

MRS. ANNA SAGER

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna M. Sager were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. T. H. W. Allen of the Presbyterian church. The front of the chapel was banked high with many floral tributes. During the services Glide Carr sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall-bearers were Lynn Hoeyer, Ed Elman, G. Parsons, O. C. Uide, John Griffin and Joe Zeleny. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Anna Maria Selby was born March 8, 1854, at Kalamazoo, Mich. She grew to young womanhood there and was married to Israel Sager. A few years later they moved near Sioux City, Iowa, and farmed for a time. They then moved to Nebraska on a ranch close to Indian Territory where they lived for many years. The family came to the Flathead in 1905 and made their home near Rollins on Flathead Lake. Mr. Sager passed away over 22 years ago. Mrs. Sager passed away at Polson June 26, 1942, at the age of 88 years.

Ten children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Sager and six now survive. They are Claud of Rollins, Marion and Millard of Kalispell, Harry of Nebraska, Don of South Dakota and Elgie of Rollins. There are also 24 grandchildren and several great grandchildren surviving.

MRS. ANNA SCHREIBER

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Schreiber were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Matthew's church by Rev. Father O'Farrell. Friends acting as pall bearers were Hans Boen, Hans Sorenson, D. N. Highland, C. H. Gardner, Gottlieb Bilger and Oscar Simonson. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of the Waggener and Campbell Funeral home.

Obituary

Anna Schuler was born June 21, 1863, at Tyrol, Switzerland. She received her girlhood education there and then came to America. She lived near Ness City, Kansas, where she was married in 1909 to Joseph Schreiber. They then moved to Canada where they made their home for 11 years and in 1920 moved to Kalispell. Mr. Schreiber passed away here in 1938.

Mrs. Schreiber made her home at 303 Eighth avenue west where she passed away May 22, 1942, at the age of 78 years. She is survived by her step-daughter, Mrs. Joseph Lutters of Ransom, Kansas, who was here for the funeral; two stepsons, Joseph and William Schreiber, living in Canada, and other relatives.

MRS. ALICE T. SHELDON

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice T. Sheldon were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. C. S. Kleckner of Central Christian church. During the services Don Shepard sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. The front of the chapel was banked high with beautiful floral tributes. Friends acting as pallbearers were Lawrence Gorton, John Zadra, Ray Logan, George Miller, Lloyd Beaman and Arthur Small. Interment was in the Fairview cemetery.

Obituary

Alice T. Eckelberry was born at Pine Grove, West Virginia, on February 16, 1896. When she was 18 years of age the family moved to Montrose, Minnesota. In 1888 she came to Flathead valley, where she has since lived.

She was married to Chester L. Sheldon on December 24, 1895. Ten children were born to them, seven of whom survive her, Ethel Baker of Cunningham, Washington, Mollie Meacham, Dorothy Dyer, Jack, Alice and Clarence of Kalispell, and Albert in the U. S. armed forces. There are six grandchildren. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Barton Adams of Chicago, and Mrs. Harry Adams of Kalispell and four brothers: John and Meado Eckelberry of Columbia Falls, Lee of Whitefish and Will of Los Angeles, California, and many other relatives.

Mr. Sheldon passed away March 20, 1920.

For more than 40 years she has lived on the Sheldon farm in the Creston district. Her life was one of devotion to her children and her friends.

WILLIAM R. SIBLEY

Funeral services for William R. Sibley were held Friday afternoon at the Waggener & Campbell chapel with Rev. L. M. Darnett officiating. Burial followed in the Conrad Memorial cemetery. Al Wright, Cal Tidrick, Guss Aubert, R. Houston, Chas. Harrington and W. S. Gibb acted as pallbearers.

Obituary

William Reuben Sibley was born in 1859 in Calhoun county, Michigan. He was married at the age of 22 to Dora Miller in Marshall, Michigan. Two children, Martin and Bernice, were born to this union. His earlier life was spent in Michigan. In 1912 he came to Montana and located near the foot of Lake McDonald, where he has resided since. His wife passed away in 1925, after which he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. D. L. Greenwall, of Apgar.

"Grandad" Sibley had many friends, both local people and tourists, who will miss him greatly.

He is survived by his son, Martin Sibley, and daughter, Mrs. Bernice Greenwall, both of Apgar; six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

WILLIAM A. SIZER

Funeral services for William A. Sizer were held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the Waggoner & Campbell chapel by Rev. C. S. Kieckner of Central Christian church. During the services Don Shepard sang two solo selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were: John F. Bell, O. A. Larson, Alvin Walroth and Con Murphy. Interment was in the Demersville cemetery.

Obituary

William Albert Sizer was born November 11, 1850, in Oneida county, New York. At the age of 18 years he moved with his parents to Iowa. He was married at Jackson, Minn., November 8, 1889, to Miss Mary Christensen. They made their home in Iowa for the next several years where Mr. Sizer followed his trade as a paper-hanger. In 1894 they came to the Flathead and have lived here for the past 48 years. Mr. Sizer passed away at his home near Poy's lake June 30, 1942, at the age of 91 years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Sizer, and one son, Harry Sizer, both of Kalispell.

MRS. CLARA R. SMITH

Funeral services for Mrs. Clara R. Smith were held Saturday afternoon at 3:30 at the Waggoner and Campbell chapel by Rev. T. B. W. Allen of the Presbyterian church. During the service Clide Carr sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. There were many beautiful floral tributes banked about the casket and many friends attended the service. Members of the Navy Mothers and the Royal Neighbors attended in a body and conducted committal services in the Conrad Memorial cemetery. Friends acting as pall bearers were John Morrow, Louis E. Fry, Claude Walter, James F. Aker, W. R. Chenaunt and J. B. Cochran.

Obituary

Clara Ruth Whitehouse was born April 14, 1897, at Kingsland, Indiana. The family moved to Dayton, Montana, in 1910 and there in 1918 she was married to Lee Smith. They moved to Kalispell a short time later and made their home here until last August when they moved to Whitefish. She passed away there October 7, 1942, at the age of 45 years.

She was a member of the Royal Neighbors of America and a vice commander of the Kalispell Navy Mothers' club.

She is survived by her husband, Lee Smith, at home, a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Basey of Tacoma, three sons, Kenneth of Tacoma, Norman of the U. S. Navy, at San Diego, and Wayne, at home; also one sister, Mrs. Olive Gilliland of Treenary, Michigan, and a brother, Carl J.

Whitehouse of Kalispell and two grandchildren, Jackie and Nancy Lee Basey, and other relatives and friends.

REDDINGTON L. SNYDER

Funeral services for Reddington L. Snyder were held Saturday afternoon at the Owen-Elliott chapel with Rev. L. M. Darnell of the First Baptist church officiating. At the opening and close of the services the selection "Finlandia" was played as had been requested by Mr. Snyder. During the services Miss Ann Pederson sang "The Lord's Prayer" and Burnett Elliot sang "Abide With Me," with Mrs. J. M. Carlson at the piano. Friends serving as casket-bearers were John E. Grubb, A. J. Paecheil, Oscar Probst, Homer C. Lowman, Jack Passey and N. C. Peckham. Committal services were held in the Owen-Elliott cemetery chapel in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Reddington Lavelle Snyder was born in Kingston, Ontario, Canada, June 16, 1868. He came to the United States when about 21 years of age, became a naturalized citizen and taught school in Minnesota for some years. Later he went west to California, where he was a rancher. He married Annie May Wood nee Salt Lake City, Utah. They lived there several years while Mr. Snyder was engaged in the insurance business. They came to Great Falls, Montana, in 1918; resided there 12 years and have since been living in the Flathead, where Mr. Snyder was a barber. Mr. Snyder was a member of the Baptist church. He died at his home in Kalispell, March 3, at the age of 73. He is survived by his widow and his daughter, Dorothy. He had cousins and distant relatives living in Ontario.

JACK STANCILL

Funeral services for Jack Stancill were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at Christ Episcopal church by Bishop Daniels of Helena. The church choir sang appropriate hymn selections during the service, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. W. L. Dickinson. Friends acting as pallbearers were George Robbin, C. A. Robertson, James Lavin, Dick Donaldson, Scotly MacMillan and Alton Pearce. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell Funeral home.

Obituary

Jack Walter Stancill was born at Casper, Wyoming, October 6, 1918. At the age of 14 he moved with his mother to Douglas, Wyoming, where he spent his boyhood days, graduating from the Douglas high school with high honors in the class of 1935-36. He was active in athletics, a letter man of Douglas high, and manager of the basketball team in his senior year.

He came to Kalispell in 1939 and was very much interested in sport activities of the Flathead high school, refereeing several basketball games. He was also president of the Kalispell Tennis club for two years.

He passed away at the Kalispell General hospital October 19, at the age of 24. He had made many friends in Kalispell who will miss him.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Henry Jenson of Kalispell and a brother, Paul Stancill, who is located at Fort Stockton, Texas, as an army flying cadet instructor, who arrived in Kalispell Saturday morning to attend the funeral.

CHARLES R. STEARNS

Funeral services for Charles R. Stearns were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Mrs. R. C. Treloar. The front of the chapel was banked high with beautiful floral tributes and the chapel was filled by the many friends. During the service Don Shepard sang two solo selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were A. B. Horstman, O. C. Mahugh, A. H. Nichols, William Plummer, E. J. Fagerland and A. L. Berg. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Charles Ray Stearns was born in Waseca county, Minnesota, February 1, 1882, and passed away at his home in Bigfork, Montana, June 13, 1942, at the age of 60 years. His early boyhood was spent near New Richland, Minnesota. He was married in 1905 to Miss Daisy Fairly. They farmed for many years on the old family farm of his ancestors. In 1920 they retired from farming and came to Bigfork, Montana, to make their home.

Mr. Stearns is survived by his widow, Mrs. Daisy Stearns, at home, two daughters, Mrs. Fern G. Calnick of Creston and Mrs. Ione A. Bellemore of Spokane and two brothers, Edward Stearns of Rhineland, Wisconsin, and Floyd Stearns of Albert Lea, Minnesota.

ELGIE STEVENS

Funeral services for Elgie G. Stevens were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Mrs. S. L. Rapson, who read the service of the Christian Science church. During the services Bill Carr sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall-bearers were Ted Waggener, Don Clothier, Douglas Harmon and Ralph Ashbridge. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Elgie Gene Stevens was born July 27, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Stevens at Polson, Montana. About two months later the family moved to Somers to make their home on the west shore of Flathead Lake. Elgie was in the second grade at the Lake Side school. He passed away Dec. 16, 1942, at the age of 8 years.

He is survived by his parents at home, near Somers, his eight brothers and sisters, Lloyd Stevens of Katsispell, Mrs. Grace Nutter of Bozeman, Nell Stevens, Albert, Charles, Lewis, Glenn and Douglas, all at home, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stevens, of Lone Pine, Montana, and other relatives.

MISS OLIVE M. STRICKLAND

Olive M. Strickland, was born in 1872 to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Strickland, in Lakefield, Ontario, Canada. Soon after the family moved to Grand Forks, N. D., and in 1893 came to Kalispell, where Miss Strickland has resided ever since, in the beautiful family home on Woodland avenue, known for its lovely garden.

Miss Strickland was an artist of considerable talent, and painted many beautiful and outstanding pictures of her favorite spots in Glacier park and Flathead valley. She was one of the first and most active members of the Christian Science church in Kalispell, and led a life of service and self-sacrifice. She was preceded in death by a brother, George Strickland, and two sisters, Mrs. Grace Whitwell of Kalispell and Mrs. Florence Parr of Argyle, Minn.

She is survived by a niece and nephew, Patricia Whitwell and Furman R. Whitwell, Jr., of Kalispell, a nephew, Gordon Parr, of Somers, other relatives in the east, and a host of friends.

MRS. SADIE STUBBS-STOWELL

Funeral services for Mrs. Sadie Stubbs-Stowell were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Bert Powell of the Methodist church. During the services Clide Carr sang two solo selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. The chapel was filled by the many friends attending. Those acting as pall bearers were Perry Zoback, Ray Smith, T. O. Thorvilson, W. B. Lewis, Robert Patterson and Adloir Barry. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Sadie Lee McPheeters was born at Fredricksburg, Indiana, September 17, 1876. She came to Montana in 1889 and to the Flathead valley one year later and made her home on a farm north of Kalispell.

She was united in marriage with John H. Stubbs, at Kalispell in September of 1907, and resided in the Pipe Grove district where she was active in community affairs and reared her family. Mr. Stubbs passed away May 9, 1929. For several years she made her home with her daughter in Port Orchard, Washington.

On June 20, 1940, she was united in marriage to George A. Stowell of Kalispell. She was a member of the Methodist church, the Ladies' aid and the W. C. T. U.

She passed away very suddenly January 15, 1942. Surviving are her husband, one daughter Mrs. William Ashford, Port Orchard, Wash., four sons, Charles and Jessie of Kalispell, John of Leona, Idaho, and William of Seattle, and one step-son, George Stubbs of Kalispell. There are also six grandchildren and two brothers, J. W. McPheeters and G. P. McPheeters, and a host of friends.

EARL O. SWENSON

Earl Orlando Swenson was born Feb. 9, 1914, at York, North Dakota. As a child he moved with his parents to Alberta, Canada, where he lived for seven years. The family then moved to the Flathead at Somers where Earl attended school. He also lived for a short time at Stryker, Montana, and for the past several years had been employed as sawyer in the mill work. He had been in failing health for some time and passed away Oct. 13, 1942, Kalispell at the age of 28 years. He was making his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Swenson in Kalispell.

He is survived by his parents; also three sisters, Mrs. Gladys Smith of Troy, Montana, Mrs. Ted Burcham of Marlow, Montana, and Margaret Swenson at home and his grandfather, Chris. Swenson, of Detroit Lakes, Minn.

Mrs. Sarah E. Syre

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah E. Syre were held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at Christ Episcopal church by Harold Forwood. The church choir sang appropriate hymn selections during the service. Friends acting as pall bearers were H. E. Robinson, F. O. Williams, H. L. Breen, H. E. Terry, C. O. Miller and A. B. Yuill.

The entire front of the church was banked high with beautiful floral tributes and the church was filled to capacity by the many friends. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Obituary

Sarah Elizabeth Hooey was born September 26, 1876 at Ardock, N. D., where she received her education and grew to womanhood. She was married July 27, 1898, to William H. Syre. They made their home at Langdon and Mr. Syre passed away there in 1935. Mrs. Syre then came to Kalispell to be with her daughter and had lived here until her passing April 18, 1942.

Mrs. Syre was a member of the Episcopal church and of the Order of Easter Star. She is survived by her daughter Miss Eva Syre of Kalispell.