

CALVIN T. VANOVER

Calvin T. Henry Vanover was born Jan. 26, 1925 at Big Sandy, Montana. Most of his life was spent at Valler, Montana, where he attended grade and high school. At the age of 18 he enlisted in the United States army and had been in the service nearly two years. At the time of his death he was stationed in California where he met with an automobile accident while on duty. He passed away there Oct. 24, 1944, at the age of 19 year.

He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. William A. Vanover of Kalispell; four brothers, Cpl. Lewis Vanover in Washington, Howard and David Vanover of Billings, Montana, and Earl Vanover of Kalispell, and three sisters, Mrs. Albert Trafelet of Dupuyer, Mont., Mrs. Selmer Shortland of Paulsbo, Wash., and Mrs. Dick Vanden Bos of Kalispell.

JOSEPHINE VLASAK

Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine Vlasak were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell Chapel by Rev. Father F. X. O'Farrell of St. Matthews Church. During the service, Glide Carr sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were Jess Adams, Frank Voorhees, Harry Hopke, Frank Hyde, August Viano and Jacob Novak. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

OBITUARY

Josephine Sterba was born March 5th, 1872 in Czechoslovakia. She grew to womanhood there and specialized in dress making. At the age of 24 years she was married to Anton Vlasak. They came to America about 1903 and made their home in Canada for about 12 years. In the year 1915 they moved to Kalispell where they have since lived. Mr. Vlasak passed away in 1940.

Mrs. Vlasak passed away at her home on South Main St., in Kalispell Tuesday May 2, at the age of 72 years. She was the mother of 11 children, three of whom survive. They are Frank Vlasak of Kila, Arthur Vlasak of Marion and Vincent Vlasak of Kalispell. There are also seven grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Marie Swoboda of Canada and Mrs. Vera Ognovic of Kalispell and one brother, Joseph Sterba in Canada.

MRS. MYRTLE VANDEVANTER

Myrtle Vale Hatfield-Vandevanter was born April 6, 1877, at Marcus in Cherokee county, Iowa. At the age of two years she moved with her parents, William H. and Amelia Skinner Hatfield, to Paris, Ill., where she grew to womanhood. She received her education there and later taught school for several years.

She was married Sept. 4, 1898, to Joseph L. Vandevanter and they moved to North Dakota where they lived for two years. They then moved to Montana in 1910 and homesteaded near Niarada where they made their home for 14 years. In 1924 they came to Kalispell with their family and eight years later moved to the far southeast of Columbia Falls where Mrs. Vandevanter passed away Sept. 16, 1944, at the age of 67 years. She had been a partial invalid for a number of years.

She was a life-long member of the Methodist church.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph L. Vandevanter, of Columbia Falls, and two sons, Eugene of Kalispell, and Russell of Columbia Falls.

EBERHARD O. VARHOLDT

Eberhard O. Varholdt was born February 14, 1869, at Fillmore county, Minnesota. At the age of two his parents moved to Rothsay, Minn., where he grew up and attended school and later engaged in farming.

He was married to Helga Isakson November 10, 1900, at Fergus Falls, Minn. Later moving to Dakota and Canada and in 1918 came to Kalispell, Montana, and in 1926 moved to Ferndale where they continued to live until two years ago when they returned to Kalispell where they have since lived until his passing away October 16, 1944, after a lingering illness, at the age of 75 years.

At the age of 15 years he was confirmed in the Lutheran church at Otter Tail County, Minnesota, and since continued to be a member.

Mr. Varholdt is survived by his widow, Helga Varholdt at home, one son, Edwin, in the service, stationed in Topeka, Kansas, seven daughters: Olga Thorson and Emma Thorson of Hampden, North Dakota, Hilda Lewis and Florence Borgen of Kalispell, Montana; Effie Spuhler and Irene Varholdt of Vancouver, Wash., and Mabel Aschenbach of Spokane, Wash. Two sons have preceded him in death. He also leaves nine grandchildren and other relatives.