

Carroll Jackson Dies In Logging Accident; Funeral Pending

18 Aug 1970
19 Aug 70

Carroll Jackson, 39, died Tuesday afternoon of injuries sustained in a logging accident near the Deer Horn Mountain Road 9½ miles southwest of the Thompson River Road.

Mr. Jackson was employed by the Sverdsten Logging Co., Superior, and was crushed beneath a tree he was falling. He had been working with the firm for four days.

According to the owner of the firm, Dale A. Sverdsten, a rotten spruce tree that Mr. Jackson was falling was caught by the wind and hit another tree, kicking back and landing on him.

Mr. Jackson died while en route to Thompson Falls airport in a Sanders County deputy sheriff's car where a plane was to take him to a Missoula hospital.

Mr. Jackson, minister for the Church Of Christ in Kalispell, was born in Roseville, Mich., to Clifford and Rose Jackson. He served in the U.S. Navy for three years and then attended New Mexico University in 1955 and 1956. He was married to Wanda Landa White Aug. 18, 1955, in Lariat, Tex. He then attended the University of Montana at Missoula for a year in 1960.

He has had churches at Maple, Tex., Sanderson, Tex., Delhi, Calif., Lariat, and Kalispell.

Surviving him are his widow, Wanda; two daughters, Debra Diane and Sarah Belinda, and a son, Stephen Paul, all at home; a brother, Chuck Jackson; his mother, Rose Fowler of Voyna, Mich., and several nieces and nephews.

Service arrangements will be announced by the Waggener & Campbell Funeral Home.

Missoula Man Killed In Auto Crash In France

19 Aug 1970
VALENCIENNES, France (AP) — Robert Jensen, 28, of Missoula, (Mont.), was killed Wednesday night in an auto accident that also claimed the lives of three other persons, police said.

Jensen, a basketball player for the Denain Club, lived in nearby Douchy-les-Mines. Police said he signed on with the team about a year ago.

Authorities said the car in which he was riding hit a tree and crashed into a truck parked on a roadside near here.

D. C. Jackson Drowns In Oregon River

D 23 May 1970
Donald C. Jackson, 33, Springfield, Ore., former Kalispell resident, drowned Saturday afternoon in the McKenzie River near Eugene, according to word received here by friends today. As of Sunday night, the body had not been recovered.

Mr. Jackson lived here until about 1961 when he moved to Springfield where he was employed in a lumber mill. He is survived by his widow, two sons and a daughter.

The body of Donald C. Jackson, former Kalispell resident, was recovered from the McKenzie River, near Springfield, Ore., about 5 p.m. Monday, relatives here report.

Mr. Jackson, son of Mrs. Lucy and the late George Jackson of Kalispell, drowned May 23.

Mrs. Jackson and other relatives left today for Springfield where funeral rites and interment will be conducted.

Car-Truck Crash Kills Young Pair

D-14 Feb. 1970
PLENTYWOOD (AP) — Two teen-agers were killed and another critically injured Saturday in a car-truck collision about eight miles east of Reserve on Secondary 258.

Dead on arrival at a hospital in Plentywood were Lyle A. Jensen, 16, and Elaine Jo Jensen, both of Dagmar. Hospitalized in "very critical" condition was Paulette J. Thuresen, 17, also of Dagmar.

Investigating officers said the three were in a car which collided head-on with a truck driven by Hans Larsen of Reserve. The report said the Jensen youth was driving and apparently was attempting to pass another truck when the accident occurred.

Officers said the highway was snowcovered and visibility was near zero.

Lyle was the son of Mrs. Lucille Jensen and Elaine Jo the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Jensen. The Thuessen girl's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Thuessen.

The deaths raised Montana's 1970 traffic fatality to 29, compared with 14 on the same date last year.

Helena Man
Road Victim

HELENA (AP) — Jay D. Janey, 46, of Helena, was killed late Friday night when the car he was driving plunged off a gravel road northeast of Helena and overturned.

Lewis and Clark County Sheriff Dave Middlemas said Janey was returning from a family outing at Canyon Ferry Reservoir when the accident occurred.

He said the car went off the side of the road and overturned into a 10-foot deep borrow pit. Middlemas said the car apparently rolled over Janey.

The death was the 181st of the year on Montana's highways and streets, compared with 197 on this date one year ago.

Troy Man Dies In Woods Accident

3 Feb 70
LIBBY — Lincoln County authorities are continuing to investigate aspects of a woods accident which resulted in the death of Charles Jellesed, 24, Troy. He was killed about 3:30 p.m. in the Lake Creek drainage 14 miles southwest of Troy when he was struck on the head by a log.

Sheriff John Fisher and Coroner Hal Gompf reported no witnesses to the accident. Jellesed was a member of a three-man crew working a skidding-jammer. He was hooking logs on the downhill side of the operation. The woods crew reported the log had come loose once and had been hooked back on the cable again. Apparently it came loose a second time and struck Jellesed inflicting the fatal injury.

He is survived by his parents at Spokane, and has other relatives in the Northwest Montana area.
