

Anthony F. Yaholkovsky, 87

28 Mar. 1978

Anthony F. Yaholkovsky, 87, of 728 S. Main, died Tuesday evening at his home. He was a retired businessman.

Mr. Yaholkovsky was born May 24, 1890 in St. Petersburg, Russia. He attended the University of St. Petersburg prior to entering the Russian Imperial Army in World War I. He was a captain. He later served in the Siberian campaign with the White Army in the Russian Civil War.

For a number of years he was in the import and export business in Harbin and Dairen China. After the Russian occupation he moved to South China and to Hong Kong. He came to San Francisco in 1953. He was active in the Russian colony affairs there. He moved to Sacramento after retiring in 1965 and then to Kalispell in 1975.

Surviving are his widow at home, Vera V.; two sons, Dr. Vladimir A. Yaholkovsky, Kalispell, and George A.

Yaholkovsky-Corwin, Pittsburgh, Pa.; and 10 grandchildren.

Graveside services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday in Conrad Memorial Cemetery with Father Paul Taylor of Christ Church (Episcopal) officiating, under the direction of the Weatherford Funeral Home.

Ralph Yearley

9 July 1978

Ralph W. Yearley, 71, of Whitefish, died in North Valley Hospital Sunday afternoon. He was a retired electrician.

Mr. Yearley was born September 18, 1906 in Chicago, Illinois. He attended schools in Quincy, Illinois and graduated from high school there. As a young man he moved to San Francisco where he worked in the building trades, later becoming an electrician.

He married Betty Fraser in Oakland, California, September 4, 1953. The couple lived in San Jose, California, many years and moved to Whitefish after he retired in 1970.

He was a member of Glacier Unitarian Universalist Fellowship in Kalispell; a life member of the Moose Lodge and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, both in San Jose.

Surviving are his widow Betty at home; a son, Sgt. Bruce Yearley, U.S.M.C., Camp LeJeune, North Carolina; his step-daughter Mrs. Margaret Nelson, Santa Cruz, California; and eight grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents.

It was Mr. Yearley's request that his body be cremated and that there would be no memorial services. Cremation was in the Weatherford Crematory in Kalispell.

Fred Charles Young, 83

16 Mar. 1978

Fred Charles Young, 83, who had resided at 538 9th St. W., died in Kalispell Thursday morning.

He was born June 9, 1894, in New Market, Iowa, a son of David and Thursa Young. He had received his schooling in Iowa and on Feb. 6, 1917, he was married to Hazel Wagner in Palisade, Colo.

In 1942, he moved to the Flathead Valley, where he was a scaler working in lumbering and woodwork until his retirement. He had also engaged in the training of horses.

He is now survived by his wife, Hazel, at home; five sons, Fred of Cottage Grove, Ore., Art of Troy, Wesley and Gary, both of Kalispell, and Joe Young of Pittsburg, Calif.; five daughters, Ardena Nabor of Kent, Wash., Jacqueline Plympton of Kalispell, Louise Klos of Kirby, Wyo., Dollean Lind of Hardin and Madeline Colman of Atlanta, Ga.; 52 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

Services for Young will be conducted in the Johnson Chapel at 2 p.m. Saturday with Lt. Roger Bowman of the Salvation Army officiating. Burial will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens.