

WILLIAM H. YOCUM

William H. Yocum was born at Roaring Creek, Pennsylvania, March 2, 1867. He made his home at Herndon, Pennsylvania, until he was 23 years of age and then moved to Minneapolis, Minn., where he worked as a brakeman on the Northern Pacific railroad for several years. In 1893 he was united in marriage to Mary Ellen Hall, whose home was in Gloversville, New York. After a few years, they moved to New York and later came to Kalispell where they have resided since 1917.

Mr. Yocum is survived by his wife, Mary, of Kalispell, and one brother and three sisters, all of whom make their home in Pennsylvania. Mr. Yocum was a member of the Universalist church, the Odd Fellows lodge and was highly respected by those who were acquainted with him. He passed away June 30, 1944, following an illness of a number of years.

CHARLES T. YOUNG

Funeral services for Charles T. Young were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by H. C. Brewer, acting master for the Kalispell Masonic lodge. During the service Don Shepard sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were Marshall Murray, Otto Nordstrom, D. S. Canteron, H. F. Brayton, W. R. Martin and A. E. Boorman. Honorary bearers were A. W. Hollensteiner, T. H. Bogart, J. K. Lang, J. R. Sausser, Dean King, J. E. Uehlinger, Oliver Vose, I. D. Rogulien, B. J. McIntire, L. G. Klenk and Robert Pauline. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Charles T. Young was born August 12, 1871, at Reeds Landing, Minnesota.

He came to Tobacco Plains with his father and homesteaded on Young Creek in 1893.

He moved to Kalispell in 1900 and served as deputy county assessor from 1900 until 1906.

He was elected county clerk and recorder in 1907 and served until 1911.

On December 23, 1905, he was married to Katie Therriault.

He was elected county commissioner of Lincoln county and served from 1917 until 1923. He also served as deputy treasurer and deputy clerk and recorder of Lincoln county from 1927 until 1940.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Katie Young, two daughters, Ruby Young of Kalispell, and Mrs. Orin Farr of Seward, Alaska. His step-daughter, Mrs. George K. Fleming of Great Falls, his step-son A. O. Therriault of Boise, Idaho, and five grandchildren.