

Clyde Saddler Dies Friday, Funeral Monday

Clyde M. Saddler, 76, 742 14th St. E., died in Kalispell Friday. He was born Feb. 19, 1895, at Graettinger, Iowa, a son of Arthur and Clarisa Saddler. When he was 12 years of age he moved with his family to North Dakota for a short time and later moved to Minnesota.

He had lived at Puposky, Minn., where he was a mail carrier for 38 years prior to his retirement. Three years ago he moved to Kalispell where he has since resided. Mr. Saddler was a veteran of World War I having served in the U. S. Army. He was a member of Our Redeemer Lutheran Church of Puposky and the American Legion.

June 19, 1917, he married Grace Derand at Winnepeg, Minn., and is now survived by her at the family home. He is also survived by three daughters, Mrs. Helen Norgaard, Missoula; Mrs. Lucille Stevens, Kennewick, Wash., and Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Kalispell; nine grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren and two brothers, M. B. Saddler, Walker, Minn., and Harlam Saddler, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Funeral services for Mr. Saddler will be at 11 a.m. Monday in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church with the Rev. H. Peder Waldum officiating. Interment will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery. The family suggest memorials to Yellowstone Boys Ranch.

PAGE TWO The Daily Inter Lake, Thursday, January 14, 1971

Former Whitefish Yardmaster Dies At 66, Services Pending

WHITEFISH—Frank Sagan, 66, died at his home, 341 Kallispell Ave., Whitefish Wednesday. He was born April 19, 1904, at Dunsmuir, N.D., a son of Karl and Annie Sagan.

As a young boy he moved with his family to Columbia Falls where he received his education. In 1930 he moved to Whitefish and had resided there since. He had been employed as a yardmaster for the Great Northern Railway, and in later years had been employed as a switchman foreman continuing with the Burlington Northern. He retired about 18 months ago.

He was of the Catholic faith and was a member of the Switchmen Union. Jan. 12, 1920, he married Mary Powell at Columbia Falls. The couple celebrated their golden anniversary Tuesday. Mr. Sagan is survived by his widow; two sons, Robert, Whitefish, and Frank, Jr., Portland, Ore.; three daughters, Mrs. John (Helen) Baker and Mrs. Gladys McCartney, both of Whitefish, and Mrs. William (Betty) Shanahan, San Jose, Calif.; his mother, Annie Sagan, Whitefish; nine grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; three brothers, John, Whitefish; Melvin, Moses Lake, Wash. and Herbert, Anacosta; two sisters, Mrs. Alice Shaw, Whitefish and Mrs. Lloyd Graving, Olympia, Wash., and a number of other relatives.

Funeral arrangements for Mr. Sagan will be announced later by the Austin Funeral Home.

FLOWERS
BY HANSEN
Call Anytime
756-3954
(For Every Occasion)

Greene Floral
892-5559
Columbia Falls,
Mont.

"We have loved them in life,
let us not forget them in death." (St. Ambrose)

SWINGLEY, James
Fredrick, 75, Rt. 1-B,
Columbia Falls, passed away Monday. Graveside services Saturday, 11 a.m. in Woodlawn Cemetery.
Family and friends will meet at Van Leuven
Funeral Home prior to going to cemetery.

VAN LEUVEN
FUNERAL HOME
Columbia Falls Phone 892-4289

FLATHEAD FLORAL

Mabel O. Sagen Dies Friday, Services Monday

Mrs. Mabel Olive Sagen, 58, Troy, died in Libby Friday. She was born Feb. 13, 1913, at Crafton, N.D., a daughter of Mence and Hilda Mohn. She received her early education in North Dakota.

About 1925 she moved to Kalispell where she attended Flathead High School. May 6, 1933, she married Arvid Sagen in Kalispell. The couple continued to live here until 1951 when they moved to Troy where they have since resided. Mrs. Sagen was a member of the VFW Auxiliary.

She is survived by her widower at Troy; three sons, Wally, Kalispell; Bruce and Ellis Sagen, both of Troy; one daughter, Mrs. Gilbert (Arlene) Bito, Troy; her mother, Mrs. Hilda Mohn, Kalispell; two brothers, Earl Mohn, Kalispell, and Martin Mohn in the U.S. Army in Germany; three sisters, Mrs. Don (Norma) Bardwell and Mrs. Harry (Caroline) Hart, both of Kalispell, and Mrs. Glen (Evelyn) Johnston, Arlee; 11 grandchildren and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sagen will be 1:30 p.m. Monday in the Johnson Chapel. Interment will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggest memorials to the American Cancer Society.

Elva Sallee Dies Tuesday

COLUMBIA FALLS — Elva M. Sallee, 81, Columbia Falls, died in Hot Springs Tuesday. He was born in Cedar County, Mo., March 30, 1890. He lived in Missouri until 1910 when he moved to Bozeman and made his home there where he engaged in carpentering.

In August 1910 he married Grace Keith who preceded him in death in May 1956. In October 1957 he married Kathleen Purden.

In April 1969, Mr. Sallee came to Columbia Falls to make his home.

He is survived by one son, Hulbert O. Sallee, Columbia Falls; three brothers, Robert Sallee living in Oklahoma, Harry and Tom Sallee both living in Missouri, and one sister, Mrs. Addie Robinson living in Missouri, and several nieces and nephews.

The body of Mr. Sallee will lie in state at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls this evening. Friday the body will be taken to Bozeman where graveside services will be Saturday morning in the Sunset Hills Cemetery.

The family has suggested memorials to the American Cancer Society.

Sargent Funeral Was Saturday

SOMERS — Kenneth Lee Sargent, 41, died Thursday at his home in Somers. He was born Feb. 14, 1930, at Helena, a son of Charles and Frances Sargent. As a child he moved to Havre where he received his education. He had been employed as a welder for Montana Power Co. at Havre, Glasgow and Kalispell.

He was employed by the Pluna Creek Lumber Company at the time of his death. He had been a resident of the Flathead for the past 14 years. Mr. Sargent is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sargent, Havre and his children, Cindy, Robert, Sandy, Sheila, Sharon and Destiny Sargent all of Livingston. Funeral services for Mr. Sargent were conducted in the Johnson Chapel on Saturday with the Rev. James Bartz, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, officiating. Interment was in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Dan Saurey Dies At 42, Plan Rites

COLUMBIA FALLS — Dan Edward Saurey, 42, died at Warm Springs Monday. He was born at Columbia Falls Feb. 12, 1929, the son of Clarence and Edna Saurey. He received his education in Columbia Falls and was employed by Stoltze Lumber Co. and by Anaconda Aluminum Co.

Oct. 27, 1950, he married Donna Haines at Kalispell. Three years ago he made his home at Libby where he was employed by St. Regis Lumber Co. and recently had been employed by Anaconda Copper Co., at Anaconda.

He is survived by three daughters, Debra Ann Saurey, Spokane, Susan Marie and Janet Kay of Columbia Falls; his father, Clarence Saurey and one sister, Mrs. Bonnie Konen, both of Columbia Falls.

Funeral services will be announced by the Van Leuven Funeral Home.

T. R. Schaffer Dies At 67, Rites Friday

HOT SPRINGS — Theodore R. Schaffer, 67, died in Hot Springs Wednesday. He was born in 1904 in Oregon and moved to Camas Prairie in 1910. He was a graduate of Thompson Falls High School and married Florence McAdams in 1933 at Polson.

He owned and operated a service station at Hot Springs and was a former city councilman. He is survived by his widow; two sons, Darold, Morgan Hill, Calif., and Stanley, Kent, Wash.; a daughter, Mrs. Janet Fay Toth, Hot Springs; a brother, Dale, Portland; a sister, Mrs. May Bauer, Billings and six grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mr. Schaffer will be conducted at 11:30 a.m. Friday in the Presbyterian Church of Hot Springs with the Rev. Richard England officiating. Interment will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens, Kallispell, where ritualistic Masonic graveside rites will be conducted. Arrangements are under the direction of the Strider Funeral Home.

Hannah M. Schnackenberg, 66, Dies Saturday, Rites Tuesday

Mrs. Margaret Hannah Schnackenberg, 66, Marion, died in Kallispell Saturday. Mrs. Schnackenberg was born May 18, 1905, at Tecumseh, Neb., a daughter of James and Leah Kinniburgh. She received her early education at Cook and Sterling, Neb., and later moved to Grand Island where she attended business college for a year.

May 25, 1927, she married Henry Schnackenberg near Cook, Neb. They had made their home on a farm at Gothenburg for several years and had also lived at Circle, and Douglas, Neb. In 1933, they moved to Sterling, Neb., where they lived until 1943 when they moved to Marion. Mrs. Schnackenberg was a member of the Marion Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, April 7, 1966 and two brothers, James and Frank Kinniburgh and is now survived by three sons, Harold and Raymond, both of Marion, and Edwin, Libby; six grandchildren; four brothers, John, George K., William and Theodore Kinniburgh, all of Marion; three sisters, Mary Booth, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; Amy Smith and Elinor Mothka, both of Marion, and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services for Mrs. Schnackenberg will at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Lloyd Markley, pastor of the Marion Baptist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Hellen Schneider Dies Friday; Plan Services

WHITEFISH — Mrs. Helle Allen Schneider, 80, 11 Kalispell Ave., Whitefish, died in Missoula Friday. She was born Aug. 8, 1890, at Pony, Mont., daughter of Fredrick and Juli Mae Stock. She had received her early education at Pony and later moved to Deer Lodge where she completed her education.

In 1911 she married Heinz Schneider at Helena. They moved to Whitefish where they had resided since. He preceded her in death Nov. 14, 1958. Mrs. Schneider was a member of the Lady of the Moose of Whitefish, secretary for the Womens Benevolent Association and a member of the Sons and Daughters of Montana Pioneers.

She is survived by one son, Harold, Polson; three grandchildren; four great-grandchildren and five sisters, Gertrude Martha, Roseville, Calif.; Flora Jackson, Mable Edward and Agnes Giles, all of Walla Walla, Wash., and Myrtle, McCall, Idaho. Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Schneider will be announced by the Austin Funeral Home.

Fairy L. Scholz Dies Sunday, Rites Pending

WHITEFISH — Mrs. Fairy Luverna Scholz, 71, 444 Columbia Ave. Whitefish, died in Houston, Texas, Sunday. She was born Sept. 13, 1899 at Torrington, Wyo. She received her education in Wyoming.

Sept. 14, 1922, she married Al J. Scholz at Douglas, Wyo. The couple continued to live in Wyoming until 1940 when they moved to Whitefish where they have since resided. They had owned and operated the Gambles Store in Whitefish until 1956 when they sold their interests.

Mrs. Scholz was a member of the Christian Church; Rebekah Mountain View Lodge 78; American Legion Auxiliary Post 108; Whitefish Womens Club; Royal Neighbors of America and the Fort Nightly Study Club.

She is survived by her widower at home; one son, Arthur Scholz, Coco Beach, Fla.; two daughters, Mrs. Robert (Meridith) McMurdo, Houston, and Mrs. Gunner (Margaret) Butler Jr., Colorado Springs, Colo.; eight grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. J. B. Warren, Santa Rosa, Calif.

Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Scholz will be announced by the Austin Funeral Home.

C. E. Schrock Dies; Rites Announced

C. E. "Ed" Schrock, 85, Rt. 3, Kalispell, died at the Immanuel Lutheran Home Thursday morning.

Mr. Schrock was born Oct. 25, 1885, at Hartline, Wash., a son of James and Sarah Ellen Schrock. He had received his education in Washington having attended Cheney Teachers College. He then homesteaded in the Leaby, Wash. area. In 1930 he moved to the Flathead Valley and purchased the Doll Ranch in Pleasant Valley. He ranched there until about 10 years ago when he retired and moved to his present home west of Kalispell.

Mr. Schrock was a member of the Western Montana Stockmans Assn. and was a past master of the Pleasant Valley Grange.

In 1935, he was married to Frances Wells in Kalispell and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by one daughter, Mrs. Robert (Betty Bailey) Pokorny of Birmingham, Mich.; one granddaughter, Pamela of Birmingham; two brothers, Joe and Dave Schrock, both of Hartline; two sisters, Vera Leitzow of San Diego, Calif. and Clara Higginbotham of Hartline.

Funeral services for Mr. Schrock will be conducted in the Johnson Chapel at 11 a.m. Saturday with the Rev. Fred Paxton, pastor of the Central Christian Church, officiating.

Following the services the body will be forwarded to the Robertson Funeral Home at Wilbur, Wash. Funeral services and interment are being planned for 11 a.m. Monday at the Hartline Methodist Church.

Frank Schroth Dies Sunday, Rites Thursday

COLUMBIA FALLS — Frank C. Schroth, 72, Columbia Falls, died at his home Sunday. He was born at Meadow Brook, Minn., Nov. 9, 1898, the son of Charles and Lavina Schroth.

He grew up and attended schools in Minnesota and was later employed by the D. C. Dunham Lumber Co., Bemidji, Minn., where he worked until August 1957, when he transferred to Columbia Falls and worked as a planerman at Plum-Creek Lumber Company.

Mr. Schroth retired one and one-half years ago.

Dec. 1, 1934, he married Inez May at Bemidji and is now survived by her at their home. He is also survived by three brothers, Fred Schroth, Columbia Falls; Charles and John T. Schroth, both of Bemidji and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by two sisters and one brother.

Funeral services for Mr. Schroth have been set for 2 p.m. Thursday from the Van Leuven Chapel with Rev. Ray Davis of the United Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

The family has suggested memorials to the Montana Heart

Fred Schroth Dies Tuesday, Rites Saturday

COLUMBIA FALLS — Fred E. Schroth, 75, who had made his home on Fourth Avenue West, Columbia Falls, died in Whitefish Tuesday. He was born at Motley, Minn., April 28, 1896. He grew up in Minnesota and in 1918 entered the U.S. Army and served with the 313th Engineers.

Following his discharge in 1919 he returned to Minnesota and worked for the D. C. Dunham Lumber Co. at Bemidji. In 1945 he came to Columbia Falls and worked for Plum-Creek Lumber Co. until his retirement due to ill health.

He married Frances B. Toftum at Bagley, Minn., April 9, 1934, and is now survived by her at their home in Columbia Falls. He is also survived by one son, James Schroth, Columbia Falls; two grandchildren; two brothers, Charles and John, both of Bemidji, and several nephews and nieces.

Funeral services for Mr. Schroth have been set for 2 p.m. Saturday from the Van Leuven Chapel with Pastor Douglas Thorkelson of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church officiating. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery with military graveside honors by Flathead County veterans.

PAGE TWO The Daily Inter Lake

Inez Schroth Funeral Monday

COLUMBIA FALLS — Mrs. Inez Schroth, age 61, 219 Third Ave. W., Columbia Falls, died in Whitefish Thursday. She was born March 10, 1910, in Beltrami County, Minnesota. She made her home in the Bemidji area and Dec. 1, 1934 married Frank C. Schroth at Bemidji. They continued to make their home there until moving to Columbia Falls in August 1957.

Mrs. Schroth had been an active member of the Rebekah Lodge, the Royal Neighbors of America and the Methodist Church of Columbia Falls.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Sept. 12 and is now survived by a number of nephews and nieces.

Funeral services for Mrs. Schroth will be at 2 a.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Rosary Tonight For Leo Schulte

COLUMBIA FALLS — Leo John Schulte, 76, Columbia Falls, died in Whitefish Wednesday. He was born at Hartington, Neb., July 13, 1894. He grew up in Nebraska and attended school there.

He then enlisted in the U.S. Army and served during World War I. Following his discharge he returned to Nebraska and engaged in carpentering, a trade he continued to follow working on construction in various states. During World War II he was employed on defense construction in Oregon and Washington.

In the spring of 1947 he moved to Columbia Falls and was employed on construction of Hungry Horse Dam and the Anaconda aluminum plant retiring in 1956.

Oct. 3, 1936, he married Edith A. Knutson at Valley City, N.D.; and is survived by her at their home in Columbia Falls; two sons, Leo "Butch" Schulte, Columbia Falls and William Stark Schulte with the Sea Bee's stationed at Barbers Point, Hawaii; two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth (Carole) Bell and Mrs. Bill (Sherry) Martindale, both of Columbia Falls; three grandchildren; four brothers, August Schulte, Hallock, Minn., Robert and Anton Schulte, Hardington, Neb., and Paul Schulte of Wynot, Neb., and by one sister, Mrs. Thresa Rube, Hallock, Minn.

Rosary for Mr. Schulte will be recited this evening at 7:30 in St. Richard's Catholic Church. The funeral mass will be celebrated Saturday at 10 a.m. from St. Richard's Catholic Church with Rev. Father Robert J. Hartman as celebrant. Interment will follow with military graveside rites in St. Richard's Catholic Cemetery.

Merlin Scott Funeral Friday

EUREKA — Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. in the Eureka Baptist Church for Merlin E. Scott, 77, who died at his home Tuesday. The Rev. Carl Pershall will officiate and burial will be in the Tobacco Valley Cemetery under the direction of the Gompf Funeral Home. Masonic and military graveside rites will be conducted.

Mr. Scott was born May 26, 1894, in Bondurant, Iowa, and was educated in Iowa and Kalispell. He came to Eureka in 1905 and was an electrician until his retirement when he became a custodian at the U.S. Customs Service Station at Roosville.

He married Addie Brock Aug. 20, 1919, at Gateway after serving in the Army during World War I. He was a member of the Masonic lodge, Order of Eastern Star, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Christian Church.

He is survived by his widow in Eureka; a son, Everett, Colorado Springs, Colo.; a daughter, Mrs. Garold Kjelstrup, Glasgow; three brothers, Cleo, Woodburn, Ore., and Leslie and Lavern, both of Portland; three sisters, Myra Kullowatz and Louise Pomeroy, both of Woodburn; and Lyla Gardner, Portland; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Ben See Dies Tuesday; Plan Rites At Glasgow

M. Ben See, 83, 303 Pheasant Drive, Kalispell, died Tuesday in Kalispell. Mr. See was born Jan. 20, 1888, in Zearing, Iowa, where he received his education.

In 1902 he moved with his family to Hinsdale. He was a veteran of World War I. Following service he returned to Hinsdale, where he ranched. April 12, 1920, he married Emma Gaetzke in Missoula. They continued to live on their ranch at Hinsdale until four years ago when Mr. See retired and they moved to the Flathead. He was a member of the American Legion at Hinsdale.

Mr. See is survived by his widow at the family home; one son, Corbin See, Glasgow; one daughter, Mrs. Clarence Romain, Chester, and 11 grandchildren. The body will lie in state at the Johnson Funeral Home until 9 this evening and will be forwarded to the Bell Funeral Home in Glasgow.

Funeral services for Mr. See have tentatively been set for Friday at 2 p.m. from the Bell Chapel. Interment will be in Hinsdale Cemetery.

Cecil Seek Dies; Rites Friday At 2

Cecil Marvin Seek, 69, 407 East Evergreen, died in Kalispell Wednesday morning.

Mr. Seek was born Oct. 20, 1901, at Columbia Falls, a son of James and Anna Seek.

He had attended school in Lake Blaine and Kalispell having attended Flathead County High School. He was a sawmill worker and had been employed by various mills throughout the Flathead Valley until his retirement. He was a member of the Eagles Lodge 234.

Aug. 23, 1930, he was married to Helen Koford at Cut Bank and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by two sons, Darrel Seek of Warm Springs, Ark., and James Seek of Hungry Horse; one daughter, Phyllis Caldwell of Las Vegas, Nev.; 11 grandchildren; one sister, LaDessa Kyseth of Junction City, Ore., and his stepfather, Ed Wilke of Evergreen.

He was preceded in death by his father, James Seek in September 1936 and by his mother, Anna Wilke in May 1971.

Funeral services for Mr. Seek will be conducted in the Johnson Chapel at 2 p.m. Friday with the Rev. Clarence Loewen, pastor of the Central Bible Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Donald Sempf Dies At Home, Funeral Monday

SWAN LAKE—Donald Charles Sempf, 42, died at Swan Lake Thursday. He was born April 21, 1929, in Kalispell to Nina and Fred W. Sempf. He received his education in Kalispell and graduated from Flathead High School. He later worked for Consolidated Freightways along with having held other jobs.

Feb. 1, 1951 he entered the U.S. Army and was discharged Jan. 18, 1953. He served with Co. "A", 59th Signal Bn., 16th Corp. After his discharge he was an assistant surveyor until his disability due to health forced him to retire about three years ago. He was preceded in death by a brother and his mother.

He is now survived by three children, Deborah Sempf, Kalispell, Denise and Daryll Sempf both of Medford, Ore.; his father Fred W. Sempf, Swan Lake; and a brother Eugene Sempf, Anchorage, Alaska.

Funeral services have been tentatively set for Monday at 2 p.m. in the Johnson Chapel with Dr. Odin A. Baugh of the First Presbyterian Church officiating. Interment will follow in Conrad Memorial Cemetery with military graveside rites.

Lillian E. Shaw Dies At 86, Rites Thursday

Lillian E. Shaw, 86, died in Alliance, Neb., Saturday. Mrs. Shaw was born on July 25, 1884 in Sheridan, Wyo., to Lamantha and Charles George. She received her education in Sheridan.

April 29, 1933 she married Frank Newton Shaw in Sheridan and the couple continued to live there until 1936 when they moved to Kaiispell. They made their residence here until Mr. Shaw died in 1968. Mrs. Shaw then moved to Alliance to live with her stepson C. Dan Coleman.

Mrs. Shaw is also survived by three grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren and a niece.

Funeral services for Mrs. Shaw have been set for Thursday at 10:30 a.m. in the Waggener & Campbell Chapel with interment in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Sophia Shaw, 95, Dies At Polson Rites In Malta

POLSON — Sophia Shaw, 95, Polson, died Wednesday in Polson. She was born in Canada in 1875 and is survived by a son, Kenneth Shaw, Dover, N.H.; a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Schandelmier, Polson; 19 grandchildren; 43 great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren and two sisters, both in the eastern states.

The body will be forwarded to Malta by the Mostey Funeral Home where funeral services will take place Monday. Burial will be in the Dodson Cemetery.

Gerald Sherman Dies Friday In California

WHITEFISH -- Word has been received of the death of Gerald Sherman, 56, son of Mr. and Mrs. Deane Sherman, 505 Spokane Ave., Whitefish. He died Friday at San Francisco. He was a graduate of Whitefish High School and later attended Willamette University, Salem, Ore.

In 1938 he entered the U. S. Navy, serving during World War II and the Korean conflict. In 1961 he received a medical discharge from the Navy. He was a life member of the Methodist Church and was a member of Whitefish Masonic Lodge 64 AF&AM and the Scottish Rite.

He is survived by his parents; his widow Dorothy; one son, John, three daughters, Mary Jo, Judy and Nancy, and four grandchildren, all of Castro Valley, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Rudy Loendertsen, Seattle, and three brothers, Kenneth, Salem; Keith in the armed services in Germany, and Clarence, Buena Park, Calif.

W. A. Shewey Dies In Oregon

William A. Shewey Sr., 81, a former resident of the Flathead, died Monday at Eugene, Ore. Born at Tarkio, Mo., Dec. 28, 1889, he married Hester M. Wells in Kansas Oct. 16, 1916.

She died in August 1935. He is survived by a sister, one son; four daughters including Mrs. George Colby, Kila, 17 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Funeral services and interment were today at Eugene.

Glenn Shirley Dies In Idaho, Rites In Iowa

Glenn H. Shirley, 35, 214 Fifth Ave. E., died at Sandpoint, Idaho, Monday. He was born May 19, 1936, at Tabor, Iowa, a son of Ross and Louise Shirley. He spent his early years in Iowa and graduated from high school at Boys Town, Neb.

He entered the U.S. Marine Corps where he served until 1959 when he returned to Nebraska. In May 1971 he moved to Kalispell and was employed as a lineman for Harp Line Construction Co.

Oct. 13, 1962, he married Rosemary Stromp at Spaulding, Neb., and is now survived by her at the family home. He is also survived by one son, David, at home; his father, Ross Shirley, Big Bear Lake, Calif.; two brothers, Ernest and Fredrick Shirley, both of Omaha; five uncles, including Larry Shirley of Kalispell; four aunts including Mrs. Robert Griffiths of Missoula; his grandmothers, Mrs. Emma Shirley, Sidney, Iowa, and Mrs. Ethel Carroll, Central City, Neb., and a number of other relatives.

The body is being forwarded to the Reeves Funeral Home at Tabor, Iowa, where funeral services and interment are planned Saturday.

DeForest Shotwell Dies At 54; Service Tuesday

DeForest N. Shotwell, 54, 44 Fourth Ave. E., died in Kalispell Friday. He was born July 21, 1917, at Carmen, N.C., a son of Rev. DeForest and Grace Shotwell. He received his elementary education at Ottumwa, Iowa and Rice Lake, Wis.

He attended West Junior High School in Sioux City, Iowa and graduated from Central High School in 1936. He then attended college at Buena Vista College, Storm Lake, Iowa and Hastings College, Hastings, Neb. He graduated from the University of Wyoming at Laramie in 1941.

He did graduate work at Brigham Young University at Provo, Utah; University of Wyoming and also Flathead Valley Community College. His teaching include positions at Deader, Hanna, Rawlins and Douglas, Wyo., prior to coming to Kalispell in 1962. He has been Director of Choral Music at Flathead High School since.

Mr. Shotwell was a veteran of World War II, having served as a sergeant in the 29th Weather Sq. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church. Nov. 21, 1941, he married Lucille Hofferber at Laramie, Wyo. and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by one son, DeForest, Lakewood, Colo.; five daughters, Mrs. James (Kathryn) Preble, Lakewood; Susan Shotwell, Denver; Lynne, Carol and Mary Shotwell all of Kalispell; his father, Rev. DeForest Shotwell, Santa Fe, N.M.; one brother, Rev. Clayton Shotwell, Colorado Springs, Colo.; one sister, Mrs. Charles (Dorothy) Wagener, Oroville, Calif., and a number of other relatives. Funeral services for Mr. Shotwell will be at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday in the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Dr. Odin A. Baugh officiating. Interment will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

The family has suggested participation in the DeShotwell memorial scholarship now being established at Flathead High School.

DeFOREST SHOTWELL

Mrs. Ellen Shupert Dies At Anaconda Monday, Plan Rites

Mrs. Ellen Shupert, 76, Monday. She was born April 13, Whitefish, died in Anaconda 1894, at Oseola, Ind. She had received her education and spent her early life in Indiana.

Oct. 22, 1913, she married Clyde Shupert at Elkhart, Ind. The couple then moved to Whitefish where he had been employed as a machinist for the Great Northern Railway. He died Sept. 9, 1962.

Mrs. Shupert is now survived by three sons, Raymond and Glen, both of Whitefish, and Ernest, Homer, Alaska; two daughters, Mrs. Bernard (Jane) News, Spokane, and Mrs. Harry (Katherine) Bowers, Whitefish; 17 grandchildren; 33 great-grandchildren and two sisters, Anna Stopper and Edith Stopper both of Mishawaka, Ind.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by the Austin Funeral Home.

Emelia Sibley Rites Wednesday

Mrs. Emelia (Matilda) Sibley, 87, died Monday at the Immanuel Lutheran Home where she had been a patient for about a week. She was born May 26, 1883, at Dows, Iowa, a daughter of Erick and Martha Iverson.

April 22, 1908, she married Martin Halvor Sibley at Albert Lea, Minn. They then moved to Hartland, Minn., where they lived until 1919 when they moved to Montana, coming to the Flathead Valley in 1920. Mr. Sibley died in 1924 and the family continued to farm in the Egan community.

Mrs. Sibley moved into Kalispell in 1943 and has lived here since that time. She was a member of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

She was also preceded in death by a son, Kenneth, in 1941 and is now survived by four sons, Harold E., Maynard L., Ellsworth I. and Donald R. Sibley, and two daughters, Mrs. Acil (Buenetta) McCown and Mrs. Henrie (Marvel) Nichol, all of Kalispell; 16 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by one brother, Adolph Iverson of Ames, Iowa and numerous other relatives in Iowa and Minnesota.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church at 3 p.m. Wednesday with the Rev. Henrik Eugebretson of the Calvary Lutheran Church officiating. Interment will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery. The family suggest memorials to the Immanuel Lutheran Home.

Lillian Simpson Dies Tuesday, Funeral Friday

Mrs. Lillian Gertrude Simpson, 64, Meadow Manor Trailer Court, died in Kalispell Tuesday. She was born March 5, 1907, at Independence, Mo., a daughter of Joseph and Margaret Warren.

As a child she moved to Montana where she has since resided. Feb. 5, 1924, she married Ralph E. Simpson. The couple had made their home in the Ferndale area near Bigfork until July 1969, when they moved to Kalispell. Mrs. Simpson was a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, and is now survived by her widower, at the family home; one son, Jack E. Simpson, Kalispell; two daughters, May Hawkins, Dillon, and Frances Dunlap, Milwaukee, Wis.; 12 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; two brothers, Jay Warren, Great Falls, and Rex Warren, Reno, Nev.; one sister, Inez Bennett, Vale, Ore., and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services for Mrs. Simpson will be at 2 p.m. Friday with Mr. Russell Phillips of the Jehovah's Witnesses officiating. Interment will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Plan Funeral For Grace Sindt For Monday

WHITEFISH—Mrs. Grace Sindt, 83, 637 Somers Ave., Whitefish, died in Whitefish Thursday. She was born Oct. 1, 1887, at Stockton-on-Tees, England, a daughter of Dugald and Mary Jane MacGregor. She had received her education in England. In 1903 she moved to Weyburn, Sask. and married John Sindt there Oct. 8, 1906.

In 1908 they moved to Whitefish and in 1909 moved to Plentywood where they homesteaded until 1913 when they returned to Whitefish. Mr. Sindt had worked for the Great Northern Railway until 1927 at which time the couple joined operations in the Voormans Dairy. In 1946 they sold their interest in the dairy and moved to Spokane.

They later lived at Hope, Idaho, Troy and Libby before returning to Whitefish in 1959 where they had since resided. Mrs. Sindt was a member of the Episcopal Church; a life member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Vista Chapter 44 and the Lady Firemen. She was preceded in death by her husband May 28, 1963.

She is now survived by one son, Jack Sindt, Whitefish; two daughters, Mrs. Joe (Doris) Voormans, Whitefish, and Mrs. Allen (Marjorie) Parnell, Carmeron, La.; four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sindt are planned for Monday in the Austin Chapel with interment in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Vivian Siner Dies Tuesday, Plan Services

HOT SPRINGS — Funeral services are pending for Mrs. Vivian Siner, 57, Hot Springs, who died at her home Tuesday.

Mrs. Siner came to Hot Springs in 1932 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I.R. Strange, from Valier. In 1940 she married Murray Siner who died in February 1970.

After helping her parents on a milk route, she became a beauty operator and was office manager for several years at the Sanders County Hospital. She joined the grocery department of the Hot Springs Mercantile 11 years ago and was head of the department at the time of her death.

Mrs. Siner is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Roxie Hoots in Texas; two sons, David, Great Falls, and Danny, Hot Springs; three brothers, Velmer, Lloyd and Theron Strange, all of Spokane; and one grandchild.

Harry Smith Dies; Rites Announced

Harry H. Smith, 81, Ronan, died Saturday morning in Missoula General Hospital.

Mr. Smith was born on May 17, 1889, in Nebraska to Lyvia and James Smith. Mrs. Smith received his education in Iowa and in 1913 moved to Havre where he homesleaded and ranched until 1952 when he retired and moved to Ronan.

May 3, 1913, he was married to Mildred Potts at Havre and who now survives him. He is also survived by a brother Dave Smith in Prescott, Iowa, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services have been set for Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in the Johnson Chapel with Rev. M. R. Erdmann of the Christian Missionary Alliance Church officiating. Interment will follow in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Jeane M. Smith Funeral Monday

Mrs. Jeane Marr Smith, 91, died at her home, 372 First Ave. E.N. Friday morning. She was born Dec. 8, 1880, at Dodgeville, Wis., a daughter of William and Matilda Marr. She received her education in Wisconsin and later moved to Arkansas where May 1, 1902, she married William Price at Hope.

The couple later moved to Texas where they lived until 1954 when they moved to Miles City. Mr. Price died in 1956, and in 1958 Mrs. Price married Joseph Smith who preceded her in death in 1960. Mrs. Smith then moved to Dayton to make her home with her daughter until moving to Kalispell.

She was a lifelong member of the Christian Church. She is survived by one son, Robert Price, San Francisco; one daughter, Mrs. Willa Huckins, Dayton; three grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; one brother, Charles Marr, Adrian, Minn.; one sister, Mrs. Ray Frank, Salt Lake City, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mrs. Smith will be at 1:30 p.m. Monday in the Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Fred Paxton, pastor of the Central Christian Church, officiating. Interment will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Leland R. Smith Dies Friday, Service Pending

MARTIN CITY—Leland R. Smith, 66, died in Kalispell Friday. He was born at Winterset, Iowa, July 11, 1904.

He worked for the Corps of Engineers, Bureau of Reclamation and the western office of design and construction for the National Park Service, San Francisco. He was a veteran of World War II serving in the Pacific and European Theaters. He was also a veteran of the Korean War.

Upon retirement in 1968 he returned to Martin City to make his home. Jan. 23, 1929, he married Clara S. Rich at Newport, Ark. She now survives him at the family home. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Joyce Kartheiser, Oct. 9, 1969.

He is also survived by six grandchildren, four brothers and six sisters. Funeral services will be announced by the Van Leuven Funeral Home.