

MARTIN DAHLER

Martin Dahler was born April 10, 1890 at Fergus Falls, in Ottertail county, Minnesota. He grew up there and in 1915 was married to Miss Nellie Olson. He had farmed near Joplin, Montana for about 30 years and came to Kalispell three years ago. He passed away there August 22, 1946 at the age of 56 years.

He was a member of the Lutheran church.

Mr. Dahler is survived by his widow Nellie Dahler at home, two sons, Vernon and Lloyd of Joplin, Mont, two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Sorenson and Miss Lyla Dahler of Kalispell and one grandson. One brother also survives, T. G. Glosne of Compton, California and one sister, Mrs. N. O. Gergerud of Fergus Falls, Minnesota.

WILLIAM W. DAVISON

William Wallace Davison was born October 18, 1859 in Lee county, Illinois where he spent his boyhood. He later moved to Libertyville, Illinois, where on August 16, 1886 he was united in marriage to Jennie M. Mason, who preceded him in death a number of years ago.

In 1906 the family moved from Illinois to Kalispell and Mr. Davison has spent the past 43 years in the Flathead valley which he considered the garden spot of the earth.

Of his seven children two died in infancy and he is survived by two sons and three daughters: Lester V. of Seattle; William W. of Long Beach, Calif., Gertrude DeLong and Mildren McGee of Spokane, Wash.; and Dorothy Bertelson of Kalispell; one brother, Frank Davison of Watkeegan, Illinois, seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. Davison passed away September 19, 1946, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bertelson, with whom he had made his home for the past 15 years.

FRED E. DENNY

Fred Edward Denny, son of George W. and Frances H. Denny, was born October 18, 1884, in Sullivan County, Missouri.

He was united in marriage to Miss Elsie Kate Daniels at Moulton, Iowa, March 18, 1908, and lived the next four years in Missouri and Oklahoma. In 1912 they moved to Toppenish, Wash., and in 1921 came to Montana to make their home at Lone Pine.

Mr. Denny passed away at his farm home February 27, 1946, at the age of 61 years.

He is survived, by his widow at home, five sons and two daughters, two grandchildren, three brothers and one sister.

GEORGE A. DEVOE

Funeral services for George A. DeVoe were held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel with the Rev. W. P. Griffith of Christ Episcopal church officiating. Music for the services included two beautiful hymns by Don Shepard with Mrs. J. M. Carlson accompanying at the organ. Friends acting as pall bearers were Alex Kassner, William Zeek, G. Van Rinsum, Gus Hoppe, Pete Terbergson, and George Willis. Interment was conducted in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

George Alfred DeVoe was born July 19, 1866 at Lone Tree, Iowa, U. S. son of J. S. and Margaret K. DeVoe. He spent his childhood in Lone Tree and in 1888 was united in marriage to Blanch Mathieson. To this union were born three children: Charles, Margaret and Richard. They moved to Shell Lake, Iowa in 1895 where they lived until 1903 when they came west to Somers, Montana. Mrs. DeVoe passed away there in 1910.

In 1914 Mr. DeVoe was married to Annie Reed and they have made their home in Somers continually since with the exception of a short period on the coast during the first World War.

Mr. DeVoe had been employed by the Somers Lumber Co. for approximately 40 years where he served in the capacity as mill foreman for a number of years. He passed away October 22, 1946, at the age of 80 years.

Surviving him are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Drew, one son, Charles DeVoe, all of Somers; three step-daughters, Mrs. Herman McClung, Mrs. R. Ricketts, and Mrs. Blanche Larrabee, all of Kalispell; ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

GEORGE W. DRUMMOND

Funeral services for George W. Drummond were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by the Rev. Russell Prentice of the Presbyterian church. Interment was conducted in the Demersville cemetery.

Obituary

George W. Drummond was born March 5, 1872, at Galena, Ill., to William N. and Katherin McNally Drummond. He grew up in the east and became a steam engineer. He came to the Flathead to make his home at Columbia Falls 15 years ago and passed away at Kalispell September 7, 1946, at the age of 74 years.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Nellie Murray of Beloit, Wisconsin.