Obituary

Thomas E. Lincoln, eldest son of Lewis D. and Sophia K. Lincoln, was born near Valentine, Nebraska Feb. 8, 1884, and grew to manhood in dove county, Kansas, where he engaged in ranching. In 1905 he was married to Florence Ball of Brooks, Iowa, and brought his bride to his Kansas ranch, where the family resided until coming to Montana in 1915. To this couple were born four sons: Harry LeRoy of Spokane, Thomas Merlon of St. Paul, and Raymond D. and Robert E. of Kalispell. The wife and sons survive him as married to Florence Ball of Brooks. Paul Leistner, Dick Knowles, F. M. Parr, W. R. Martin, Sam Gotz, Wilson Managhan, James Nurus, C. A. Ufford, John Beckelberry, S. A. Burkhardt, A. E. Aarstad, A. B. Dills, Philip Buck, Dick Strubie, Leon Lenon, and W. T. Lavin. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

"Tom" Lincoln was well known in Montana where he had a host of friends who regarded him highly because of his kindly personality and the genuine honesty of "Old Abe." Tom was never too busy to lend a hand to a neighbor, not too poor to assist a fellow traveler in financial distress.

As an auctioneer for many years Mr. Lincoln gained a wide popularity in western Montana. He was sent to the State Legislature in 1924. In 1928 he was elected County Assessor of Flathead county, and it was while driving to his office in the courthouse Saturday morning that he suffered what appeared to be a stroke from which he died Sunday evening in Kalispell General hospital.
