Robert E. Noel

Robert E. Noel died Wednesday of a massive heart attack, an autopsy showed.

The body of Mr. Noel, 59, a retired Missoula banker, was recovered Friday from beneath a dock in Flathead Lake near his west shore summer home. A chair and a pair of glasses were found on the dock.

W. A. "Bill" Phillips, Lake County sheriff-coroner, said the autopsy showed there was no water in Mr. Noel's lungs, indicating that he had died of the heart attack before he entered the water.

Funeral services are tentatively scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Monday in the Episcopal Church in Missoula.
