to Bigfork where he had lived until his passing with the exception of three years.

He passed away in Bigfork at his home December 21, 1942, at the age of 63 years.

He is survived by his five children, Francis Culbert of Bigfork, Mrs. Evelyn Schoonmaker of Troy, Mont., Mrs. Lorena Roeder of Kasson, Minn., Charles and Edward of Ausla, Minn.; also four sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Lela Reed of Springfield, Mo., Mrs. Ida Nelson of Emporia, Kan., Mrs. Naomi Digle, of Turon, Kan., Mrs. Maggie Har-ber of Toronto, Kan., David Culbert of Dodge City, Kan., James E. Culbert of Odessa, Texas, and William Culbert of Bigfork, Montana.

DR. ARCHIBALD CURRIE

Funeral services for Dr. Archibald N. Currie were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. T. B. W. Allen of the Presbyterian church, assisted by the members of the American Legion of Kallispell and Bigfork who conducted services at the graveside in the Conrad Memorial cemetery. During the chapel services Mrs. J. M. Carlson played appropriate music on the organ. Friends acting as pall bearers were George E. Burlingham, C. H. Roberts, A. E. Winkler, W. W. Culbert, S. H. Orvis and Albert Hopon.

Obituary

Doctor Archibald Nelson Currie of Woods Bay, Bigfork, died at Kallispell Thursday morning, October 29, 1942. He was born in St. Charles, Minnesota, but was taken at six months of age by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Currie, to Currie, Minn., where his boyhood was spent.

He attended Carlton College of Northfield, Minn., and was graduated from Rush Medical College of Chicago. He began his practice of medicine at Hatton, N. D., where he met and wed Miss Gina Fladson, who survives him. He practiced medicine and surgery for 47 years, always enjoying a good practice. His last location was at Fort Peck Dam where the claims upon his time and energy were most exacting. About three years ago he determined to retire from active practice and built a home on the east shore of Flathead lake.

During World War I he was commissioned a captain in the Medical Corps, Base Hospital, attached to Fort Riley, Kans., and Fort Wheeler, Ga., receiving his honorable discharge December 23, 1918. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, the Masonic fraternity and the American Legion.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife Gina, his aged mother, Mrs. Neil Currie of Marshall, Minn., one brother, Neil Currie, Jr., an officer of the General Electric company, of Schenectady, N. Y., and three sisters, Mrs. George E. Davies of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mrs. G. H. Goodwin of Marshall, Minn., and Mrs. Everett Conrad of Bismarck, N. D.

MRS. ADDIE M. CURTIS

Funeral services for Mrs. Addie M. Curtis were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggenner and Campbell chapel by Rev. Charles Durston of Polson. During the services Clide Carr sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall-bearers were Bruce Curtis, Edward Baldwin, Charles Sommers, Max Naethe, J. N. Dawson and James Price. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Addie Mae Dishrow-Curtis was born December 12, 1871, at Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. She received her schooling and grew to womanhood in Nebraska. On Sept. 1, 1897 she was married to R. A. Sheaffer at Boulder, Colorado, who died four years later, leaving her with one child. On Nov. 17, 1901, she was married to William A. Curtis and they came to the Flathead to make their home. They lived here and at Lakeside. Mr. Curtis passed away here in 1934. Mrs. Curtis had been in failing health for some time and passed away at her home Nov. 26, 1942, at the age of 70.

She is survived by her four daughters, Mrs. Axel Swenson of Cut Bank, Mrs. Erich Naethe of Seattle, Mrs. Frank Sommers of Somers, and Mrs. Melvin Baldwin of Mullen, Idaho; 16 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. There are also two brothers, George Dishrow of Redwood City, Calif., and Charles Dishrow of Missoula, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Wade of Dillon, and Mrs. Arthur Johnson of Seattle, and other relatives.