

Ledger Haddow Dies In Van Nuys

Funeral services for Ledger Haddow were conducted last Friday at Glendale, Calif. Haddow, son of the late George and Alice Haddow, died Dec. 22 at Van Nuys, Calif.

He was preceded in death by three brothers. He is now survived by his widow, Shirley, two sons, two granddaughters all of Van Nuys, and a brother, George Haddow, Kalispell, who has just returned home from the funeral services.

Haddow had lived in Kalispell and attended schools here, then moved to California. He had been employed as a cameraman in the motion picture industry until his retirement about a year ago.

A. R. Hagen Dies; Funeral Rites Tuesday

Alvin R. Hagen, 57, 32 Third Ave. E., died in Kalispell Sunday morning.

Mr. Hagen was born Aug. 22, 1911, at Norquay, Sask. At an early age he moved to Montana where he attended schools at Wolf Point. Oct. 26, 1939, he was married to LaVerna Rensvold at Wolf Point. The couple continued to live at Wolf Point until 1949 when they moved to Whitefish. In 1952 they moved to Kalispell and have resided here since that time.

Mr. Hagen had operated a gasoline station in Kalispell until 1961 and prior to his recent illness he had been employed by the C & C Plywood Co. He was a member of the Scandinavian Fraternity of America, the Eagles Lodge and the District 1 Northwest Fiddlers Association.

He is survived by his widow at the family home; three sons, Lee of Seattle, Wash., Richard and Ronald, both of Kalispell; two daughters, Mrs. Art (Dorothy) Hanson of Kalispell and Mary Hagen at home; two sisters, Mrs. Joe Yusko of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. Robert Wright of Oklahoma City, Okla.; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mr. Hagen will be conducted in the Johnson Chapel at 11 a.m. Tuesday with the Rev. Clarence Loewen, pastor of the Central Bible Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Mrs. Haines Dies; Rites Saturday

Mrs. Anna May Haines, 51, died at her home at 716 Edgewood Avenue in Whitefish late Wednesday.

Mrs. Haines was born May 4, 1917 at Bemidji, Minn., a daughter of Joseph and Margaret Wilson. In 1923, she moved with her parents to Whitefish, where she attended elementary and high schools.

Sept. 20, 1936, she was married to James Haines in Whitefish. The couple has continued to make their home in Whitefish since that time. Mrs. Haines was a member of the St. Charles Catholic Church.

She is survived by her husband, James, and one daughter, Connie Haines, both at the family home; one brother, Joseph Wilson, Hot Springs, and two sisters, Mrs. Dale Howke Sr., 1 and Mrs. Robert Hines, both of Whitefish.

Funeral services for Mrs. Haines are tentatively being planned for Saturday with interment to follow in the Glacier Memorial Gardens. Arrangements are under the direction of the Austin Funeral Home.

Alice D. Hall Dies; Rites Thursday

Alice D. Hall, 74, died in Whitefish Tuesday.

Mrs. Hall was born Nov. 13, 1893 in Niotaze, Kan. In 1908 she with her family moved to Columbia Falls where she grew to womanhood and received her education.

Dec. 19, 1919 she was married to Oliver C. Hall in Kalispell and they made their home in the Bad Rock Community where Mr. Hall engaged in farming operations.

Mrs. Hall and her husband had lived in the Bad Rock Community for the past 47 years.

She was preceded in death by a son, James Oliver, in infancy and is survived by her husband, at the family home; two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Haines, Spokane, and Mrs. Rosella Prather, Burbank, Calif., and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hall have been set Thursday at 2 p.m. from the Van Leuven Chapel in Columbia Falls with burial to follow in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Mrs. Vera Hall Dies; Funeral Rites Monday

Mrs. Vera Hall, 69, died at her home at 34 Seventh Street W., Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Hall was born March 3, 1899, at Armour, S. D. She attended schools in South Dakota and graduated from high school and normal school at Sioux Falls. She then taught school in South Dakota for a number of years. She moved to Minneapolis, Minn., where she had resided for 25 years before moving to Kalispell in 1964. Mrs. Hall was a past president of the American Legion Auxiliary at Great Falls, a member of the Order of Eastern Star, and had attended the First Presbyterian Church.

In 1920, she was married to Donald Hall and was preceded in death by him Feb. 24, 1942. She was also preceded in death by eight brothers and sisters.

She is now survived by one son, D. W. Hall of Kalispell and four grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hall will be conducted in the Johnson Chapel at 10:30 a.m. Monday with the Rev. Dr. Odlin Baugh, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Following the services the body will be forwarded to Spokane for cremation. Interment in the Fort Snelling National Cemetery will follow.

J. A. Hallas Dies At 82; Rites Pending

COLUMBIA FALLS — John Allen Hallas, 82, a resident of Coram, died Saturday in Whitefish.

Mr. Hallas was born May 10, 1886 at Adrian, Minn. From Minnesota, he moved to Beaverhead County in 1905, where he homesteaded until World War II when he moved to Butte and became a mine electrician.

He was married to Amy Richards in 1920 at Butte. She preceded him in death in 1922. In 1923 he moved to Kellogg, Idaho, where he was employed at the Bunker Hill Mine for more than 20 years.

In 1956 he returned to Montana and made his home at Coram where he was employed during construction of the Hungry Horse Dam.

He was a member of the Knights of Pythias Galena Lodge 12 of Kellogg, Idaho.

On Sept. 21, 1960, he was married to Mary May at Columbia Falls, who now survives him at the family home in Coram; he is also survived by one son, George Hallas of Columbia Falls; three stepsons and two stepdaughters, Mrs. Thomas Roberts of Butte, and Mrs. Richard Holmquist of Grand Coulee, Washington; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be announced by the Van Louven Funeral Home.

G. Halverson Dies; Rites Announced

POLSON — George Halverson, 84, Irvin Flats, died in the Polson Hospital Tuesday.

He was born Feb. 17, 1884 in Chicago, Ill. He was married to Rose Nelson in Chicago in 1904. They came to the Flathead Valley in 1911 and homesteaded in the Irvin Flats.

Mr. Halverson was preceded in death by one son, Harold, in 1935 and by his wife in 1952.

He is now survived by a brother, Ed Halverson of Chicago, a sister, Mrs. Anna Sogge of Sioux City, Iowa and four grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mr. Halverson will be conducted in the Mosley Chapel at 2 p.m. Thursday with the Rev. John Dutzar officiating. Interment will be in the Lakeview Cemetery with graveside rites accorded by members of Masonic Lodge 78 AF&AM.

Rites Are Friday For A. Hammer

Funeral services for Arnold V. Hammer, 52, will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Waggener & Campbell Chapel. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery at Columbia Falls.

Mr. Hammer passed away Sunday night at his home at 538 Fifth Ave. E.

He was born Sept. 25, 1915, in Williston.

Mr. Hammer was preceded in death by his mother at his birth and he was reared by his aunt, Mathilda Hammer, in Columbia Falls. He received his education and grew to manhood in Columbia Falls and engaged in woods work until ill health caused him to retire. He spent some time in Grenora and Sidney and in 1965 returned to the Flathead Valley.

Besides his mother, Mr. Hammer was preceded in death by his father, Christian H. Hammer; his aunt Mathilda Hammer, and one brother, Henry.

He is now survived by three sisters, Mrs. Louise Volkman in Great Falls, Mrs. Ethel Rogni in New Mexico, Mrs. Clara Larson in Grenora; two brothers, Herbert Hammer of Laurel and Ruben Hammer of Sidney.

E. G. Hammer Dies; Rites Announced

Edwin Gustav Hammer, 83, 109 East Cottonwood Drive, died in Kallispell Saturday evening.

Mr. Hammer was born Nov. 9, 1885, at Bozeman. He attended school in Bozeman and later moved to Seattle. He had been employed as a beamster in Seattle until moving to Kallispell in 1954 where he has resided since that time.

Since coming to Kallispell, he had been employed in the maintenance department for J. C. Penney Co. until his retirement in 1960. Mr. Hammer was a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Nov. 2, 1934, he was married to Cecil M. Thorne at Seattle and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by one son, Edwin Barton of Bellflower, Calif.; one daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Buls of Kelso, Wash.; one brother, William F. of Seattle; one sister, Mrs. Clara Peschel of Ronan; six grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren and one niece and six nephews.

Funeral services for Mr. Hammer will be conducted in the Johnson Chapel at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday with the Elder Wayne Moore of the Seventh-day Adventist Church officiating. Interment will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Former Resident Dies In Glendive

Word has been received here of the death of a former Flathead Valley resident. Homer Hanes, 62, died Nov. 26 at his home in Glendive.

Hanes worked for the old Glacier Dairy for 17 years and for Greg's Dairy for one year before he moved to Ronan to work for Consolidated Dairies.

At the time of his death, Hanes was working as a dairy and egg inspector.

Hanes was born April 12, 1906 at Fort Cobb, Okla. He moved to the Flathead with his family as a small boy where he attended school.

Hanes is survived by his widow, Mabel, whom he married in 1934; three daughters, Mrs. Harry (Margaret) Moore, Whitefish; Mrs. John (Grace) Littrell, Coos Bay, Ore.; and Mrs. Charles (Carol) Lockwood, Missoula; a sister, Mrs. Frank Wurtz, Whitefish, a half-sister, Mrs. Jessie Daily, Libby; 10 grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

He was buried in Sunset Hills Cemetery, Bozeman.

Mrs. E. O. Hardin Dies In Texas

Mrs. Emma O. Hardin, mother of Mrs. O.H. Michael of Kalispell, was killed in a car accident Jan. 11, in Corpus Christi, Tex.

Her son, Artie, was badly injured in the same accident and is hospitalized in Corpus Christi.

Mrs. Hardin was born Jan. 8, 1879. She was married to W.S. Hardin who died in 1952.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Emma Lorena, in 1965. Other children are William Bell and Edna. Mrs. Hardin is survived also by 8 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren and 5 great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Hardin spent part of each year in Kalispell for the past eight years. She was a member of Seventh-day Adventist Church. Funeral services were today in Corpus Christi.

Mrs. Grace Hardy Dies In Florida

Mrs. Grace Hardy, former Kalispell resident, died Oct. 8 in Deland, Fla.

She is survived by her widower, Harry of Deland; a daughter, Harriet Hanson of Thomasville, N.C.; and two sons, Maurice of Rosholt, S.D., and Robert of Kalispell.

Interment was in Thomasville.

Fred W. Harrison Funeral Pending

Fred William Harrison, 19, drowned in Lake Blaine Saturday afternoon. He was serving in the Army at Fort Ord, Calif., and was home on leave at the time of his death. He was born Aug. 2, 1948 at Boyd, a son of William and Magdalena Harrison.

When a small boy, he moved with his parents to Billings where he attended school and later moved to Absarokee. In 1967, he moved with his parents to Columbia Falls, and prior to his entering military service, was employed at the

He was a member of the Lutheran Church. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Harrison, Columbia Falls; three sisters, Mrs. George (Dolly) Grice and Mrs. George Payovich both of Billings; and Miss Bonnie Harrison, Missoula; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaffer of Pollock, S.D., and Mrs. Elizabeth Harrison, Red Lodge, aunts, uncles and seven nieces and nephews. Funeral arrangements for Mr. Harrison will be announced by the Austin Funeral Home.

Husky Super Stop and the theaters in Kalispell. In 1965 he worked for the Pepsi Cola Co., in Billings. He was inducted into the Army Feb. 23, 1968 and received his military training at Ft. Lewis, Wash. He was then transferred to Fort Ord where he advanced to the rank of E2 in electronics communication. He was home on an 11-day leave before his transfer to Fort Hood, Tex.

Frederick R. Harvey, 83, Dies; Funeral Pending

Frederick R. Harvey, 83, retired rancher from the Stillwater community, died in Kalispell early Wednesday.

Mr. Harvey was born March 3, 1885 at Chesaning, Mich., the second of two children of Fred S. and Emma Wellington Harvey. He attended Michigan schools and grew to manhood in and around Elkhart, Ind., where as a young man he worked as a painter on wheels for the young auto industry.

About the turn of the century

he came to Montana and in 1910 took up a homestead north of Bainville. In 1913, he married Gertrude Louise Burton at Culbertson.

In 1934 Mr. Harvey came to the Flathead Valley at Dixon as a rancher and in 1940 to the Kalispell area. He was an early day lay preacher with the Congregational Church and later was a lay minister for the Methodist Church.

He was an avid reader and Bible student and with the exception of one child his entire family has been at one time or another engaged in public school work. Five are still active in school affairs.

Mr. Harvey is survived by his widow Gertrude at the family home, three daughters, Mrs. James B. (Adelaide) Foy, Columbia Falls; Mrs. Lewis (Lucille) Palmer, Charlo, and Mrs. Ernest E. (Nellie) Richardson, Missoula; five sons, J. Torrance Harvey, administrative assistant, Kalispell Public Schools; Raymond A. Harvey, rancher at Homestead; Robert F. Harvey, rancher north of Kalispell; K. William Harvey, superintendent of Evergreen Schools, and Dale G. Harvey, teacher at Beaverton High, Portland, Ore.; 24 grandchildren, one great-grandchild and one brother in Washington.

Funeral services will be announced by Waggoner & Campbell Chapel with the Rev. Charles Nowlen, Epworth Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will follow in Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Memorials to the Epworth Methodist Church, Child Care Center, have been suggested by the family.

John Haugen Dies; Funeral Wednesday

John Martin Haugen, 79, 437 First Ave. E., died in Kallispell Sunday morning.

Mr. Haugen was born Aug. 10, 1888 in Oslo, Norway. In 1907 he came to America to live at Somers until 1912 when he moved to Canada and homesteaded near Vauxhall, Alta.

In 1923 he was married to Jennie Swenson Rydeen at Calgary. In 1928 the couple moved to Grass Range, Mont., where they lived until 1933 when they moved to Kallispell.

Mr. Haugen had been employed as a carpenter until his retirement about 12 years ago. He was a member of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Lodge 42, AF&AM, and the Carpenters Union Local 911.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother and is now survived by his widow, Jennie, at the family home; one son, John Haugen, Everett, Wash.; two stepsons, Fillmore Rydeen of East Lake Shore and Ervin Rydeen of Deer Lodge; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mr. Haugen will be conducted in the Johnson Chapel at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday with the Rev. C.O. Anderson, pastor of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, officiating. Interment will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggests friends who wish may contribute memorials to the Bethlehem Lutheran Church radio fund.

Mrs. Hawes Dies; Rites Announced

Mrs. Archibelle Hawes, 74, died in Kallispell Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Hawes was born Feb. 11, 1894 in Hurley, Wis. Mrs. Hawes grew to womanhood in Wisconsin and as a young woman moved to Stanley, N. D., where she was married to George Hawes and made her home there for almost 50 years.

Three years ago she, with her husband, moved to Kallispell and had made their home in the Creston Community. Mrs. Hawes was a member of the Catholic Ladies Aid of Stanley. She was preceded in death by her husband, George, Dec. 26, 1966. She was also preceded in death by one daughter, Mrs. Arthur (Lorraine) Irmen, June of last year and one son, Gordon, several years ago.

Mrs. Hawes is survived by eight children, Mrs. Duane (Virginia) LaBrant, Kallispell; Mrs. Arnold (Isabel) Amundson, Whitefish; Mrs. Richard (Vivian) O'Brien of Gary, Ind.; Mrs. Leonard (Irene) Burge of Gary, Ind.; Vernon Hawes of Stanley; Dean Hawes and George Hawes, both of Norfolk, Va.; Kenneth Hawes of Talent, Ore.; 37 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Rosary will be recited Friday at 8 p.m. in the Waggener & Campbell Chapel. Services will be Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Waggener & Campbell Chapel with Msgr. Michael J. Halligan officiating. Interment will follow in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

D. I. Hedge, 25, Dies While In California

Duane Jerry Hedge, 25, who resided at 304 Seventh Ave. W., Kalispell, died in Los Angeles Thursday.

Mr. Hedge was born June 22, 1942 at Havre, a son of Dewey and Lorraine Hedge. When he was eight years old he moved to Little Rock, Ark., where he attended schools and graduated from the Little Rock High School in 1961.

Sept. 13, 1961 he enlisted in the Navy at Little Rock and served until Sept. 12, 1963 when he was discharged aboard the USS Kenneth D. Bailey. Dec. 12, 1963 he re-enlisted in the Navy at New Orleans and had served until April 23, 1965 when he received his honorable discharge aboard the USS George Klymer.

Mr. Hedge had just completed training in heavy duty equipment mechanics and operations at a school at Weiser, Idaho. He had been visiting in California at the time of his death.

He was a member of the Baptist Church of Little Rock, Ark. He was preceded in death by his father in 1956, and is survived by his mother, Mrs. Lorraine Hedge, Kalispell; three brothers, Marvin and Clarence Hedge both of Kalispell and Dennis Hedge, Dodson; five sisters, Mrs. Arnold (Flora) Lind, Mrs. Leslie (Sadie) Rose and Norma Hedge, Kalispell; Mrs. Ronald (Janice) Gordon, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Mrs. Robert (Cheri) Smith, Woods Bay, and a number of aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives.

The body is being forwarded to Kalispell where funeral arrangements will be announced by the Johnson Funeral Home.

Mrs. May Hefty Dies At 89; Rites Pending

Mrs. May Hefty, 89, died at her home at Rt. 2, Kalispell, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Hefty was born July 17, 1878 at Clarno, Wis. She spent her early life in Wisconsin, and in 1898, was married to John Hefty at Monroe, Wis.

The couple later moved to North Dakota where they were engaged in farming at Crosby. Mr. Hefty died in 1940.

In 1960, Mrs. Hefty moved to Kalispell, where she has resided since. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church. She was also preceded in death by one son, Harold, and is survived by one son, Arnold Hefty, Bellevue, Wash.; one grandson and two nephews in Illinois.

Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Hefty are pending and will be announced by the Johnson Funeral Home.

James Hellman, 76, Dies; Funeral Rites Announced

James William Hellman, 76, died at his home at 36 Fifth Ave. W., Tuesday evening.

Mr. Hellman was born Jan. 28, 1892, at Hay Center, Neb. As a young boy, he moved with his family to Columbia Falls where he had attended schools. He later enlisted in the U.S. Army and had served in Company B of the 8th Division during World War I. Mr. Hellman was a retired U.S. Forest Service employe having been employed as an assistant ranger, smoke chaser and civilian conservation corps foreman for over 38 years, retiring in 1951. He was a member of the St. Matthew's Catholic Church, the Knights of Columbus and the World War I Barracks.

Nov. 14, 1922, he was married to Mary B. Lorenz of Britt, Iowa, and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by one son, Philip F. Hellman of Menlo Park, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Heister of Boise, Idaho, Mrs. Henrietta Irish of Missoula, and Mrs. Helen Benson of Boise, Idaho; one brother, Fred Hellman of Kalispell; three sisters, Helen Smith of Redmond, Ore., Lillie Tuma of Lebanon, Ore., and Mrs. Vincent (Agnes) Vlasak of Kalispell; nine grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and a number of nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by one son, William Hellman, in 1949 and by three sisters, Mary Weiss, Anna Weiss and Frances Winnett.

Rosary for Mr. Hellman will be recited in the Johnson Chapel at 8 p.m. Thursday. Requiem high mass will be celebrated in St. Matthew's Catholic Church at 10 a.m. Friday with the Rev. J. B. Plummer as celebrant. Interment will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery with military graveside rites being conducted by the Veterans of World War I.

E. P. Henkel Dies At 87; Rites Set

Edward P. Henkel, 87, died in Kalispell Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Henkel was born May 25, 1880 in Colby, Wis. He grew to manhood there and Nov. 6, 1901 was married to Clara Schuren. They made their home in Colby for a time and later in Loyal, Wis., until coming to Kalispell in 1935 to make their home at 435 Fourth Ave. E.

Mr. Henkel engaged in the carpentry trade until retiring in the early 1950s. He was a former member of the Modern Woodmen of America and was a Methodist.

He was preceded in death by his wife Sept. 13, 1948. He continued to make his home at the family home until 1952. Since that time he had lived with his daughter, Mrs. Wilbur (Arlee) Halberg at 485 Fourth Ave. E.N., Kalispell.

Besides his daughter Mr. Henkel is survived by four sons, Al Henkel, Vancouver, Wash.; Edgar Henkel, Phoenix, Ariz.; Frank Henkel, Lewistown, and Fred Henkel, Helena; five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mr. Henkel have been set Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. from the Waggener & Campbell Chapel with Rev. Charles Nowlen, pastor of Epworth Methodist Church, officiating.

Interment will follow in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Memorials of choice have been suggested by the family.

I. F. Hicks Dies In Spokane

Isaac Franklin Hicks died at his home in Spokane. He is a former Kalispell resident. Mr. Hicks had been a resident of the Spokane area for the past 26 years.

He is survived by four children, Mrs. Mary Ellis of New Boston, Tex., and Glen of Escondido, Calif., and Clarence and Sylvester, both of Spokane; two step-children, Mrs. Peggy Grubb of Spokane and Donald Brown of Portland, Ore.; 18 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Thursday, Oct. 24, in Gothic Chapel of Hazen & Jaeger Funeral Home, Spokane, at 2 p.m. Burial services will be at Spokane Memorial Gardens.

Arthur D. Hill Dies At 81; Retired Rancher

Arthur D. Hill, 81, Rollins, died in Polson hospital Thursday.

Mr. Hill was born Oct. 4, 1881 at Laurci, Ore. He was a retired cattle rancher having ranched at Niarada from 1947 until 1960.

He retired and moved to his home on the Flathead Lake two miles south of Rollins.

He is survived by his wife, L o t t i e, Rollins; three sons, Frank Hill, Thompson Falls, Glen Hill, Belknap, and Loran Hill, Sun River; one daughter, Mrs. Ruth Jacky, Portland, Ore.; seven grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mr. Hill will be conducted in the Mosley Chapel in Polson at 2 p.m. Monday. Interment will be in the Lakeview Cemetery.

Mrs. W. C. Hill Dies: Thursday Rites In Libby

Mrs. Wanda Cornelia Hill, 69, resident of Columbia Falls, died in Whitefish Sunday. Mrs. Hill was born Sept. 5, 1889 at Big Timber, a daughter of Charles and Viola Kelly. As a child, she moved with her parents to Miles City, where she graduated from the Miles City High School.

In 1920, she moved to Lewistown and was married to George Calder. The couple moved to Libby about 20 years ago, and Mr. Calder died in 1959.

Oct. 31, 1962, she was married to Dallas Hill at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. They continued to make their home in Libby until Feb. 1967, when they moved to Columbia Falls.

Mrs. Hill was a lifetime member of the Eagles Auxiliary of Lewistown and a member of the Ladies of the Moose. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Allen (Thelma) Uerling of Miles City; one son, Leon Denson, Miles City; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The body has been forwarded by the Austin Funeral Home to Gompf Funeral Home in Libby where funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Thursday with the Rev. Herbert C. Robinson, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Libby Cemetery.

Mrs. Hilliard Dies; Funeral Saturday

Mrs. Mary Hilliard, 80, Somers, died in Seattle Monday.

Mrs. Hilliard was born Dec. 13, 1888, at Emonton, Pa. She had received her education and spent her early life in Pennsylvania. July 11, 1906, she was married to Chester Hilliard at Emonton. They later moved to Montana where they had lived at Shelby and Great Falls. In 1926, they moved to Kremlin, where they resided until 1953, when they moved to Somers. Mrs. Hilliard had been in Seattle only a short time before her death.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Chester, Sept. 28, 1955, and is now survived by three sons, Lyle of Oilmont, Wayne of Somers and Raymond of Great Falls; three daughters, Mrs. Ruth Plotke of Wells, Nev.; Mrs. Nellie Bushong of Gladwin, Mich., and Mrs. Bettie Ballah of Auburn, Wash.; one brother, John Hilliard and two sisters, Alice Zacharias and Minnie Leslie, all in Pennsylvania; and a number of grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hilliard are being planned for 11:30 a.m. Saturday in the Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Charles Nowlen, pastor of the Epworth Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Hockaday Funeral Friday Afternoon

Funeral services for Hugh B. Hockaday, 75, Lakeside, who died Tuesday, will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. in the Waggener & Campbell Chapel with J. Torrance Harvey of the Lakeside Chapel officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

HUGH B. HOCKADAY

Mr. Hockaday was born Dec. 2, 1892 in Little Rock, Ark. He made his home in various communities until his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. Hockaday, came to the Flathead in 1910. The family purchased the Dr. Adelbert orchard and ranch near Lakeside, in the area now known as Hockaday Bay on Flathead Lake.

Mr. Hockaday made his home there until going to St. Louis where he attended and graduated from Washington University School of Fine Art. After completing the university there he established his own art studio and was engaged in commercial art. He later was employed for 15 years by Scruggs, Vanvervoort and Barney. While with that firm he became interested in animated art displays; and through the years that interest contributed much to his profession.

July 4, 1946, Mr. Hockaday returned to the Flathead and had made his home since at the family home near Lakeside where he engaged in orchard ranching and continued in his profession of art. He was a community and civic worker. Mr. Hockaday was a charter member of the Lakeside Chapel and had designed both the chapel and addition. He was a member of the board of directors of the Flathead Lake Methodist Camp near Rollins.

Mr. Hockaday had worked for many years in boy scouting and was active on the council. He was a member of Bigfork Lodge 150 AF&AM, a member of the Montana Institute of Arts, a former member of the Lay Board of the Kalispell General Hospital and a member of Kalispell Kiwanis Club.

Dec. 25, 1937, he was married to Ethel Lucille Crane and is now survived by her at the family home near Lakeside.

He is also survived by one son, Hugh, of Lakeside, and three cousins.

Attend Funeral Rites For Mrs. Hoiland

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hoiland, Mrs. Don Peterson and Mrs. Charles Price have been in Portland, Ore., to attend the funeral of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Egil J. Hoiland, nee Verlie Webster. Mrs. Hoiland died April 25. Funeral services were at the Ross Hollywood Chapel with burial in the Rose City Cemetery.

Mrs. Hoiland was born in Idaho Feb. 3, 1906, and moved to Kalispell after the deaths of her parents where she made her home with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Proff. She graduated from the Flathead County High School with the class of 1924.

Survivors are two sons, Donald and Roger, and a daughter, Mrs. Duncan McKiernan (Vivian), all of Aberdeen, Wash., besides her widower.

K. G. Holand Dies; Rites Announced

Kristian Gerhard Holand, 80, longtime resident of Somers, died Thursday evening in Kalispell.

Mr. Holand was born Oct. 16, 1887 in Rorvick, Norway. He came to the United States in 1906 and settled for a time in Spokane. In 1910 he moved to Somers where he spent the rest of his life. He was married in 1910 to Anna Breimo in Somers and from then until 1918 worked on Flathead Lake for Hodge Navigation.

From 1918 until 1944 he was employed by the Somers Lumber Company as a contract worker. Following this he spent a year fishing in Alaska and came back to Somers to live and worked for the American Timber Co., until his retirement about 15 years ago.

Mr. Holand was a longtime member of Lodge 42, AF&AM.

Surviving him are his widow, Anna, Somers; three sons, Elmer and Leonard of Somers, and Ted of Westport, Wash.; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; a brother and a sister in Norway. Another brother, Ole, preceded him in death during his recent illness.

Funeral services for Mr. Holand are tentatively set for Monday at 2 p.m. from the Waggener & Campbell Chapel with burial in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

It has been suggested by the family that those wishing to give memorials may donate to the Yellowstone Boys Ranch, the Shrine Hospital or the charity of their choice.

Services Friday For James Oliver Hoppe

James Oliver Hoppe, 52, resident of Albany, N. Y., died May 26 in the Medical Center in Albany.

Mr. Hoppe, son of August and Johanna Hoppe, was born May 15, 1916 in Helena. He attended elementary and high school in Somers and Kalispell, graduating from Flathead County High School in 1934. He received his bachelor degree from the University of Montana in 1940 and did graduate work at the University of Kansas and University of Montana for a master of science degree.

He received his doctor degree in pharmacology from the University of Maryland in 1945. He became a research chemist for the field of medical research with Sterling - Winthrop Research Institute in Albany, N.Y.

He gained world-wide renown for his research studies of pharmaceutical agents containing iodine used by radiologists in diagnosing internal organs and other structures. He also developed a new curare-like compound used in major operations which produces a desired muscular relaxation. For these and others he was presented highest honors, The Winthrop Award for distinguished achievement.

Mr. Hoppe presented papers at many American universities plus international medical institutes including Norway, Sweden and South America. Mr. Hoppe was married to Christine Warren of Glendive Dec. 23, 1944. He is survived by her and three children: Margaret, a sophomore at American University, Wash. D. C.; Jean, a high school senior at Delmar, N. Y., and Anne, a high school freshman at home; his mother, Mrs. Gus Hoppe, Somers; sister, Mrs. Noel M. (Jean) Gies, Los Angeles.

Memorial services for Mr. Hoppe were conducted Tuesday in Albany and funeral services are set for Friday at 2 p.m. from the Waggener & Campbell Chapel with the Rev. Thomas R. Best, Christ Church (Episcopal), officiating. Interment will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

C. R. Houseman Dies; Rites Saturday At 11

Clarence Raymond Houseman, 71, died at his home in Kalispell Monday afternoon.

Funeral services have been set for Saturday at 11 a.m. from the Waggener & Campbell Chapel with the Rev. Fred Paxton, Central Christian Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery with military graveside rites.

Mr. Houseman was born Feb. 12, 1897 in Greenridge, Mo., the son of William and Louisa Houseman. Dec. 25, 1923, he was married to Myrtle Clemmens in Hebron, Neb. They moved to Brooks, Alta., Canada in 1929 and homesteaded until moving to Tacoma, Wash., in 1943 where he ran a second hand store.

In 1946 he moved to Kalispell where he made his home at 54 Fourth Ave. W.N., and sold insurance. Mr. Houseman was a veteran of World War I. He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Charlie and Harry and two sisters, Martha and May.

He is survived by his widow, Myrtle, at home; one son, Ellis, Missoula; four daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Utley, Aurora, Utah; Mrs. Donna Hilton, Missoula; Mrs. Ramona Cornlassel, Kalispell, and Mrs. Gail Palmer, Missoula; two brothers, Henry and George, Brooks, Alta.; six sisters, Mrs. Mary Holt, Mrs. Bertha Grove, and Mrs. Rose Abers, all of Nebraska, and Mrs. Grace Nicholson, Mrs. Inez Nelson and Mrs. Lillie Mathiason, all of California. There are 14 grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Anna Huffman, Eureka, Dies; Rites Friday

EUREKA — Anna Huffman, 87, died Tuesday in Libby. Services will be Friday at 2 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Eureka with the Rev. Carl Pershall officiating. Interment will be in Tobacco Valley Cemetery.

Mrs. Huffman was born Feb. 13, 1881, in New York. She moved with her parents as an infant to Augusta and in 1911 she moved to Eureka with her husband, William Heber. He died in 1911. In 1912 she married William H. Huffman and he died in 1947.

Survivors are three daughters, Gladys Stacy, Eureka; Helen Heber, Eureka; and Bertha Nottingham, Portland, Ore.; three sons, Roy Huffman, Eureka; Claude Huffman, Seattle; and William Heber, St. Helens, Ore.; three children preceded her in death.

E. B. Hutchins Dies; Funeral Rites Pending

WHITEFISH—Ellsworth Britton Hutchins, 83, died in Kalispell Friday afternoon.

Mr. Hutchins was born Sept. 29, 1884, in Michigan. He had been a resident of the Flathead Valley for the past 46 years and had made his home on Highway 2 south of Columbia Falls.

He is survived by one son, Elmer, in Washington.

Funeral services for Mr. Hutchins will be announced by the Austin Funeral Home.

tax is opposed by him as a sol-

John P. Hutton, 81 Dies; Rites Wednesday

John P. Hutton, 81, passed away in Kalispell Friday evening.

He was born Aug. 1, 1886, in Clairmont, Minn. He spent his childhood in Clairmont and later moving with his family to Clear Lake, S.D., where they resided until 1904 when Mr. Hutton filed on a homestead in Canada. He was married on July 9, 1907, in Oxbow, Sask., to Ethel House.

They continued to make their home in Canada until 1913 when they came to Montana and homesteaded in Turner. In 1938 the family came to the Flathead where Mr. Hutton farmed until his retirement in 1957. He was a member of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

Mr. Hutton is survived by his widow, Ethel, at the family home 514 Fourth Ave. W., two sons, Jack and Lester, both of Kalispell; three daughters, Sarah McMartin of Didsbury, Alta., Florence Hader of Kalispell, Velma Colberg of Litchfield, Minn.; 15 grandchildren, 39 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren; one brother, Guy Hutton of Turner; one sister, Olive Silliker of Whitefish; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Mr. Hutton was preceded in death by three brothers and one sister.

Funeral services for Mr. Hutton have been set for Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the Waggener & Campbell Chapel.