

Berger Aadsen Dies; Funeral Rites Friday

RONAN — Berger Emil Aadsen, 70, died Monday in Ronan. He was a former resident of Kalispell.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Calvary Lutheran Church, Evergreen, Friday at 11 a.m., with Rev. Kenneth DeFore, Ronan, and Rev. Henrik Engebretson of Evergreen. Interment will be in the family plot in Conrad Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Shrader Mortuary of Ronan.

Mr. Aadsen was born Aug. 19, 1898, in Webster, S. D. He was a child when he came to the Creston area with his parents and attended schools there. He moved to West Coast as a young man and returned to Kalispell area in 1938. He was a farmer. He married Adele Gunderson, Sept. 18, 1926 at Everett, Wash. She died in Kalispell in 1967.

He is survived by one son, Don, Ronan; two brothers, John, Creston, and Hjalmer, Bigfork; two sisters, Mrs. Dale Barker, and Mrs. Earl Regua, both of St. Paul, Minn.; two grandchildren.

R. J. Adams Dies; Rites Saturday

Robert James (Jim) Adams, 66, died Tuesday in Kalispell.

Mr. Adams was born Sept. 27, 1901 in Lakota, Nelson Co., N. D., the son of John and Rozanna Adams. He obtained his schooling in Shelby, while farming with his father.

In 1923 he moved to Somers where he was employed by the Somers Lumber Co. on the planer until the mill closed down.

He was married to Leah Poirier July 18, 1923 in Kalispell. She died Oct. 30, 1956. He married Inace Bull in 1958 in Seattle.

Following the closing of the mill in Somers Mr. Adams worked for a time for the Klinger Mill and for Krause and for the past 10 years has operated the River Bend Motel at West Glacier.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Francis Redmond (Janice), Kalispell, and Mrs. Guy P. Merchant (Wilma), Wichita Falls, Tex.; a son, Robert, Orofino, Idaho, nine grandchildren; a brother, Edwin, Shelby; three sisters, Lillian Rogers, Shelby; Rose Turner, Kalispell, and Daisy Adams, Everett, Wash., and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mr. Adams are tentatively set for Saturday at 2 p.m. from Waggener & Campbell Chapel with interment in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

R. J. Adams Funeral Saturday

Funeral services for Robert James "Jim" Adams, 66, who died Tuesday in Kalispell, will be Saturday at 2 p.m. from the Waggener & Campbell Chapel with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey officiating. Interment will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Adams was born Sept. 27, 1901 in Lakota, N.D., the son of John and Rozanna Adams. He went to school in Shelby and in 1923 moved to Somers where he worked in the planer department of the Somers Lumber Co.

He married Leah Poirier in Kalispell in 1923 and the couple had a son and two daughters. Leah Adams died in 1956 and in 1958 Mr. Adams married Inace Bull in Seattle. For the past 10 years Mr. Adams has operated the River Bend Motel in West Glacier.

Survivors include his widow at home; two daughters, Mrs. Francis (Janice) Redmond, Kalispell, and Mrs. Guy P. (Wilma) Merchant, Wichita Falls, Tex.; a son Robert, Orofino, Idaho; nine grandchildren; a brother Edwin, Shelby; three sisters, Lillian Rogers, Shelby; Rose Turner, Kalispell, and Daisy Adams, Everett, Wash., and numerous nephews and nieces.

Also surviving are four stepchildren, Mrs. F. G. Kinsey, Great Falls; Mrs. Jean Liedle, Helena; Charles Bull, Kalispell, and Robert Bull, Missoula.

D. W. Agnew, 47, Dies In Alaska; Rites Friday

Donald Wayne Agnew, 47, died Saturday, March 16 in Anchorage, Alaska.

Mr. Agnew was born Sept. 1, 1920 in Mahtomen, Minn. At the age of seven he moved with his parents to Montana, settling near Havre for a time and then to the Flathead in 1930.

He received his education in the Swan River district and Kalispell. During his youth he worked in the woods and on the railroad. In later years he worked as a salesman.

He made three trips to Anchorage where he drove taxicab and it was while he was employed as a cab driver that he was involved in a car-truck accident that took his life.

Mr. Agnew is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Agnew, Whitefish; a son, Daniel, and a daughter, Laura Rose, both of Tacoma, Wash; a sister Mrs. Lester (Vivian) Nelson, Midvale, Utah; three brothers, Dick, Whitefish, Tom, San Rafael, Calif., and Larry, Seattle.

There are several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by a twin sister, Dorothy Jane in 1921 and a brother, Wesley Ernest in 1926.

Funeral services have been set for Friday at 2 p.m. from the Catron Chapel with the Rev. James E. Dickenson of the Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be made in the Whitefish Cemetery.

William Albrecht Dies; Interment In Helena

Word has been received of the death of William Albrecht, 53, at Lolo Hot Springs last week. Mr. Albrecht died of a heart attack. He was employed by the Montana Highway Department.

He was a son of pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Albrecht of Ferndale. Mr. Albrecht spent his boyhood at Ferndale and received his education in area schools. His father died in 1932 and he and his mother continued to operate the family farm until he went to work for the highway department.

Mr. Albrecht's mother died in 1964. A twin brother survives in Cupertino, Calif. Two sisters, Mrs. David (Helen) Svenningson and Elizabeth Albrecht live in Shelby.

Interment was at the Forest Lawn Cemetery in Helena.

Myrtle Allers Dies; Rites Announced

Myrtle A. Allers, 61, died Thursday morning. Mrs. Allers was born Jan. 7, 1907, in Elbow Lake, Minn. She received her schooling in Bergen and Minot, N. D., and upon graduation from high school entered the Teachers College in Minot, N. D. After graduation she taught in North Dakota for six years and July 7, 1927, was married to Edmund Allers at Underwood, N. D. They made their home in Bergen, N. D. until 1947 when they moved to a farm northwest of Kalispell. In 1966 they moved to Kalispell where they made their residence at 115 Northern Lights Boulevard. Mrs. Allers was a member of the St. Matthew's Catholic Church.

Mrs. Allers is survived by her widower, Edmund, at the family home, three sons, Marlowe, Elmer and Kerby, all of Kalispell; five grandchildren two brothers, Kenneth Sauby of Minot, and Julian Sauby of Waukegan, Ill.; one sister, Glendev Hawthorne of Voltaire, N. D., several nieces and nephews.

Requiem mass will be celebrated from the St. Matthew's Catholic Church Tuesday at 10 a.m. and rosary will be said Monday at 8 p.m. Rev. Michael Gilmor will be acting celebrant. Interment will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Ambrogini Rites Conducted In Sandpoint

Funeral services for Virgilio Ambrogini who died Aug. 13 at Sandpoint were conducted at the First Presbyterian Church with burial in Lakeview Cemetery.

Born in Italy, he immigrated to this country in 1905 and was a section foreman for the Great Northern Railway at several Montana points before moving to Sandpoint in 1943. He retired in 1958.

He is now survived by his widow, Nellie, and a son, Karl, at the family home. He is also survived by another son, Melvin, Essex, and seven daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Buckmaster and Mrs. Charlotte Palmer, both of Sandpoint; Mrs. Mary Ellen Connelly and Mrs. Vera Ivers, both of Whitefish; Mrs. Evelyn Ivers, Fortline; Mrs. Helen McFarland, Concord, Calif., and Mrs. Grace Sholmak, Clarkston, Wash.

Kenneth Ament, Former Resident, Dies In Billings

Word has been received in Kallispell of the death of Kenneth Ament, 17, at Billings Tuesday. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Ament, former Kallispell residents, the youth had undergone brain surgery seven weeks ago.

He was born in Kallispell Aug. 5, 1951, and left the valley in 1959. He is now survived by his parents and a twin brother, Bobby, at the family home, another brother, Michael and a sister, Judy Brown, all living at Billings.

Arthur A. Anderson Dies; Rites Monday

Arthur A. Anderson, 72, died in Weiser, Idaho, early Thursday morning. Mr. Anderson was a former resident of Bigfork.

Mr. Anderson was born Dec. 8, 1895, in Essex, Iowa. He moved with his parents to the Lake Blaine area when a small child and grew to manhood there. He served in the U.S. Army during World War I. July 16, 1921, he was married to Ruth I. Conant at Coram. They resided in Coram and the Lake Blaine area until 1937 when they moved to Bigfork living at Woods Bay until six years ago when he went to Weiser to make his home.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ruth, April 2, 1958, and a son, Lt. Jack H. Anderson, who was killed in action in Vietnam April 12, 1967.

Mr. Anderson is survived by five daughters: Mrs. Roland (Jane) Hillman of Salem, Ore., Mrs. Don (Bertie) Corrigan of Polson, Mrs. Orval (Norma) Fochtman of Weiser, Mrs. Bill (Bonnie) Clark of Kallispell, Mrs. Bud (Shirley) Stahlberg of Kallispell; one son, Robert A. Anderson of Weiser; 39 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren; three brothers, Ed and Bill, both of Kallispell; and Walt of Lake Blaine; one sister, Mrs. Robert Hutchins of Kallispell.

Funeral services for Mr. Anderson have been set for Monday at 2 p.m. from the Waggener & Campbell Chapel with Rev. Chauncey Biffle of the Community Methodist Church of Bigfork officiating.

Interment will follow in the Fairview Cemetery with military graveside rites.

Columbia Falls Resident Dies

COLUMBIA FALLS -- Mrs. Bernice Evelyn Anderson, 53, wife of Lester M. Anderson of Columbia Falls, died in Whitefish Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Anderson was born Oct. 17, 1914, at Glasgow to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Midge. She grew to womanhood in eastern Montana and Oct. 17, 1932, was married to Lester M. Anderson at Great Falls. In 1934, she with her husband moved to Half Moon for a while before returning to Great Falls. During the construction of the Hungry Horse Dam they returned to the Flathead Valley where they have since made their home on Rt. 1A, Columbia Falls.

She was a member of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Mrs. Anderson is survived by her widower at the family home; four daughters, Roxy LeAnne at the family home, Mrs. Michael (Joanne) Coterino of Grand Forks, N.D., Mrs. Patrick (Patricia) Mullen of Missoula, and Mrs. Jim (Shirlee) Midbow of Shelby; two sons, Richard D. of Madaas, Ore., and Dennis B. of Wrangell, Alaska; a nephew who she raised, Gary Ray, stationed with the U.S. Army in Germany; eight grandchildren and one aunt.

She was preceded in death by her parents and three sisters.

Funeral services for Mrs. Anderson will be announced by the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

C. Anderson Dies; Rites Saturday

Charles W. Anderson, 83, died in Everett, Wash., Wednesday morning.

Mr. Anderson was born Sept. 15, 1885, in Denmark. As a young man, he moved to Montana and was engaged in farming in Valley County much of his life. He had lived in Kalispell for several years before moving to Everett where he had resided for the past 22 years.

In 1908, he was married and is now survived by his widow, Madaline, in Everett.

He is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. Verne (Kay) Lupton of Kalispell, and Mrs. Max (Mary) McKenzie of Ephrata, Wash.; two sisters, Mrs. Ole Bay in Saskatchewan, and Mrs. Guy Burroughs of Bremerton, Wash.; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Graveside rites for Mr. Anderson will be conducted in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery at 11 a.m. Saturday with the Rev. Dr. Odin Baugh, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church officiating.

Friends will meet at the Johnson Chapel before going to the cemetery.

Mrs. Anderson Dies In Wisconsin

Mrs. Iva N. Loy Anderson, formerly of Kalispell, died in Madison, Wis., Nov. 13.

She lived in Kalispell from 1941 to 1961. Her first husband Elmer C. Loy, died here in 1958.

Survivors include her husband R. L. Anderson; two daughters, Mrs. Barbara Loy Stalheim, Rockford, Ill., and Mrs. Beverly Loy Ervin, Houston, Tex.; six grandchildren; two stepsons, two stepdaughters and their 16 children.

Burial was at Whitewater, Wis.

H. F. Anderson, Former Kalispell Resident, Dies

Funeral services for Harold F. Anderson, former Kalispell resident who died Saturday at Bridger, will take place Tuesday afternoon at the Bridger Methodist Church. Anderson was 52.

Born in Kalispell May 2, 1916, he graduated from Flathead High School and subsequently moved to Bridger where he entered the military service serving during World War II in the China-Burma-India theater for three years. In 1941 he married Dorothy Kaysor, Bridger. He is now survived by his widow and two children at the family home; two brothers, Vernon, Lewistown, and Ralph, Kalispell, and two sisters, Mrs. Annalee Wright, Bridger, and Agnes Bills, Billings.

Anderson had been past master of the Bridger Masonic Lodge, past department commander, VFW, international district governor of the Lions Club, and he had served on the Bridger city council and school board.

J.C. Anderson Dies; Rites Friday At 10

James Christian Andersen, 71, 1710 Eighth Ave. E., died Monday evening.

Mr. Anderson was born Feb. 19, 1897, in Denmark. When he was two he moved with his family to Racine, Wis., where he spent his early life.

May 3, 1917, he joined the Navy at Milwaukee, Wis., and served until receiving his honorable discharge Sept. 25, 1919 at Mare Island, Calif. He then moved to Wyoming where he worked for a railroad and had also been employed at an air base.

Oct. 1, 1943, he re-enlisted in the Navy and served as a Gunners Mate 1, C. until discharged Jan. 26, 1945.

He returned to Wyoming and later moved to Montana where he was employed by the National Park Service at Glacier National Park until his retirement about six years ago.

Mr. Anderson was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Casper, Wyo.

April 13, 1951, he was married to Dorothy Cooper at Kalispell and is survived by her at the family home; one son, Robert Donald Andersen, Seattle; two daughters, Christine and Mary Andersen, at the family home; two brothers, Charles Andersen, Detroit, Mich., and Walter Andersen, Chicago; two sisters, Mrs. Laura Mortenson and Mrs. Edna Kosterman, Racine, Wis., and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mr. Anderson will be conducted in the Johnson Chapel at 10 a.m. Friday with the Rev. Charles Nowlen, pastor of the Epworth Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery with military graveside rites by veterans of World War I.

R. C. Ansberry Dies At 76

Roland C. Ansberry, 76, 20 Fourth Ave. E., died in Kalispell Saturday morning.

He was born July 28, 1891, in Iowa. He had spent much of his early life in the Midwest, later moving to Montana, where he has been a resident of the Flathead Valley for the past 25 years.

He was a member of the Operating Engineers Local 371.

He is now survived by one daughter, Mrs. Etta Hignett of Kalispell; one brother, Herbert Ansberry of Baxter Springs, Kans., and one stepbrother, Tip Ansberry of Eugene, Ore.

The body has been forwarded by the Johnson Funeral Home to Spokane for cremation. Friends who wish may contribute memorials to the American Cancer Society.

Former Montana First Lady

Mrs. Rose Aronson Dies; Rites Thursday

Mrs. Rose Myrtle Aronson, 63, wife of J. Hugo Aronson, passed away at her home in Bigfork Sunday morning.

Mrs. Aronson was born March 20, 1904, at Mondovi, Wash., a daughter of Evan and Bertha Brink McClure. She attended schools in Washington and was a graduate of Eastern Washington State College at Cheney. She taught school at Davenport, Wash. for a time.

Sept. 25, 1944, she was married to John Hugo Aronson at Minneapolis. The couple then moved to Cut Bank where Mrs. Aronson taught school and had also served as superintendent of schools for Glacier County.

In 1952, when Mr. Aronson became Montana governor, the couple moved to Helena where they lived during his terms of office until 1960. They then moved to Bigfork where they have resided since.

Mrs. Aronson was a member of the Bethany Lutheran Church of Bigfork and the Order of Eastern Star of Davenport.

She is survived by her husband, J. Hugo Aronson; a daughter, Mrs. Gary R. (Rika) Mogolis and one granddaughter, Joan Michele Mogolis, all of Bigfork; two brothers, J.H. McClure and R.A. McClure, both of Davenport, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mrs. Aronson will be conducted in the Bethany Lutheran Church of Bigfork at 1:30 Thursday with the Rev. Russell Hillman officiating.

Following the services the body will be forwarded by the Johnson Funeral Home to the Strate Funeral Home of Davenport for graveside rites and interment at the Pleasant View Cemetery at 11 a.m. Friday. The family suggest memorials to Bethany Lutheran Church or the American Cancer Society.

MRS. ROSE ARONSON

7
-
-
0
I
J
k w w t e
S
U n
T
S w
n
w s u
o

T. Armstrong Dies; Funeral Rites Pending

WHITEFISH—Thomas L Armstrong, 73, died at his home at 823 Kalispell Avenue, Whitefish, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Armstrong was born May 20, 1895, at Carmichael, Pa. He attended school and spent his early years at Carmichael. In 1909 he moved to Whitefish where he has resided since that time. In 1910, he was employed by the Great Northern Railway as a call boy calling crews. He was later promoted to telegraph operator which he continued until ill health in 1953. He retired in 1960. Mr. Armstrong was a member of the Railroad Telegraphers.

Oct. 11, 1919, he was married to Margaret C. Cortel at Whitefish and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by one son, Ross; one daughter, Mrs. Ollie (Shirley) Walter; one sister, Mrs. Aura Mellon; and three granddaughters, all of Whitefish.

Funeral services for Mr. Armstrong will be announced by the Austin Funeral Home.

R. Atchison Dies; Rites Announced

WHITEFISH - Richard Henry Atchison, 86, who had resided at the Samson Block in Whitefish, died in Hot Springs Sunday morning.

Mr. Atchison was born March 17, 1881 at Toronto, Canada. In the early 1900's, he came to the United States and had lived in Michigan, Wisconsin, North Dakota, and later, at Great Falls. In 1915, he moved to Baylor, Mont., where he homesteaded.

July 20, 1921, he was married to Bamma Elizabeth Hartley. The couple continued to live at Baylor until 1935 when they moved to Glasgow. Mr. Atchison had worked on the Fort Peck Dam construction, and was later employed by the Westland Oil gas station and the Markles Bulk plant.

He was preceded in death by his wife Sept. 19, 1960. In 1961, he moved to Whitefish, where he has since resided.

He is now survived by one daughter, Mrs. Glenn (Alice) Taylor of Whitefish and two granddaughters, Mrs. Gerald (Marietta) Garbosky and Glenda Taylor.

The body will lie in state at the Austin Chapel Monday evening and will be forwarded Tuesday to the Bell Funeral Home in Glasgow where funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday with burial to follow in the Glasgow Cemetery.

Andrew Aune Dies At 84 In Whitefish

WHITEFISH — Andrew Aune, 84, died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Manuel Lamb, South Karrow Avenue, Whitefish.

Mr. Aune was born Dec. 26, 1883, at Trondheim, Norway. When he was 18 years of age, he came to the United States and had settled in the Midwest. A short time later, he moved to Eastern Montana where he homesteaded. In 1916, he was married to Signe Johnson. The couple homesteaded on a ranch north of Saco until the death of Mrs. Aune in 1940.

In 1941, Mr. Aune was employed by the Great Northern Railway working with the section crew until 1951 when he moved to Whitefish where he made his home on a small acreage on the Blanchard Lake Road southwest of Whitefish.

He was a member of the Lutheran Church of Saco.

He is now survived by one son, Art Aune, of Saco; five daughters, Mrs. Manuel (Agnes) Lamb of Whitefish, Mrs. LeRoy (Inga) Ammerman of Spokane, Mrs. Walt (Edna) Hallett of Nevada City, Calif., Mrs. Thomas (Pauline) Lusk of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Carl (Mabel) Palm of Saco; one brother, Ed Aune of Harlem; eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The body has been forwarded by the Austin Funeral Home to the Bell Funeral Home at Malta where funeral services and interment will be conducted later in the week.

Mrs. Averill Dies; Rites Announced

Dolores Mae Averill, 50, died early Friday morning in Kalispell.

Mrs. Averill was born Dec. 12, 1918, at Coffee Creek, Mont., the daughter of Peter and Julia Dufour.

At about the age of eight, she came with her family to Somers and she has resided in the Flathead ever since. She went to school in Somers and the Flathead High School, graduating in 1936 and then on to graduate from the University of Montana at Missoula.

In 1946 she was married to Les Averill at Bigfork. At that time, Averill had established the Flathead Lake Lodges, and following the marriage, they expanded the business on the east shore of Flathead Lake.

Mrs. Averill is survived by her widower; four sons, Danny, Darvey, Douglas and Dalvin, all at home; her brother, Wilfred (Buster) Dufour of Hamilton, and her mother, Julia Dufour of Bigfork.

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Averill will be celebrated Monday at 10 a.m. at the St. Catherine's Catholic Church in Bigfork with Rev. D. H. Okorn, celebrant. Rosary will be recited Sunday at 8 p.m. at the church in Bigfork.

Interment will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery under the direction of the Waggener & Campbell Funeral Home.

Anna Ayotte Dies; Rites Saturday

WHITEFISH — Anna Marie Ayotte, 94, died in Kalispell Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ayotte was born Jan. 27, 1874 in Chippewa Falls, Wis., where she was raised on a farm until the age of 16. She then moved to Minneapolis, Minn., where she worked in a restaurant.

Oct. 19, 1965 she was married to Russell J. Ayotte and shortly thereafter moved to Whitefish where she resided until her husband died in 1958 and she moved to Kalispell where she has resided since.

Mrs. Ayotte is survived by two sisters and one brother, all of Chippewa Falls, Wis.

Funeral services have been set for Saturday at 2 p.m. from the Catron Chapel with Rev. Dennis Hanson of the Christ Lutheran Church officiating. Interment will follow in the Whitefish Cemetery.